Wipro elevates 31 staff to senior roles

LEVERAGING ITS BENCH strength, Wipro appointed 25 VPs (vice presidents) and six SVPs (senior vice-presidents) on Tuesday as part of measures to continue transformation within the company, CEO and MD Thierry Delaporte told employees in an internal mail.

AWipro spokesperson said, "Wipro congratulates all our leaders who have been promoted to senior vice president and vice president positions. These promotions are part of Wipro's ongoing commitment to developing strong internal leaders, who are critical in driving our strategy forward. Bigger rival Infosys also recently boasted of its deep bench strength to analysts amid a slew of top-level exits in the company. Of more than 90 senior vice presidents and executive vice presidents that Infosys has, about 50% have been with the firm for more than 20 years, said Nomura in a note recently. The most recent top management personnel to exit was Ravi Kiran Kuchibhotla, who resigned from the services as per the BSE filing of the company last week. Other key notable exits

However, analysts at CLSA have a different take on top management churn at Infosys and the impact on its business. They said, "Top management churn is leading to loss of deals and slippage in delivery execution."

Not just Infosys, but even other large players like Wipro, Tech Mahindra and LTIMindtree are seeing high-level resignations amid slowdown in global tech spends. LTIMindtree saw around 18 top-level exits in the last one year, including several CXOs like CTO, CFO, CBO, CMO and others.

Accenture's guidance cut dashes hopes of IT firms guidance cut has reaffirmed

PADMINI DHRUVARAJ Bengaluru, March 22

A REVENUE GUIDANCE cut by the global information technology (IT) giant Accenture has cast a shadow over Indian IT companies. Analysts nowworry that the next financial year, 2024-25, will also be gloomy for these companies, dashing hopes of a muchanticipated recovery eyed later this calendar year.

Earnings of Accenture, the world's largest IT services provider, are often seen as a projection of how its Indian peers will perform. As a result, the news of the revenue fore-
