POLICY FOR DETERMINATION OF MATERIALITY FOR DISCLOSURE OF EVENTS OR INFORMATION

Amended and effective February 3, 2022

1. Objective

In terms of regulation 30(4)(ii) of SEBI (Listing Obligation and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 (The “Regulations”), the Board of Directors (the “Board”) of Kennametal India Limited (the “Company”) had approved this Policy for Determination of Materiality for disclosure of events or information (“Policy”) on November 9, 2015 and further amended this Policy at its meeting held on February 3, 2022, for determination of materiality for disclosure of events or information (“Material Information”) so that such information can be promptly disclosed to the Stock Exchange, as per the Regulations or its amendments.

2. Authorised Officials

The majority of the Key Managerial Personnel shall be the Authorised Officials to determine the materiality of events or information.

The Company Secretary is authorized to make intimation/s to the Stock Exchange in compliance with the Regulations and the Circular/Notification issued in connection thereto. In the absence of the Company Secretary, for any reasons, the Chief Financial Officer shall be the responsible person to disseminate intimation/s to stock exchange. In the absence of both Company Secretary and Chief Financial Officer, for any reasons, the Managing Director shall be the responsible person authorised to disseminate information to Stock Exchange.

3. Material Events

I. All information / events as specified in Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations as may be amended from time to time (attached as Annexure 1 to this Policy) are deemed to be material events and shall be disclosed as prescribed under the Regulations on occurrence of such events.

II. The information / events specified in Para B of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations as may be amended from time to time (attached as Annexure 1 to this Policy) will be disclosed based on application of guidelines for Materiality under the Regulations.

III. Any other information/event viz. major development that is likely to affect business, e.g. emergence of new technologies, expiry of patents, any change of accounting policy that may have a significant impact on the accounts, etc. and brief details thereof and any other information which is exclusively known to the listed entity which may be necessary to enable the holders of securities of the listed entity to appraise its position and to avoid the establishment of a false market in such securities.

IV. Any event or information as may be specified from Securities and Exchange Board of India (“SEBI”) from time to time.

Provided that any confidential information which if disclosed, is likely to put at risk the business interest of the Company shall not be disclosed. The Company to that extent shall make qualified disclosure to the stock exchange.

4. Guidelines for assessing Materiality

In order to determine whether a particular event / information is material in nature, the following 'quantitative' or 'qualitative' criteria(s) shall be applied:

- i. Quantitative Criteria: Where the value involved in an event or the impact of an event exceeds 5% of the gross turnover as per audited financial statements of the immediate previous financial year of the Company.

- ii. Qualitative Criteria: In absence of quantitative criteria, event shall be considered material by the Authorised Officials by applying following guideline for determination of materiality of events / information:
  - (a) the omission of an event or information, which is likely to result in discontinuity or alteration of event or information already available publicly; or
  - (b) the omission of an event or information is likely to result in significant market reaction if the said omission came to light at a later date;
  - (c) In case where the criteria specified in sub-clauses (a) and (b) are not applicable, an event/information may be treated as being material if in the opinion of the Board of Directors of the Company, the event / information is considered material.

iii. Notification

The Authorised Officials shall first disclose to stock exchange about events specified above, or information as soon as reasonably possible and not later than twenty-four hours from the occurrence of event or information:

Provided that in case the disclosure is made after twenty four hours of occurrence of the event or information, the listed entity shall, along with such disclosures provide explanation for delay:

Provided further that disclosure with respect to events specified in sub-para 4 of Para A of Part A of Schedule III of the Regulations shall be made within the timelines specified therein.

The Authorised Officials shall, with respect to disclosures referred to in this Regulations, make disclosures updating material developments on a regular basis, till such time the event is resolved/closed, with relevant explanations.

All disclosures made under this policy shall be hosted on the Company's website for a minimum period of five years from the date of disclosure.

6. Website

As per the provision of the Regulations, this Policy shall be disclosed on the website of the Company.

7. Conflict

In any circumstance where the terms of this policy differ from any existing or newly enacted law, Regulations, Notifications or circular issued by Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) time to time, the law, Regulations, Notification or circular will take precedence over this policy.

8. Review

This policy will be reviewed on a periodical basis as mandated by applicable law for the time being in force and/ or whenever need arises.
