Syrian man gets double lung transplant in Ahmedabad pvt hospital

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE AHMEDABAD, JANUARY 5

IN WHAT is being claimed as the first bilateral lung transplant in Gujarat, a private hospital in Ahmedabad Thursday successfully transplanted both lungs on a 41-year-old man from Syria with organs harvested from a brain-dead person in Rajkot.

Addressing a press conference Thursday, Dr Dhiren Shah, director of heart and lung transplant programme at Marengo CIMS Hospital in Ahmedabad, said that a team of 27 doctors conducted a procedure to harvest heart and lungs of the 47-year-old man in Rajkot, who suffered a brain haemorrhage and was declared brain dead by doctors.

Later, the organs were safely transported to Ahmedabad. The bilateral lung transplant was headed by Dr Kumud.

The patient was a chronic smoker and had a family history of interstitial lung disease with three of his sisters succumbing to the disease at the age of 27, 29 and 34 years, respectively.

According to the team, the patient was diagnosed with the disease in June-July 2022 and was airlifted to India. "When he was brought to the hospital nearly a month ago, he was using oxygen at a rate of eight litres per minute and over time his condition worsened, requiring 90 per cent of fraction of inspired oxygen (FiO2) on high-flow nasal cannula and even slight movement from bed, such as going to the bathroom, would cause breathing problems."

At present, the patient is in ICU following his surgery and is expected to continue his hospital stay for the next 21 days as part of post-operative care.

Data suggests that nine out of 10 bilateral lung transplant patients survive, with three-year survival rate at 75 per cent and 10-year survival rate at 45 per cent, Dr Dhital said.

Man accused of molesting minor daughter denied bail

Rape and molestation are a dark reality of Indian society: HC

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA AHMEDABAD, JANUARY 5

DENYING BAIL to a man accused of molesting his minor daughter, the Gujarat High Court has observed that rape and molestation are a "dark reality" of Indian society.

In the judgment passed last month, Justice Samir Dave also cited verses from the Manusmriti and Padma Purana to underline the importance of parents in a person's life.

"Rape or molestation is one such dark reality in the Indian society that devastates a woman's soul, shatters her self-respect and for a few, purges their hope to live. It shakes the insight of a woman or girl who once was a happy person," said Justice Dave in his order on December 16.

The judgment copy became available on January 4.

A woman from Devbhumi Dwarka district approached police in January 2022 alleging that her husband had molested their 12-year-old daughter twice.

A First Information Report was registered under Indian Penal Code sections 354(a) and 354(b) which deal with molestation, and relevant sections of the Protection of Children from Sexual Offences Act.

The man was subsequently arrested.

Seeking bail for his client, his lawyer advocate Parth Adhyaru argued before the High Court that the allegations were 'vague' and resulted from marital discord.

The lawyer also pointed out that there was a delay of nearly one month in filing the complaint, and it "suggests that it has been filed after great deliberations, concoctions and fabrications with a view of falsely involve the applicant".

The state opposed the bail plea saying the accused had committed a "very serious crime" and might commit a repeat offence.

Citing police investigation, the high court noted that the accused had not only molested his daughter but also expressed desire to marry her when confronted by his wife.

"A daughter looks to her father to protect her from outside evils and when the very same protector rips her apart, the trauma one suffers as a consequence of such an act cannot even be described in simple terms. What a plight of a child who does not even know the seriousness of the offence committed upon her," Justice Dave said.

He then quoted a verse from the Manusmriti, the ancient Hindu legal text, which translates as "An Acharya is greater than ten Upadhyayas, a father is greater than a hundred Acharyas and a mother is greater in glory than a thousand fathers".
