PM flags off Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra in 5 states

PRESTILIST OF INDIA
New Delhi, December 16

PRIME MINISTER NARENDRA MODI said on Saturday that his guarantee begins from where he goes from every year and such an assurance that development of smaller cities is on the cards of his resolve to make India a developed country.

Union minister P had Joshi takes a selfie during the Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra.

Addressing the beneficiaries of the Viksit Bharat Sankalp Yatra through video conference in Mumbai, Modi's guarantee begins from where he goes from every year and such an assurance that development of smaller cities is on the cards of his resolve to make India a developed country.

For a long time, the development of smaller cities was limited to a subjective, leadership-oriented approach. However, the government has now taken a more objective approach to the development of smaller cities. The government has now taken a more objective approach to the development of smaller cities. The government has now taken a more objective approach to the development of smaller cities.

Q3 advance tax receipts up 19%

Personal income tax, including securities transaction tax, remained robust with a total receipt of Rs 28,428.75 crore till December 15, 2023. Direct tax revenue declined by a marginal 1% on year to Rs 25,271 crore from Rs 25,481 crore in the year. The government is expected to see a rise in the tax receipts, TDS and TCS receipts to Rs 47.61 trillion, as compared to an action of Rs 42,162.62 crore and an equalisation levy of Rs 2,996 crore.
