'Violent extremist organisation' in India collected funds: FATF

AANCHAL MAGAZINE New Delhi, November 2

"VIOLENT EXTREMIST organisation under investigation" in India collected funds through "well-structured networks", including offline and online fundraising mechanisms such as circulating QR codes and account details, a latest report by the Financial Action Task Force (FATF) has stated.

Without naming the organisation, the FATF report makes a reference to the Popular Front of India (PFI) as having resorted to solicitation for funds at mosques and public places, which were ultimately used to procure arms and ammunition and for training the cadres.

"Indian officials reported that a violent extremist organisation under investigation collected funds through wellstructured networks spanning the entire country. Resorting to solicitation at mosques and public places, the group's fundraising tactics included offline and online mechanisms, such as circulating QR codes and account details through which donors were asked to send money. Over 3,000 bank accounts and informal value transfer systems were used," said the FATF citing the case study on PFI in its latest report titled'CrowdfundingforTerrorism Financing'.

The FATF is the global money laundering and terrorist financing watchdog. India's onsite assessment by FATF is slated for November, while the assessment is likely to come up for discussion in the plenary discussion in June 2024.

Due to the Covid-19 pandemic and the pause in the FATF's assessment process, the mutual evaluation of India, which was last carried out in 2010, had been postponed to 2023. The FATF report on 'Crowdfunding for Terrorism Financing' said the accounts (of PFI) involved both domestic and foreign transactions, making this case extremely difficult to investigate. "Funds were ultimately used to procure arms and ammunition and for training the cadres of the violent extremist organisation, among other purposes. A portion of the funds raised through crowdfunding was also invested and parked in businesses and real estate projects to generate regular income for terrorism activities," it said.

The report further mentioned that "eight individuals in leadership roles within the violent organisation have been arrested"on terrorist financing (TF) charges and prosecution complaints have been filed. As a result of the investigation, Rs 3.5 crore in assets are being sought for confiscation, it said.

In September last year, the Ministry of Home Affairs had declared the PFI along with its "associates or affiliates or fronts including Rehab India Foundation (RIF), Campus Front of India (CFI), All India Imams Council (AIIC), National Confederation of Human Rights Organization (NCHRO), National Women's Front, Junior Front, Empower India Foundation and Rehab Foundation, Kerala as an "unlawful association". This notification had come after the National Investigation Agency (NIA) along with the Directorate of Enforcement Directorate (ED) had carried out nationwide search, detain, and arrest operations against the PFI, its offices, and members.

Last month, the NIA searched 20 locations across six states in connection with a case against the banned PFI for allegedly attempting to disturb a rally of the Prime Minister in Bihar last year.

The PFI was created in 2007 through the merger of three Muslim organisations in southern India, the National Democratic Front in Kerala, the Karnataka Forum for Dignity, and the Manitha Neethi Pasarai in Tamil Nadu.

Singur compensation for Tatas, but 'unwilling farmers' remain losers

RAVIK BHATTACHARYA & ATRI MITRA Singur, November 2

OFFTHE DURGAPUR Expressway on National Highway 2, the land is dotted with mounds of soil and concrete, wildgrass, and dilapidated drainage pipes. Only small patches of land show signs of agriculture. It is here that Mamata Banerjee once led an agitation against the Tata Motors Singur manufacturing plant that helped propel her party to power in the state. Fifteen years later, though, while the TMC continues its rule in West Bengal, and Tata Motors has been awarded a sizeable compensation, those who once farmed here say they are the only "losers".

Earlier this week, an arbitration tribunal awarded Tata Motors Ltd ₹766 crore in compensation — recoverable from the West Bengal government — for its capital investment losses in the stalled manufacturing plant.

For farmers staying there, though, life appears to have been stuck at a standstill. After Mamata came to power in 2011, her first Cabinet decision was to return 400 acres of land to "unwilling farmers" – those whose land had been acquired by the erstwhile Left government but had refused compensation.

Santra (67), a resident of Beraberi village. Standing next to her two cows, she says, "We had a small piece of land here and, like everyone, I was part of the agitation. I get ₹2,000 per month and 16 kg rice (government compensation for unwilling farmers started by the TMC government). But that's it. I can't identify my land among the tall grass, water and bushes here. We are stuck here for years now. I do not know about Tata's compensation. What about ours?"

Laxmi's problem is not unique – after the Tatas took away their machinery, what remained were remnants of concrete structures and roads where farmland once stood. Amid the overgrown foliage, it's virtually impossible to distinguish one person's land from the other's.

Among them is Laxmi one such narrow concrete road, 65-year-old Ashok Porel says he was one of the farmers who gave up their lane willingly for the Tata project.

> "I had five bighas of land. Then the company withdrew their project from Singur. All these years later, I am yet to identify my land as there are no demarcations. The govern ment said they will return land which is cultivable; can you really cultivate anything you see here?"he asks.

"As I was a willing farmer, I don't get the government doles that'unwilling farmers'get.And I got my land only on paper. I still believe industry is the only way out of the mess here," says Porel, who lives with his wife and son. His son, who worked as a jewellery artisan in Saudi Arabia, returned during the pandemic and is yet to get a job.

Porel says he could only use Standing with his bicycle on 13 cottahs of land near his residence for cultivation. "That too after engaging earth movers to clear the land of concrete and iron chunks."

Carrying a load of grass meant to be used as cattle fodder, Becharam Patra, 78, says he used to be a sharecropper. "We did not own land but worked on what others had. We didn't get any compensation; only monthly doles from the stopped a few months ago. So many years later, everyone now says industry should be set up

since this land is unusable," said Becharam, who lives with his wife and son in Khaser

the project area, Dr Udayan Das home in Singurtown. Of the 13 acres of his land that was acquired for the plant, he has been able to retrieve only 3

after the Singurland agitation,

I would say the TMC. Some efforts were made by the state government but the land is neither demarcated nor cultivable," he said. "We cannot develop or sell the land either – the concrete roads are too narrow and heavy vehicles cannot

ply. And huge investment is

"If you ask me who won acres for use.

Roughly 20 minutes from state government, which also tile land to be left out," he says. Speaking to The Indian Express, Becharam Manna, minister of state for panchayat and rural development department, who was among the leaders of the Singur land agitation, says, "Farming has started in many plots of land. The work for making the rest of the land suitable for agriculture is going on. This is all I can say. I will not comment on Tata's claim." Tata Motors announced setting up of a factory to produce their small car, Nano, in Singur on May 18, 2006. The then Left Front government acquired 997.5 acres of land in Gopalnagar, Beraberi Bajemelia, Khaser Bheri, Singherberi and Joymollah.

Mamata, then an opposi tion leader, led the agitation against the "forcible" land acquisition and sat on a 26day hunger strike in Esplanade in December 2007.

Blinken, Austin to visit India next week for 2+2 talks

SHUBHAJIT ROY New Delhi, November 2

FOR THE FIRST time since the Israel-Hamaswarbegan, US Secretary of State Antony J Blinken and Defence Secretary Lloyd J Austin will be visiting India next week for the India-US 2+2 ministerial dialogue.

External Affairs Minister S Jaishankar and Defence Minister Rajnath Singh will host the two visiting US Cabinet ministers on November 9-10.

Announcing the visit on Thursday, the US State Department said Blinken will travel to Tel Aviv, Amman, Tokyo, Seoul and New Delhi from November 2-10.

"The Secretary will then travel to New Delhi to participate in the 2+2 Ministerial Dialogue, joined by Secretary of Defence Lloyd J Austin III. The delegation will meet with Minister for External Affairs Subrahmanyam Jaishankar, Minister of Defence Rajnath Singh, and other senior Indian officials to discuss both bilateral and global concerns and developments in the Indo-Pacific," it

Blinken last visited India in March this year for the G20 foreign ministers' meeting in New

With the Russia-Ukraine

war still continuing, the Israel-Hamas war escalating, and China's assertiveness continuing in the Indo-Pacific, the two sides have a lot to discuss.

India will be hosting the US Cabinet ministers exactly two months after US President Joe Biden visited India for the G20 leaders' summit on September 9-10. India has invited Biden for the Republic Day celebrations, as part of its plan to host the Ouad leaders' summit in January next year. This meeting will also take stock of Biden's possible travel plans.

The 2+2 ministerial dialogue is the highest level of stock-taking, encompassing a wide range of issues – from defence to nuclear, space to cyber security, visas to health.

But the major challenge confronting the two countries is Beijing's belligerence, at a time when India and China are locked in a border standoff since May 2020.

The US, too, has a tense relationship with China. Blinken held a bilateral meeting with China's Director of the CCP Central Foreign Affairs Commission and Foreign Minister Wang Yi in Washington on October 26-27.

The two sides met for more than seven hours over two days, and had constructive and indepth discussions.
