Board of directors to meet on October 5 to approve the fundraise

DEEPAK KORGAONKAR AND NIKITA VASHISHT

Mumbai/New Delhi, 25 September

'ndia's biggest non-banking financial company (NBFC) Bajaj Finance is set to raise capital after a gap of four years. On October 5, the board of directors will meet to approve the fundraise by way of preferential issue and/or qualified institutional placement (OIP), subject to regulatory and shareholder approvals.

Analysts said the move could be in the wake of simmering competition in the consumer lending space, especially with the launch of Jio Financial Services (Jio Fin). "While we still do not have finer details on the game plan of Jio Financial, it may have plans to initially foray into consumer and merchant lending. Some of the channel checks suggest that Jio Financial has already started consumer lending pilots in consumer durables / lifestyle stores owned by Reliance," said analysts at Motilal Oswal Financial Services (MOFSL), in a report.

According to management, Jio Fin's emphasis is on operational execution.

These may enable it to offer a diverse range of financial products through various distribution channels and pursue cross-selling opportunities. This fundraise, thus, could be because Bajaj Finance is readying its capital ammunition for a competitive landscape in the next few years, analysts said.

On the BSE, shares of Bajaj Finance went up 5 per cent intraday, before closing 4.6 per cent higher at ₹7,819.20 per share.

Supporting long-term growth

In the April-June quarter of 2023-24 (Q1FY24), Bajaj Finance reported core assets under management (AUM) growth PERFORMANCE REVIEW

	After capital raise		Change in estimate (%
	FY24E	FY25E	FY24E	FY25E
Net worth (₹ cr)	75,400	94,300	13	14
EPS (₹)	251	325	6	7
BVPS (₹)	1,232	1,541	11	12
RoA (%)	4.7	4.8	6 bps	11 bps
RoE (%)	22	23	-156 bps	-113 bps
Note: Assuming BVPS: Book valu

of 32 per cent year-on-year (Y-o-Y), up from points, covering physical, app-based, web, 29 per cent in 2022-23 (FY23).

The management expects the AUM compound annual growth rate (CAGR) to be over 30 per cent for the next few years. This is ahead of the earlier expectations of 26-27 per cent CAGR.

Besides, Bajaj Finance is foraying into product segments such as auto, microfinance, tractor and commercial vehicles (CVs), which may lift the AUM growth more than expected.

Given that there is strong buoyancy in retail lending, global brokerage CLSA believes sustainability of strong retail loan growth over the next few years could have encouraged the management to contemplate the capital raise.

It has raised its loan growth estimates by 2-3 percentage points over FY25-26.

Improving earnings per share

Bajaj Finance aims to be an omnipresent financial services company, asserting dominance across all consumer touchsocial and virtual channels.

If the NBFC decides to raise funds to the tune of 10-15 per cent of its net worth, the issue size could be ₹8,000 crore ($1 billion), Jefferies estimates. "This would lead to FY24 earnings per share (EPS) and book value per share (BVPS) rising 6 per cent and 11 per cent, respectively. Return on equity (RoE) may see a slight fall to 22 per cent," it said. CLSA, which expects a fundraise of ₹10,000 crore, sees BVPS accretion at 10-13 per cent. During the previous fund raising instances, that is in FY19, FY17, and FY15, Bajaj Finance's trailing leverage was 6.3x, 6.6x, and 6.8x, respectively.

At present, its consolidated leverage (assets/net worth) stands at 5.2x, and capital adequacy is 24.6 per cent (as of June 2023). "Bajaj Finance has clocked an annualised RoE of over 23 per cent in each of the last five quarters. We expect the company to deliver RoE of 24-25 per cent (pre-capital raise) in FY24 and FY25," MOFSL added.

Reduce uncertainties of home purchase with competent broker

Professional certification and experience can boost the odds of finding the right individual

SANJAY KUMAR SINGH

Purchasing a house comes with a fair share of uncertainties. However, these uncertainties get significantly reduced when you have a competent, professional, and credible broker to assist you.

Check credentials

A few elements bolster a broker's credibility. He should have enrolled with his state's Real Estate Regulatory Authority (RERA).

Find out if the broker is part of an association, such as the National Association of Realtors (NAR), "If a broker is part of an association like ours, and he indulges in any wrongdoing, you can report him to the association," says Shivakumar CR, president, NAR.

Also, check if the broker possesses a professional certification. "Maharashtra RERA has empanelled five institutes to teach a 20-hour course on real estate to practising professionals, which is followed by a test. The Indian Institute of Real Estate offers this course," says Shivakumar. While the above filters are not fool proof, they will guide you towards a person who has invested time and effort in equipping himself for the job and is present for the long haul.

run by NAR is one of the institutes that

Experience counts

When it comes to experience, more is better. "An experienced broker would have witnessed and handheld his clients through both bull and bear phases," says Pradeep Mishra, founder, Homents. In his view, a broker should ideally possess at least 10 years of experience. MONEY

Expertise in local market

When you narrate your requirements to your broker, he should be able to suggest a number of options. "The inventory the broker possesses is very important," says Sajid, vice

POTENTIAL MINEFIELDS

■ If there is a dispute in the project, and there is a stay on it, the broker should keep his clients away from such projects

■The broker must only sell RERA-registered projects and not unapproved ones

■The broker should know whether an under-construction property has received key approvals

■The broker should be aware of whether a ready-to-move-in project has received the occupation certificate president-residential sales and marketing, Silverline Realty.

Try to assess whether the broker has good knowledge of the prices prevailing in the area you are interested in, and is > able to provide the pros and cons of various projects. "The location of one project might be good, but its developer's track record may not be sound. The broker should be able to guide vou on these counts." says Mishra.

Only by speaking to several brokers and assessing the depth of their knowledge can a customer make the right choice, adds Mishra. The developer should also possess knowledge of the area's master plan, and the government's infrastructurerelated plans for it.

Engage with a recommended individual

Don't get taken in by people who advertise a lot. Go by testimonials. "Ask for the number of the broker's past clients and speak to at least three or four," says Mishra.

Check with friends, family, and colleagues. If several of them recommend a particular broker, your chances of finding a sound professional increase.

Carry out an extensive online search. Also check their social media accounts. Many clients nowadays share their experiences with a particular broker on social media. Google Reviews is another useful source.

Guidance on valuation

The broker should be able to provide his client guidance on a property's valuation. Says Sajid: "Here, experience counts. The broker should have a good knowledge of the rates at which recent transactions took place. He should also be able to factor in other variables such as the quality of interiors or maintenance charges to arrive at the right valuation."

Don't overpay

The brokerage rate can vary from one region to another. According to Mishra, who operates in the National Capital Region, the buyer and the seller both pay1per cent plus goods and services tax (GST) in the secondary market.

Bengaluru-based Sajid informs that the seller pays 2 per cent plus GST while the buyer pays 1 per cent plus GST. In case of rentals, the brokerage fee is one month's rental fee plus GST.

Mishra suggests that the client should clarify right at the start whether he will be required to pay any additional charges (say, documentation-related).

Finally, the broker should have knowledge of the documentation involved in a real estate transaction. "He should understand the intricacies of the agreement to sell, sale deed, etc., the key clauses therein, and should be able to explain their implications to his client." says Vaibhav Suri, partner, Luthra and Luthra Law Offices India.

५ महिन्याच्या बाळाखातर मुंबई पोलीस उभे ठाकले

प्रतिनिधी, मुंबई

पोलीस हे मदत करण्यासाठी सदैव तत्पर असतात पोलिसांमधील माणुसकीचे दर्शनं देणारा हा व्हिडीओ प्रत्येकांचे लक्ष वेधून घेत आहे. घरगुती बाप्पाला विसर्जन करण्यासाठी एक गणेश भक्त त्याच्या ५ महिन्यांच्या तान्हुल्या

घेऊन आला होता. बाप्पाला निरोप दिल्यानंतर मंबईच्या रस्त्यावर उ टॅक्सीला थांबवत होता. प्रत्येक टॅक्सीवाला त्याल

नाही म्हणत होता. आता बाळाला भूक लागली होती तो रडत होता. तरीही कुठल्याही टॅक्सीवाला थांबत नव्हता.त्यात पावसामुळे अधिक अडचण झाली होती. आता काय करायचं असा विचार करत असतानाच या बापासाठी जणू 'बाप्पाच घावून आला. बाप हताश झाला होता आणि चिमुकला रहत

होता, अशात मुंबई पोलिसांची एक गाडी तिथे आली. चिमुकल्याची आणि त्या माणसाची अवस्था पाहन ते त्यांच्या मदतीसाठी सरसावले. त्यांनी या गोंडस बाळाला आणि त्याचा वडिलांना आपल्या गाडीतून लिफ्ट दिली.एव्हडेच नाही तर अगदी त्यांना घरापर्यंत मोडले गाडीत बमल्यावर त्या बाळाचे रहणे थांबले आणि त्याच्या चेहऱ्यावर हसू उमटले
