TOWER INSTALLATION Fee hike by Delhi civic bodies: Telcos to write to DoT

KIRAN RATHEE
New Delhi, January 27

MOBILE OPERATORS IN Delhi may face deterioration of services as installation of new towers in the Capital has come to a halt for the past over two months with the portal set up to take applications lying defunct most of the times. The telcos are also complaining about the 150% increase in permission fee for installing towers by the municipal corporations of Delhi.

The rates have been increased to ₹5 lakh for five-years as compared to ₹2 lakh for five-years earlier. The revised rates will force telecom operators to shell out ₹120 crore for putting towers in NDMC areas for five years.

Apart from the permission fee, telcos need to pay rentals to the tenants. Usually, the rental for Delhi ranges anywhere from ₹25,000 per tower to ₹50,000 per tower, depending on the locality. Apart from that, companies need to spend on electricity and diesel to run the mobile towers.

The telecom industry has strongly objected to the increase in charges by the municipal bodies and two meetings have already taken place between the stakeholders, including officials of the Department of Telecommunications (DoT) and local bodies. However, so far, no solution has been found. The telcos are soon going to write to DoT, expressing their concerns regarding the hiked rates.

TR Dua, director-general, Tower and Infrastructure Providers Association (TAIPA) said, "This arbitrary increase in the fee by NDMC & SDMC is a violation of the settlement agreement between MCD and the telecom industry which was signed under the direction of the high court in January 2020."

Real estate sentiment index in Oct-Dec highest in 2020

FE BUREAU
New Delhi, January 27

THE KNIGHT FRANK-FICCI-Naredco real estate sentiment index hit its highest mark in 2020 during the October-December period, rising for the second consecutive quarter in a row after Q1 and Q2 were a washout due to the Covid-19-induced disruptions. It entered the optimistic zone at 54 points in Q4 2020, a significant jump of 14 points over the previous quarter.

The future sentiment score rose to 65 points in Q4 2020 from 52 points in Q3 2020. Geographically, the western part of the country saw the sharpest jump in future sentiment index. For stakeholders, both developers and non-developers (banks, NBFCs, PE funds, etc) recorded an improvement in Future Sentiment score in Q4 2020.

"The current sentiment score jumped considerably to 54 in Q4 2020 from 40 in Q3 2020, entering the optimistic zone for the first time in 2020," the report said. For comparison sake, a score of more than 50 signifies 'optimism' in sentiments, while 50 means the sentiment is 'same' or 'neutral', and a score below 50 signifies 'pessimism'.

The October-December

Traction in the residential segment continued in Q4 on the back of festive discounts, pent-up demand and low home loan interest rates.

2020 quarter continued to see an improvement in the business momentum. Office space leasing grew as global players began acting on their pending and anticipated lease plans encouraged by the news of multiple potential Covid-19 vaccines. Traction in the residential segment continued in Q4 on the back of festive discounts, pent-up demand and low home loan interest rates. On the macroeconomic front, 82% of the respondents opined that the economy would grow further in the coming six months as opposed to 57% of respondents with the same view in Q3 2020.
