Russia ends Mariupol steelworks siege, halts gas flow to Finland

REUTERS Kyiv/ Oslo, May 21

RUSSIA STOPPED DELIVERING gas to Finland in an escalation of a dispute over energy payments with Western nations, and claimed victory in weeks-long battle for Mariupol's devastated Azovstal steel plant as it presses for control of the Donbas.

Russia also launched what appeared to be a major assault to seize the last remaining Ukrainian-held territory in Luhansk, one of two provinces that make up the southeastern Donbas region: where Russian-backed separatists already controlled swathes of territory before the February 24 invasion.

The last Ukrainian forces holed up in the Azovstal steelworks surrendered, Russian defense ministry said, ending the bloodiest siege of the war. The ministry said in a statement that 2,439 defenders had surrendered in the past few days, including 531 in the final group. Earlier, Ukrainian President Volodymyr Zelenskyy said Ukraine's military had told the last defenders at the steelworks they could get out and save their lives. The Ukrainians did not immediately confirm the figures on Azovstal.

Ukraine's General Staff of Armed Forces did not comment on Russia's claim in its morning update on Saturday. The end of fighting in Mariupol, the biggest city Russia has captured so far, gives Russian President Vladimir Putin a rare victory in the invasion after a series of setbacks in nearly three months of combat. Zelenskyy told local television that while the fighting would be bloody and victory difficult, the end would only come through diplomacy. "For them, all these victories — the occupation of Crimea or Donbas — is very temporary. And all this will return — since this is our territory," he said on Saturday.

Full control of Mariupol will give Russia command of an overland route linking the Crimea peninsula, which Moscow seized in 2014, with mainland Russia and areas of eastern Ukraine held by pro-Russian separatists. The Red Cross said it had registered hundreds of Ukrainians who surrendered at the Mariupol steel plant as prisoners of war and Kyiv says it wants a prisoner swap. Moscow says the prisoners will be treated humanely, but Russian politicians have been quoted as saying some must be tried or even executed.

Gas dispute Meanwhile, Russia's Gazprom halted gas exports to neighbouring Finland on Saturday after it refused to agree to Russian demands to pay for Russian gas supplies in roubles because of Western sanctions imposed over the invasion of Ukraine. The move comes days after Finland and Sweden decided to apply to join the NATO military alliance, a decision spurred by the Ukraine war. Finnish state-owned gas wholesaler Gasum, the Finnish government and individual gas consuming companies in Finland have said they were prepared for a shutdown of Russian flows and that the country will manage without. Most European supply contracts are

US, other APEC delegates walk out on Russian speaker

ASSOCIATED PRESS Bangkok, May 21

Russian minister for economic development Maxim Reshetnikov

DELEGATES FROM THE United States and four other nations staged a walkout Saturday when a representative from Russia began his opening remarks at a meeting of trade ministers of the Asia-Pacific Economic Cooperation group in the Thai capital, officials said. A Japanese official said Japan's Trade Minister Koichi Hagiuda and his counterparts from the US, Australia, New Zealand and Canada walked out of the meeting in Bangkok to protest Russia's invasion of Ukraine. The official spoke on condition of anonymity because he was not authorised to speak to the media. A statement from the office of New Zealand Trade and Export Growth Minister Damien O'Connor said he walked out "in protest at Russia's invasion of Ukraine, which has slowed the region's economic recovery from Covid and made it harder for people in the region to get food on their tables. He walked out in good company."

AUS official in Bangkok confirmed the walkout but did not provide further details. He asked not to be identified. There is diplomatic sensitivity over speaking about the incident because the proceedings were held in closed session. US Trade Representative Katherine Tai is representing Washington at the meeting. Thailand is this year's host nation for meetings of APEC, which comprises 21 economies. The two-day trade ministers meeting ends Sunday. The walkout occurred just as Maxim Reshetnikov, Russia's minister for economic development, was set to deliver his opening remarks, said a Southeast Asian diplomat, also speaking on condition of anonymity. He said the delegates of the five protesting nations and their staff walked out together in what appeared to clearly be planned action, and returned after Reshetnikov completed his remarks. Western nations have imposed tough diplomatic and economic sanctions on Russia because of its invasion of Ukraine, but many of APEC member nations, especially in Southeast Asia and Latin America, have distanced themselves from such moves. The war in Ukraine has raised major trade issues because it has disrupted supply chains, especially in the food sector. APEC was launched in 1989 to boost growth by promoting economic integration and trade among its members.

US, S Korea eye military drills to deter North

ASSOCIATED PRESS Seoul, May 21

US PRESIDENT JOE Biden and South Korean President Yoon Suk Yeol said after meeting Saturday that they will consider expanded joint military exercises to deter the nuclear threat from North Korea at a time when there's little hope of real diplomacy on the matter. The announcement reflects a shift in direction by both leaders from their predecessors: Former US president Donald Trump had considered scrapping the exercises and expressed affection for North Korean leader Kim Jong Un.

And the last South Korean president, Moon Jae-in, remained committed to dialogue with Kim to the end of his term despite being repeatedly rebuffed by the North. Biden said cooperation between the US and South Korea shows "our readiness to take on all threats together."

Biden, Yoon to offer Covid aid to N Korea

PRESIDENT JOE BIDEN and his new South Korean counterpart agreed on Saturday to hold bigger military drills and deploy more US weapons if necessary to deter North Korea, while offering to send Covid-19 vaccines and potentially meet Kim Jong Un. Biden and Yoon Suk-yeol said their countries' decades-old alliance needed to develop not only to face North Korean threats but to keep the Indo-Pacific region "free and open" and protect global supply chains. The two leaders are meeting in Seoul for their first diplomatic engagement since the South Korean president's inauguration 11 days ago. Biden said Washington had offered Covid-19 vaccines to China and North Korea, which is combating its first acknowledged outbreak. "We've got no response," he said. North Korea reported more than 200,000 new patients suffering from fever for a fifth consecutive day on Saturday, but the country has little in the way of vaccines or modern treatment for the pandemic. — REUTERS

Egypt expects Suez Canal revenues to hit $7 billion by fiscal end

EGYPT EXPECTS THE Suez Canal's revenues to reach about $7 billion by the end of the current fiscal year, finance minister Mohamed Maait said on Saturday. Tourism revenues are expected to reach between $10 billion and $12 billion by then, despite the Ukrainian crisis, he added. Egypt's fiscal year runs from July 1 to June 30. The canal is the fastest shipping route between Europe and Asia and one of the Egyptian government's main sources of foreign currency. — REUTERS
