SAYS BILL WILL END AUTONOMY OF 8 GRANT-IN-AID UNIVERSITIES

Cong terms common varsities Bill an 'organised conspiracy'

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE AHMEDABAD, AUGUST 7

IN A FRESH ATTACK on the ruling BJP, Congress on Monday claimed the "Common Universities Bill 2023" -- set to be introduced by the state government in the upcoming monsoon session of the Gujarat Assembly -- will end the financial and administrative autonomy of eight grant-in-aid universities in the state. It will also usurp the huge bank-owned land from the institutions, the party added. Amit Chavda, Congress leader in Gujarat Assembly, also claimed the proposed Bill is meant to monetise the huge land parcels in the heart of urban areas with the universities across Gujarat, "We all know that the old universities in Gujarat are located in prominent spots in urban areas. These universities have huge large parcels which are worth more than Rs 50,000 crore. The BJP government has its eyes set on the real estate. It is an organised conspiracy," he alleged, adding the land for the varsities was mostly given by

"We want to clearly state that the proposed legislation will end the autonomy of the grant-in-aid universities which used to be a huge support for children from middle and low-income families. This will centralise university education and will also end the academic autonomy that these institutions enjoyed for the last several decades," Chavda

"For instance, at MS University (in Vadodara), the Computer Science course which costs just Rs 8,000 could go up to Rs 2 lakh and this will create difficulties for students from weak economic backgrounds," he said, adding the BJP government in Gujarat will end elected bodies like "senate" and "syndicate" that exist in these universities and the government will end up appointing its own people to proposed "board of manage-

Chavda asked people in the state to raise objections against the draft of the proposed Bill which has been kept in the public domain.

Congress leaders who addressed reporters also said the BJP government tried to bring the proposed Bill in 2004, 2007, 2011, and 2015.

"In the last two decades, the Gujarat government opened a number of private universities which neither have land nor the necessary infrastructure. But if these private universities have to be made successful, it is important the government universities are weakened (through the prolegislation)," said Congress leader Indravijaysinh

The BJP is yet to react to the claims.

approach to hunt and kill, Supreme Court told convicts were chasing Bilkis with PRESSTRUSTOFINDIA NEW DELHI, AUGUST 7 THE CONVICTS in the Bilkis Bano gang rape case and murder of seven of her family members during the 2002 Gujarat riots chased her with a "bloodthirsty approach" to hunt Muslims and kill them, the Supreme Court was told and Ujjal Bhuyan. on Monday. Commencing arguments on the plea challenging the remission granted last year to all the 11 convicts, advocate Shobha Gupta, appearing for Bilkis Bano, submitted she was brutally gangraped while she was pregnant and her first child was assaulted with a rock to death.

"She kept pleading that she is like a sister to them as she knew all of them. They were from around the area. It was not a spurof-the-moment incident. The a bloodthirsty approach to hunt Muslims and kill them. They raised slogans - These are Muslims, kill them'. The High Court has taken note that the crime committed by them was rare, uncommon, and driven by communal hatred," Gupta told a bench of Justices BV Nagarathna

The lawyer told the court the convicts were released on August 15, 2022, following remission of sentence and Bilkis came to know about it when she saw the celebrations outside the jail as they came out.

Opposing the remission granted to the convicts, Gupta said the CBI had opposed the premature release of the convicts saying a wrong message will go out to the society at large as the crime is of such a nature that it cannot be pardoned. The hearing will resume

Bilkis Bano case convicts driven by 'bloodthirsty'

The top court had fixed August 7 for the start of the final hearing on a batch of pleas, challenging the remission granted last year to all the 11 convicts in the case.

On May 9, the top court directed the publication of notices in local newspapers, including in Gujarati and English, against the convicts who could not be served notices.

The top court on May 2 deferred the hearing after some of the counsel for the convicts raised objections about not being served notices on the pleas challenging the remission granted to them.

The Centre and the Gujarat government had told the court they were not filing any plea for a review of the court's March 27 order asking for the production of the original records with regard to the remission granted to the convicts. The Gujarat government had raised preliminary objections with regard to the petitions filed in the matter other than the one by Bilkis Bano, saying it will have wide ramifications as every now and then third parties will approach courts in criminal cases.

The top court had on April 18 questioned the Gujarat government over the remission granted to the 11 convicts, saying the gravity of the offence should have been considered before showing leniency, and wondered if there was any application of mind.

Asking for reasons for the premature release of the convicts, the top court had also questioned frequent parole granted to them during their incarceration, "It (remission) is a kind of grace, which should be proportional to the crime," it had said.

Terming Bilkis Bano's gangrape and the murder of her family members a "horrendous" act, the apex court had on March 27 asked the Gujarat government whether uniform standards, as followed in other murder cases, were applied while granting remission to the convicts. Besides Bilkis Bano's petition, several other PILs including one by CPI(M) leader Subhashini Ali, independent journalist Revati Laul, and former vice-chancellor of Lucknow University Roop Rekha Verma have challenged the remission. Trinamool Congress (TMC) MP Mahua Moitra has also filed a PIL against the remission, Bilkis Bano was 21 years old and five months pregnant when she was gangraped while fleeing the horror of the communal riots that broke out after the Godhra train-burning in-
