Ashok Chavan joins BJP after quitting Cong

Ashok Chavan with Maharashtra deputy CM Devendra Fadnavis, state BJP chief Chandrashekar Bawankule

EXPRESS NEWS SERVICE
Mumbai, February 13

FORMER MAHARASHTRA CHIEF minister Ashok Chavan on Tuesday joined the BJP in the presence of Deputy Chief Minister Devendra Fadnavis and state party president Chandrashekar Bawankule, saying that it was "not easy" to switch sides after his 38-year association with the Congress.

Sources said Chavan would be made a Rajya Sabha nominee of the BJP from the state. The party is also likely to keep the Bhokar Assembly seat in Nanded at his discretion. The sources hinted that the party could also look at inducting Chavan in the Union cabinet after the Lok Sabha polls—if the BJP retains power—considering his stature and experience. Chavan, known to be a good orator, will be projected as a key campaigner during the polls to target the Congress. "It was a difficult decision for me. My association with the Congress was a long one and after 38 years of my political career, switching from Congress to BJP was not easy. After a lot of deliberation, I took the decision keeping the interests of my district Nanded, Maharashtra state and nation in mind," said Chavan at the BJP headquarters a day after he quit the Congress.

"I look forward to a new beginning with a positive outlook under the leadership of Prime Minister Narendra Modi, Union home minister Amit Shah and party president JP Nadda," he said. "While I am obliged to the Congress for everything they offered me, I also would like to state I have also contributed to the organisation. The decision to switch from Congress to BJP was my personal decision, which I took keeping the development agenda and welfare of the state and country in mind," Chavan said on allegations that he had betrayed the Congress.

National Film Awards: Names of Indira and Nargis dropped

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, February 13

THE 'INDIRA GANDHI' award for best debut film and the 'Nargis Dutt' award for best feature film on national integration have been retitled with the names of the late prime minister and legendary actor being dropped as part of a raft of changes for the National Film Awards, according to a notification.

The 'Regulations of 70th National Film Awards 2022' reflects the changes suggested by a committee set up by the information and broadcasting ministry to rationalise the honours given in different categories. The changes include an upward revision in the cash rewards, including for the Dadasaheb Phalke award, and several awards being fused.

"The committee deliberated on the changes during the pandemic. The decision to make these changes was ultimately unanimous," a member of the committee told PTI on condition of anonymity.

Filmmaker Priyadarshan, who is also a member of the panel, told PTI he gave his final recommendations in December. "I have made a few recommendations in the technical department like sound," he added.

Entries for the National Awards for 2022 closed on January 30. The awards are running a year late because of the pandemic with the National Awards for 2021 being given in 2023.

In accordance with the changes suggested by the committee, and included in the 'Regulations', the 'Indira Gandhi' award for best debut film of a director has been renamed 'Best debut film of a director'. The prize money, which was earlier split between the producer and the director, will now only go to the director. Similarly, the 'Nargis Dutt Award for best feature film on national integration' will now be called the 'Best feature film promoting national, social and environmental values'.

Trading at MCX resumes after 4-hour delay on tech snag

REUTERS
Mumbai/Bengaluru, February 13

INDIA'S BIGGEST COMMODITY bourse, the Multi Commodity Exchange (MCX), said on Tuesday trading has resumed on its commodity derivatives platform after a four-hour delay due to a technical hitch.

The MCX is primarily a venue to trade gold, silver, crude oil and base metal futures contracts in India, a leading importer of these commodities.

Trading, which usually starts at 0330 GMT, was delayed to 0730 GMT due to the slow processing and generation of backend files for the members, MCX said in a statement.

Earlier in the day, MCX had said the exchange as well as the technology vendor, Tata Consultancy Services, were working to resolve the issue. The technical snag comes just under four months after the new commodity derivatives platform went live following several delays and regulatory interventions.
