Dear Sir/Madam,

This is to inform you that meeting of the Risk Management Committee of the Company was held today i.e. October 13, 2023. We request you to kindly take note of the following statement issued as an outcome of the Risk Management Committee meeting.

Statement Related To Our Teams Working From Home In Israel

We extend our complete solidarity for the most shocking and unfortunate loss of innocent lives and we find solace that all our teams & their immediate families are safe in Israel.

We salute the resilience of our teams in Israel as they ensured 100% operational support to our business while working from homes even during the most difficult and unprecedented circumstances. Our employees' emotional well-being and physical safety is a top priority for us. Our teams in Israel will continue collaborating in a default work from home mode like we all did during the Covid times.

We affirm our long term commitment to stand firmly with all our employees as a cohesive unit in their need of the hour. We confirm to our stakeholders that our operations have continued without any disruption and we will continue to assess the situation to ensure employees' safety, business continuity and enterprise-wide risk management.

Thanking you,

Yours Faithfully,
