CM Dr. Sarma holds a review meeting with DFOs, Treasury Officers and ADCs

Asks functionaries to use technological gadgets to stop encroachment of forest land

Assam, July 28: Chief Minister Dr. Sarma today held a meeting with the District Forest Officers (DFOs) and Treasury Officers (TFOs) to review the progress of the Forest Department and the State Treasury Department. During the meeting, Dr. Sarma emphasised the need for better coordination and transparency in the functioning of these departments. He also discussed the use of modern technology to monitor forest land and prevent illegal encroachments. The meeting was held in the presence of several senior officials from both departments.

Dr. Sarma also expressed his appreciation for the dedicated service of the officials and urged them to continue their efforts for the benefit of the state. The meeting concluded with a discussion on the next steps and a commitment to regular communication between the departments.

Talk on 'Community Engagement in Health Care' held at USTM

Assam, July 28: A talk on 'Community Engagement in Health Care' was held at USTM. The session was led by an expert who discussed the importance of involving the community in health care decisions. He highlighted various strategies to improve community participation, such as health education, home visits, and the formation of health committees. The speaker stressed that community engagement is essential for the success of any health intervention, especially in rural and semi-urban areas. The audience, consisting of students and faculty members, was highly engaged and benefited from the insights shared.

The talk was part of a series of community health programs organized by the institution to raise awareness and promote health care services. It provided a platform for the speaker to address the concerns of the community and offer practical advice on how to overcome common health challenges.

Organised in Majuli

Assam, July 28: A meeting of health workers and patients was organized in Majuli. The meeting was held to discuss the health issues faced by the community and to plan a series of health camps. The participants shared their experiences and concerns, and the organizers promised to provide timely medical assistance and health education. The meeting was a success, with many people expressing their gratitude for the initiative.

The health workers will be conducting regular visits to the affected areas to provide medical services and health check-ups. They will also be conducting health education sessions to raise awareness about common health problems and their prevention. The organizers are confident that these efforts will significantly improve the health and well-being of the community.

The meeting was organized by the health department in collaboration with local NGOs and community leaders. It was a fruitful session that laid the foundation for a comprehensive health care program in Majuli. The organizers will continue to work closely with the community to address their health needs.

The health workers will be providing a wide range of services, including consultations, diagnostic tests, and referrals to specialized hospitals. They will also be providing health education and counseling to the community members. The organizers are committed to ensuring that the health care services are accessible and affordable to all members of the community.

The meeting was a significant step towards improving the health care services in Majuli. It provided an opportunity for the health workers to interact with the community and understand their health needs. The organizers will continue to work hard to provide the best possible health care services to the community.
