RESPONSIBILITIES OF MANAGEMENT AND THOSE CHARGED WITH GOVERNANCE FOR THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

REPORT ON THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing ("SAs") issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. Our responsibilities under those standards are further described in the Auditor's Responsibilities for the Audit of the Financial Statements Section of our Report. We are independent of the bank in accordance with the code of ethics issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India together with ethical requirements that are relevant to our audit of the financial statements and we have fulfilled our other ethical responsibilities in accordance with these requirements and the code of ethics. We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. Emphasis of Matter

We draw attention to: Note no. 5.5 of Part B of Schedule 18 of the Financial Statements, whereby the Bank has for the year created provision for NPA amounting to Rs 118.43Crore. It results in increase of PCR from 55.85% to 77.05% as on 31stMarch 2021. The Bank continues to hold the excess provision amounting to Rs 215.60 Crores in addition to the required provision of Rs 232.34 crores as per IRAC norms issued by Reserve Bank of India. Note No. 12.3 of Part B of Schedule 18 of Financial statements, which describes deferment of pension liability of the Bank pursuant to exemption granted by the NABARD to Regional Rural Banks (RRBs) from application of the provision of Accounting Standards (AS) 15, Employee Benefits vide its circular no. EC No. 322/DoS-34/2019 Ref. No. NB. DoS. Pol. HO/2533/J-1/2019-20 dated 12th December 2019 iii) Note No. 19.2 of Part B of Schedule 18 of the Financial statements regarding the impact of COVID-19 pandemic. The situation continues to be uncertain and the Bank is evaluating the situation on an ongoing basis with respect to the challenges faced. Our opinion is not modified in respect of this matter.

The Bank's management is responsible for the preparation of these financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position and financial performance of the Bank is accordance with the accounting principles generally accepted in India, including the Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India, and Form 'A' and

"B" of the Third Schedule of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949 and circulars and guidelines issued by the Reserve Bank of India ("RBI") and National Bank of Agriculture and Rural Development ("NABARD") from time to time. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding of the assets of the Bank and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; relevant to the preparation and presentation of the financial statements that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error. In preparing the financial statements, the management is also responsible for assessing the Bank's ability to continue as a going concern. disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless the management either intends to liquidate the Bank or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so. AUDITOR'S RESPONSIBILITIES FOR THE AUDIT OF THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the financial statements based on our audit. An audit involves performing procedures to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but it is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of

· Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control. Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by management. Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Bank to cease to continue as a going concern. Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of an identified misstatements in the financial statements. We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit. We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be though related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Bank's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to

to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards. Incorporated in these financial statements are the returns of 57 branches audited by us and 201 branches audited by Statutory Branch Auditors. Also Incorporated in the Balance Sheet and the Profit and Loss Account are the returns from 164 branches which have not been subjected to audit.

OTHER MATTERS We did not audit the financial statements / information of 365 branches included in the financial statements of the Bank whose financial statements / financial information reflect total assets of Rs. 117,92,36,98 thousands as at 31st March 2021 and total revenue of Rs. 534,62,04 thousands for the year ended on that date, as considered in the financial statements The financial statements / information of 258 branches out of these branches have been audited by the branch auditors whose reports have been furnished to us, and in our opinion in so far as it relates to the amounts and disclosures included in respect of branches, is based solely on the report of such branch auditors.

therein, and as required by sub-section (3) of section 30 of the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, we report that: We have sought and obtained all the information and explanations which to the best of our knowledge and belief were necessary for the purposes of the audit and have found them. to be satisfactory;

REPORT ON OTHER LEGAL AND REGULATORY REQUIREMENTS
