AHMEDABAD: Delhi chief minister Arvind Kejriwal and Aam Aadmi Party's (AAP) Rajya Sabha member Sanjay Singh pleaded not guilty before a metropolitan court on Friday in the criminal defamation case filed by Gujarat University for their allegedly derogatory and sarcastic remarks over PM Narendra Modi's degree. Kejriwal pleaded not guilty in a case of defamation for the first time as he has apologized to many political leaders who had in the past either sued him for his alleged either sued him for his alleged defamatory remarks or threatened to file a complaint. He has in the past apologized to SAD leader Bikram Singh Majithia, BJP leaders Nitin Gadkari and Arun Jaitley and Congress leader Kapil Sibal's son, Amit Sibal.

The metropolitan court recorded pleas of both the leaders in their absence high court, in the morning, refused to stay the proceedings on petitions filed by them.

Earlier, the politicians had challenged in the session's court the metropolitan court's order of taking cognizance of GU's defamation plaint and issuing them summons. When the sessions court refused to stay or adjourn the case, they went to the high court which, on Friday morning, refused to grant them interim stay. The high court continued to question why the politicians question why the politicians did not honour the undertaking given to the metropolitan court that they would remain present in the courtroom on August 11.

Reminding Kejriwal and Singh's lawyers about Delhi floods being cited as reason for avoiding court appearance, Justice Samir Dave of the high court, said, "Delhi is fine now. When are you going to appear?"

When the lawyer argued that the insistence on a constitutional functionary's presence in the court in summons case is exceptional, the judge questioned, "So does it mean that they should not go to court ever? Exemption may be granted, but to what extent?"
While refusing interins any on the defamation case, the HC issued notice to the university and the state government and posted turther hearing on August 29. On Friday, after recording the pleas, the metropolitan court posted the case on August 31 for recording of evidence. It granted the political leaders an exemption from remaining present on Friday and kept the university's request for issuance of ballable warrant pending till August 31, said the lawyers involved in the litigation.
