...more bodies raising the death toll to more than 5,000. Countries around the world dispatched teams to assist in the rescue efforts, and Turkey's disaster management agency said more than 24,400 emergency personnel were now on the ground. But with such a wide swath of territory hit by Monday's earthquake and nearly 6,000 buildings confirmed to have collapsed in Turkey alone, their efforts were spread thin.

Attempts to reach survivors were also impeded by temperatures below freezing and close to 200 aftershocks, which made the search through unstable structures perilous.

Boeing said on Monday. "While no one has been notified of job loss, we will continue to share information transparently to allow people to plan."

Boeing said it expects to "significantly grow" the overall workforce during the year. "We grew Boeing's workforce by 15,000 last year and plan to hire another 10,000 employees this year with a focus on engineering and manufacturing," the statement said.

Boeing's total workforce was 156,000 employees as of December 31, 2022, the company said.

Mike Friedman, a senior director of communications, said the other positions will be eliminated as the company makes reductions in finance and HR support services.

"Over time, some of our corporate functions have grown quite large. And with that growth tends to come bureaucracy or disparate systems that are inefficient," Friedman said. "So we're streamlining."

The Times reported about 1,500 of the company's approximately 1,800 finance positions will be cut, with up to 400 more job cuts in HR. AP
