For a better yield of orange

PAKYONG, AUGUST 3 --/The Horticulture Department in Pakyong District organised a training cum distribution event under the Area Expansion Programme (MIDH) for orange seedlings at Chalamthang Pacheykhani GPU today.

The programme commenced with the Horticulture Development Officer Menuka Rai's, valuable insights into the plantation process of the seedlings to help farmers achieve optimal production. She highlighted the best months for planting and shared essential tips on caring for the seedlings during the dry winter season.

Moreover, a live demonstration of orange plantations was also conducted, showcasing the proper techniques and practices for successful cultivation. Prabha Pradhan, Zilla Upadhakshya, expressed her gratitude for everyone's support and involvement throughout the programme. She stressed that the goal of this effort is to advance horticulture in the GPU by providing farmers with crucial information and tools to improve their agricultural practices. She also emphasised the dedication to using various projects and efforts to make the GPU a model for development. The collective efforts from today's event will contribute towards achieving this vision. Further, she reiterated the government's commitment to ensure that every farmer benefits from the distributed seedlings, fostering increased production and prosperity in the state. During the programme, Mr. Robin Pd. Sewa, ADC (Dev), emphasised the significance of setting an example for other districts in promoting beautification and cleanliness in the GPU. He commended the ongoing efforts under the guidance of Zilla Upadhakshya towards the beautification of the GPU, which has already commenced. He defined the value of seedling distribution, stressing how it provides farmers with the tools they need to ensure appropriate plantation and effective cultivation, and he urged everyone to utilise the distributed seedlings to their fullest potential in order to increase agricultural productivity.

Sewa initiated the garden development and beautification of the GPU through the MGNREGA today. This initiative aims to enhance the aesthetic appeal and overall development of the district. The programme also witnessed the distribution of orange and bamboo seedlings, carried out on a ward-wise basis. Also present were Panchayat President Ms. Ranju Poudyal, staff from the Horticulture Department, MGNREGA workers, and the local public. (IPR)
