Cong congratulates 'son of Yediyurappa'

'Dynasty' boot on BJP foot

K.M. RAKESH

Bangalore: The oft-repeated dynasty politics allegation that the BJP has been heaping on the Congress has come back to bite it with B.S. Yediyurappa's son Vijayendra Yediyurappa being appointed as the Karnataka BJP president.

Never to lose an opportunity to slam dynasts in Opposition parties such as the Congress, Samajwadi Party, Rashtriya Janata Dal and the Bharat Rashtra Samithi, the allegation has boomeranged on the BJP in Karnataka ahead of the Lok Sabha polls.

The state Congress unit congratulated the 'son of Yediyurappa' in a tongue-in-cheek comment on X, in a clear indication that Vijayendra would find it tough to shake off the dynast label.

"Congratulations to 'son of Yediyurappa' who has been appointed as the new state president of BJP because he is the 'son of Yediyurappa'. We appeal to the people of the state to believe that there is no family politics in the BJP," the Congress commented in Karnataka.

The second son of Yediyurappa, 47-year-old Vijayendra, who was elected from his father's long-nurtured Shikaripura Assembly constituency in May, was appointed party president on Friday.

Lavanya Balaji Jain, state Congress general secretary in charge of media and communications, gave a long list of dynasts in the BJP. "It's easy for the PM to make fun of RG (Rahul Gandhi) calling him shwechha, but what about his own party MPs? Look at Tejaswi Surya & isn't he a dynast? 12% of the BJP's parliamentarians are dynasts."

Jain commented on X, adding that former chief minister Basavaraj Bommai is himself a dynast, being the son of another former chief minister, S.R. Bommai.

Surya is the Bangalore South MP and nephew of BJP leader and MLA Ravi Subramanya.

Kannada film actor and Dalit rights activist Chetan Kumar Ahimsa attributed the choice of Vijayendra to "lineage" like his older brother and another member, B.Y. Raghavendra.

"Vijayendra not only occupies an electoral position cuz of lineage — like brother Raghavendra — but now a significant appointed one too. BJP that claims to fight dynastic politics, loses credibility when it comes to BSY family," Chetan commented on X, highlighting the number of leaders from one family.

Indian Youth Congress president Srinivas BV laced his comment with sarcasm, terming the BJP a "shining example of anti-neopism" in the state.

"The BJP is a shining example of anti-neopism in Karnataka. The party has shown its commitment to meritocracy by appointing B.S. Yediyurappa's son Vijayendra as the Karnataka BJP state president. The BJP is truly a party with a difference," Srinivas commented on X.

3 tourists die in houseboat fire

MUZAFFAR RAJNA

Srinagar: Three tourists from Bangladesh died in a massive fire in a group of houseboats in Srinagar on Sunday that also reduced five houseboats and seven residential houses to ashes.

The houseboats caught fire early in the morning, prompting authorities to launch an operation to rescue the civilians and douse the flames.

The fire has killed three Bangladeshi tourists, who were all male. I don't have their names as their documents got burnt during the fire," Mohammad Asif, owner of the Sadma group of houseboats, told The Telegraph.

"We have lost five houseboats and the seven adjoining residential structures worth around Rs 20 crore. I was in Delhi and returned in the afternoon following the tragic incident."

Police identified the deceased tourists as Aminulhaq Kowsha, Das Gupta and Mohammad Moinud.

The police said the outflaring quickly spread and engulfed five houseboats — Sabana, Sabena, Young Gulshan, Lala Rukh and Khar Palace. "Seven residential huts and neighbouring houses in the vicinity were also gutted in the ensuing blaze," a police spokesman said.

During the day, deputy commissioner of Srinagar Aftab Asad, who visited the spot, had said they had rescued all the civilians.

"Five houseboats opposite Ghat number 9 and some adjoining huts were damaged in the fire. All the agencies including the SDRF (State Disaster Response Force), Jammu and Kashmir police and the fire and emergency services department tried to bring the fire under control. Residents and tourists were immediately rescued and taken to safe places," Asad told reporters.

"Additionally, four more houseboats could have caught fire but were immediately relocated because of which further damage was prevented. As I said, no loss of life was allowed."

The death of three foreign tourists has put a question mark on the claims of authorities of doing enough to prevent the loss of lives.

Twin suicides at Brahma Kumaris ashram in Agra

PIYUSH SRIVASTAVA

Lucknow: Two sisters who used to stay at a Brahma Kumaris ashram in Agra committed suicide on Friday night, leaving behind two notes alleging extortion and illegal activities at the spiritual organisation that has its branches across the country.

Police said the sisters — 37-year-old Ekta Kumari and 34-year-old Shikha Kumari — addressed their suicide notes to other members of the Jagner ashram and appealed to chief minister Yogi Adityanath to ensure that the culprits got life sentence like godman-turned-convicted rapist Asaram Bapu.

The police said the sisters had named four persons from Agra Dholpur and Gwalior's Brahma Kumaris ashrams and blamed them for their suicide.

"They have stated that a man cheated both of them and brought them to the ashram in Agra after fraudulently taking

Rs 7 lakh from them. Ekta has stated that she was given Rs 18 lakh from older women members by one or the other means in the name of development of the ashram but he never did any work there. Some persons sexually exploited some other inmates in some ashrams.

Ekta has written that such persons and their associates should be awarded life term the way it happened with Asaram. A senior police officer in Lucknow on the condition of anonymity.

Soni Kumar, the younger brother of the two women, told reporters in Agra on Saturday: "A senior inmate called me at 11.10pm last night and told me that my sisters had committed suicide. My sisters had sent the suicide notes to the WhatsApp group of the ashram. I rushed to the ashram from my village Jagner and found them hanging from the ceiling with their saris."

Soni's ancestral village is 13km from the ashram in Agra district.

"I had met my sisters in the ashram two days ago but they didn't tell me anything," he said. He said his sisters had joined the Brahma Kumaris after their training in Mumbai. About eight years ago. Later, they were shifted to the Jagner branch when it was built four years ago.

Sonam Kumar, deputy commissioner of police of Agra West, said: "We have registered a case on the basis of the suicide notes and a complaint from the family members of the victim. The women have levelled serious charges against some employees of the branches of the centre. We need to investigate them thoroughly."

NCTE allows maternity leave to students

OUR SPECIAL CORRESPONDENT

New Delhi: The National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE) has allowed students of its approved colleges to avail themselves of maternity and childcare leave during the course of their study.

The duration of their course will be extended accordingly, the NCTE has said in a recent letter to state governments. It has relaxed the duration under the norms and standard of all teacher education programmes.

"The eligible candidates shall be entitled to avail the maternity leave/child care leave as per guidelines issued by UGC/State/UT government/Affiliating body concerned," the letter said.

Nearly 17,000 colleges have been approved by the NCTE for running teacher education courses.

Under the MPhil/PhD regulations 2016, the University Grants Commission (UGC) has already provided the benefit to research students in the universities for up to 360 days.

In 2021, the commission extended the benefits to undergraduate and postgraduate students. It requested all higher education institutions to frame rules for granting this facility to students. The institutions have been asked to allow relaxations or exemptions in attendance and date for submitting examination forms for such students.
