"We see an extraordinary success story. And we see the remarkable achievements under Prime Minister Modi's watch that have materially benefitted so many Indian lives," said the US secretary of state, Antony Blinken, at Davos to the journalist, Thomas Friedman, a self-declared "raging Indianophile".

Was stary-eyed Blinken referencing India's rising contribution to illegal immigration in the United States of America? Indian illegal immigrants fleeing joblessness could soon exceed the receding numbers from Mexico. Perhaps Blinken was referring to reports of 7% GDP growth rates. He should know better.

India's recent growth spurt is a 'dead-cat bounce' post its devastating Covid phase. In the entire post-2019 period since the onset of Covid, combining the initial, steep decline with the subsequent recovery, India's GDP growth averages a modest annual 3.5% rate. Using such multi-year averages is crucial to avoid cherry-picking selective data. India's celebrated exceptionalism disappears in the clearer vision of averaged numbers. Its post-Covid growth has been lower than that in Bangladesh, Vietnam, and even China amid its extensive economic correction.

demonetisation to about 5% following demonetisation and the bursting of an unsustainable credit bubble. And the further fall since then to the 3.5% post-Covid rate is despite being propped up by another credit bubble. The new bubble is corrosive. The government tops up the capital of public sector banks suffering from defaults by big business and banks and 'fintechs' push loans on consumers. Fintech loans are often at usurious rates and quickly become unrepayable, causing great stress. Pursuit of mobile loan app defaults by recovery agents have triggered dismissal from jobs, even suicides. Meanwhile, manufacturing growth — the only mass source of dignified jobs — was anaemic even at its high of 1.6% a year; it is now down to 0.8% a year.

Nor are matters improving. Indian business elites talk Modi up but fail to match their words with action. Private investment in machinery and structures (as a share of GDP) continues to decline, a sure sign that Indian investors see the future darkly. Investors have reasons to worry. Their investment has become steadily less productive: a rupee of investment generates ever-smaller increases in GDP.

India's ascendant narrative takes centre stage globally

In an era where narratives wield significant influence, India is crafting its own story on the global stage, reflecting its rich heritage and unique position. Despite facing scrutiny, comparisons to historical precedents, and criticisms in Western media, India's trajectory is distinct and should not be analogized with outdated references. India stands out as a prime example of economic growth, outpacing even developed economies. Recent data from the World Bank reveals an impressive 7.2 per cent growth rate during the fiscal year 2022-23, positioning India as the second-highest among G20 countries. This growth, nearly double the average of emerging market economies, showcases India's resilience and economic prowess. While Western media tends to juxtapose India's successes with persisting challenges, such as poverty, it is crucial to recognise that poverty is a global issue cutting across both developing and developed nations.

Jawan moves Gujarat HC for action over disclosure of HIV+ status

AHMEDABAD: A Central Industrial Security Force (CISF) jawan has moved the Gujarat high court seeking an inquiry and action against his superior officials after his HIV positive status was disclosed in an official communication, circulated on a WhatsApp group. This happened in October, on a social media group for personnel deployed at a vital industrial installation in South Gujarat. The document shared on the group contained the health statuses of all personnel. The petitioner was shown to be HIV positive. This offended him and he made complaints and several representations to the higher-ups in his department, demanding action for the disclosure of his health status, which is not permitted without his consent.

When the jawan did not get a response, he filed a petition in the high court through advocate Bhavik Samani, demanding an inquiry into the lapse and action against the erring officers. It was contended that the document was signed by his commanding officer.

There was another serviceman on the group with HIV positive status, but for him the accepted acronym was used — PLWH on ART (People living with HIV on antiretroviral therapy). This should have been used for the petitioner as well. Justice V D Nanavati issued notice to the Centre, the director general of the CISF and the commandant concerned, seeking their replies in two weeks.

Disclosure of an HIV positive patient's identity is prohibited by the HIV and AIDS (Prevention & Control) Act, 2017. Any violation entails punishment with a jail term lasting between three months and two years, and a fine of up to Rs 1 lakh. A CISF jawan has been suspended for dereliction of duty after a security breach at Delhi airport, where a 22-year-old intoxicated man scaled the perimeter wall and reached the taxiway. The intruder was spotted by a pilot and later arrested, leading to an inquiry. The man's entry was unauthorized, and he was found to be a smack addict.

Former military nursing officers demand ex-servicemen status; Ex MNS Officers Welfare Association addresses media; Government's double standards on women empowerment; MNS officers denied ex-servicemen status; Stripped of reemployment opportunities Karavetti Bird Sanctuary and Longwood Shola Reserve Forest in Tamil Nadu join 3 other Ramsar wetlands in Karnataka as new additions to the 80 Ramsar sites in India.
