Speaking in the Lok Sabha during the debate on No-Confidence-motion moved by the Opposition on Wednesday, Shah highlighted the measures taken by the Modi government to curb terrorism and Naxalism.

"We banned PFI and conducted raids at over 90 locations in the country. Cases regarding attacks on our missions in London, Ottawa and San Francisco were handed over to NIA (National Investigation Agency). 26/11 Tahawwur Hussain Rana will also soon face the judiciary in India," Shah said.

Sansad TV focussed on Rahul for 40% of speech time: Cong

New Delhi: The Congress on Wednesday alleged Sansad TV focussed on its leader Rahul Gandhi for less than 40% of the time he spoke in the Lok Sabha on the noconfidence motion. Congress general secretary jairam Ramesh said Gandhi spoke for 37 minutes but was shown on Sansad TV camera for only 14 minutes and 37 seconds. He alleged while the former Congress chief spoke on Manipur during his speech in the Lok Sabha he was not shown on Sansad TV's camera for most of the time as the focus was on the Speaker for 71% of the time. "In his first speech after coming back from the unjustified disqualification, Rahul Gandhi spoke from 12.09pm to 12.46pm — 37 minutes — during the no-confidence motion. Out of which the Sansad TV camera showed him for only 14 mins 37 seconds. That's less than 40% screen time! What is Mr Modi afraid of," Ramesh posted on X. In another post, he alleged "This gets even worse." "Rahul Gandhi spoke on Manipur for 15 minutes 42 seconds. During which, Sansad TV's camera focused on the Speaker Om Birla for 11 min 08 seconds — 71% of the time. Sansad TV showed Rahul Gandhi on video for only 4 min 34 seconds while he spoke on Manipur," he said.

Breach of privilege complaint by MPs against Chadha sent to privileges panel

NEW DELHI: Rajya Sabha Chairman Jagdeep Dhankhar on Wednesday referred the complaints of 4 MPs, who accused AAP MP Raghay Chadha of proposing their name for a House panel without their consent in violation of rules, to the privileges committee to examine and investigate the matter. A Rajya Sabha bulletin said the chairman had received complaints from MPs Sasmit Patra, S Phangnon Konyak, M Thambidurai and Narhari Amin, who alleged breach of privilege by Chadha "for inter-alia including their names without their consent, in violation of the Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business, in a motion on August 7". Chadha had proposed the constitution of a select committee to consider the 'Government of NCT of Delhi (Amendment) Bill, 2023' and had included the names of the four MPs. "On consideration of the facts, the Chairman, Rajya Sabha has referred the matter under Rule 203 of Rules of Procedure and Conduct of Business in the Council of States (Rajya Sabha) to the Committee of Privileges for examination. investigation and report," the RS bulletin said.

NUH VIOLENCE: LETTER containing 'ban' surfaces online

CHANDIGARH: Letters purportedly written by some panchayat heads in Haryana's Mahendergarh, Rewari and Jhajjar districts "banning" Muslim traders from their villages have surfaced online, amid communal tension in parts of the state.

The almost identical letters, supposedly written by some sarpanches in these districts in recent days cite the violence in Nuh district on July 31, when mobs attacked a Vishva Hindu Parishad procession.

Five people, including two home guards, were killed in Nuh and a cleric died in an attack on a mosque in adjoining Gurugram as the violence spilled over. District authorities said they have taken note of the letters that have surfaced online and are investigating the matter.

The purported letters by sarpaches of some villages said the panchayats have decided not to give "permission" to the Muslim community and troublemakers to conduct any business. It specifies hawk ers, cattle traders and those seeking alms. However, when contacted, many sarpanches in Mahendergarh and Rewari denied having issued any such letters making a reference to a particular community. Mahendergarh Deputy Commissioner Monika Gupta said no such letters have been submitted before the government officials.

Modi clarifies why 'PM post' eluded Sharad Pawar

ONLINE REPORT / New Delh

Sharad Pawar could not become Prime Minister because of the Congress's dynasty politics, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said at a meeting with MPs of the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) from Maharashtra. "The BJP is not arrogant like the Congress, so it will stay in power," PM Modi said at the meeting on Tuesday, the latest in his series of chats with NDA MPs ahead of the national election next year. PM Modi also spoke about his first meeting as Prime Minister in 2014 with then President Pranab Mukherjee, another Congress veteran. "He told me the party (BJP) announced you as PM candidate and the party got an absolute majority in your name. This happened for the first time. The public chose you because before this, announcing the name of a PM candidate never resulted in a complete majority in elections." PM Modi shared. Sharad Pawar, 82, exited the Congress in 1999 following his revolt over Sonia Gandhi's foreign origin. Days later, he formed the Nationalist Congress Party (NCP), which recently split after a coup by his nephew Ajit Pawar, who has joined hands with the BJP.

Court says no to media coverage of ASI survey in Gyanvapi premises

RASHMI SHARMA / LUCKNOW

The District court of Varanasi has put a ban on the media coverage of the survey of Archeological Survey of India (ASI) inside the Gyanvapi premises.

A writ in this regard was filed by the Gyanvapi mosque committee saying fake news is being circulated during the ASI survey, which might disturb communal harmony and peace. The mosque committee had said that it would stay aloof from the survey if the media coverage is not banned.

While hearing the writ on Wednesday, the District Court of Varanasi directed that the coverage of media should be prohibited during the ASI survey at Gyanvapi. It has also ordered that there should be no media coverage of the survey. The members of the ASI team and the both Hindu & Muslim parties have been asked not to make any statement before the media. The district administration has been asked to keep media away from the barricades at gate number 4 of the Gyanvapi premises. The court has also re-

GURU KRIPAHI 'KERALAM'

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: God's Own Country wants to embrace

its traditional name. A resolution moved by the Kerala chief minister to rename the state 'Keralam', which is what it is called in Malayalam, has been passed unanimously by the Assembly. The House has also urged the Centre to take "immediate steps" to amend the name under Ar-

Tabling the resolution today, Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan said,

"The name of our state is Keralam in the Malayalam language. States were formed based on language on November 1, 1956. Kerala Day is also on November 1. The need to unite Kerala for the Malayalam-speaking communities has been strongly evident since the time of the national freedom struggle." "However, the name of our state is listed as Kerala in the First Schedule of the Constitution. This Assembly unanimously requests the Union Government to take immediate steps to amend it to 'Keralam' under Article 3 of the Constitution. This House also requests that our state be renamed as 'Keralam' in all the languages mentioned in

He gave away almost all his wealth to a handful of employees, content with his small house and a $5,000 car. R Thyagarajan is arguably one of the world's most idiosyncratic financiers - in no small part because his multibillion-dollar business, the Shriram Group, has thrived in an industry that tripped up countless others around the globe.

A pioneer in extending credit to India's poor for trucks, tractors and other vehicles, Thyagarajan built Shriram into a conglomerate that employs 108,000 people in everything from insurance to stockbroking. Shares of the group's flagship firm hit a record in July after jumping more than 35% this year, four times more than India's benchmark stock index.

Now 86, and settled into an advisory role, Thyagarajan said in a rare interview with Bloomberg News that he entered the industry to prove lending to people without credit histories or regular incomes isn't as risky as it's perceived. He

Modi clarifies why 'PM posť eluded Sharad Pawar

Sharad Pawar could not become Prime Minister because of the Congress's dynasty politics, Prime Minister Narendra Modi said at a meeting with MPs of the BJP-led National Democratic Alliance (NDA) from Maharashtra. "The BJP is not arrogant like the Congress, so it will stay in power," PM Modi said at the meeting on Tuesday, the latest in his series of chats with NDA MPs ahead of the national election next year. PM Modi also spoke about his first meeting as Prime Minister in 2014 with then President Pranab Mukherjee, another Congress veteran.

"He told me the party (BJP) announced you as PM candidate and the party got an absolute majority in your name. This happened for the first time. The public chose you because before this, announcing the name of a PM candidate never resulted in a complete majority in elections," PM Modi shared. NUH VIOLENCE: LETTER containing 'ban' surfaces online

CHANDIGARH: Letters purportedly written by some panchayat heads in Haryana's Mahendergarh, Rewari and Jhajjar districts "banning" Muslim traders from their villages have surfaced online, amid communal tension in parts of the state.

The almost identical letters, supposedly written by some sarpanches in these districts in recent days cite the violence in Nuh district on July 31, when mobs attacked a Vishva Hindu Parishad procession.

Five people, including two home guards, were killed in Nuh and a cleric died in an attack on a mosque in adjoining Gurugram as the violence spilled over. District authorities said they have taken note of the letters that have surfaced online and are investigating the matter.

The purported letters by sarpaches of some villages said the panchayats have decided not to give "permission" to the Muslim community and troublemakers to conduct any business. It specifies hawk ers, cattle traders and those seeking alms. However, when contacted, many sarpanches in Mahendergarh and Rewari denied having issued any such letters making a reference to a particular community.

Mahendergarh Deputy Commissioner Monika Gupta said no such letters have been submitted before the government officials.

Greenhouse emissions rate dropped by 33%

NEW DELHI: India's greenhouse emissions rate dropped by a faster-than-expected 33% in 14 years as renewable energy generation rose and forest cover increased, according to two officials privy to latest assessment made for submission to the United Nations. The report's findings showed India well on the way to meeting a commitment to the United Nations Convention

THERE IS continuous reduction in emission intensity of the Indian economy on Climate Change (UN-FCCC), to reduce emissions intensity by 45% from the 2005 level by 2030. India's rate of emissions intensity - the total amount of greenhouse gas emissions emitted for every unit increase of gross domestic product (GDP) - fell by 33% from 2005 to 2019, officials privy to the preparations of the Third National Communication (TNC) report said.

Many countries are preparing their TNC reports to update the UNFCCC on their efforts to mitigate emissions. India's average rate of reduction in emissions increased to 3% annually in the period 2016-2019, from just about 1.5% in the period 2014-2016. It was the fastest reduction so far, and was largely attributable to the government's push towards renewables, even as fossil fuel continues to dominate the energy mix.

GURU KRIPAHI 'KERALAM'

THIRUVANANTHAPURAM: God's Own Country wants to embrace

its traditional name. A resolution moved by the Kerala chief minister to rename the state 'Keralam', which is what it is called in Malayalam, has been passed unanimously by the Assembly. The House has also urged the Centre to take "immediate steps" to amend the name under Article 3 of the Constitution, which deals with the formation of states as

Tabling the resolution today, Chief Minister Pinarayi Vijayan said,

"The name of our state is Keralam in the Malayalam language. States were formed based on language on November 1, 1956. Kerala Day is also on November 1. The need to unite Kerala for the Malayalam-speaking communities has been strongly evident since the time of the national freedom struggle." "However, the name of our state is listed as Kerala in the First Schedule of the Constitution. This Assembly unanimously requests the Union Government to take immediate steps to amend it to 'Keralam' under Article 3 of the Constitution. This House also requests that our state be renamed as 'Keralam' in all the languages mentioned in

The First Schedule of the Constitution lists the states and Union Territories and their territorial jurisdictions, while the Eighth Schedule well as any changes to the names or areas of existing states the Eighth Schedule of the Constitution," he added.

Shares of the group's flagship firm hit a record in July after jumping more than 35% this year, four times more than India's benchmark stock index.

Now 86, and settled into an advisory role, Thyagarajan said in a rare interview with Bloomberg News that he entered the industry to prove lending to people without credit histories or regular incomes isn't as risky as it's perceived. He insists there's nothing unusual about his approach to business - or his decision to give away a stake in Shriram now valued at more than $750 million.

"I'm a bit of a leftist," RT, as he's known, said in the south Indian city of Chennai, where he founded the group in 1974. "I was never enthusiastic about making life pleasanter for people who already have a good life." Rather, I "wanted to take away some unpleasantness in the lives of people who are getting into problems." Thyagarajan's career highlights untapped opportunities in the world's most populous country, as more of its 1.4 billion people strive to enter a growing
