T20 World Cup

It's Pak vs Oz & New Zealand vs England in semis

Abu Dhabi, Nov 8: India were sent packing from the T20 World Cup after a clinical New Zealand clinched a facile eight-wicket triumph over Afghanistan in their final Super 12 game to claim the last available semifinal spot here on Sunday.

India's slim hopes hinged on Afghanistan upstaging the Black Caps as that would have brought the Net Run Rate into equation and opened the doors for Virat Kohli's men.

The Kiwis were favourites to win on the day and they hardly put a foot wrong, chasing down a small target of 125 in just 18.1 overs to join England, Australia and Pakistan in the last-four stage.

Sunday's result renders India's final league engagement against Namibia inconsequential. The team was outplayed in its first two Super 12 matches by Pakistan and New Zealand, which proved to be its undoing.

The side did bounce back with wins over Afghanistan and Scotland but the damage done by the previous two defeats was far too much.

Kane Williamson's men, who won four of their five Super 12 matches, will be up against England in the semifinals, as Pakistan beat Scotland in their final league game to emerge as Group 2 topper and set up a last four clash with Australia.

Openers Daryl Mitchell (17), caught behind by the Mohammad Shahzad off Mujeeb ur Rahman, and Martin Gupthill (28), who became Rashid Khan's 400th wicket in T20 cricket, were the only New Zealand wickets to fall in the afternoon match.

Williamson (40 not out, 42 balls, 3 fours) looked unhurried during his knock and his half-century partnership for the third wicket with Devon Conway (36 not out) guided the team home. Earlier, New Zealand pacers, led by Trent Boult (3/17), dished out a clinical performance to restrict Afghanistan to 124 for 8.

'Bubble fatigue added to poor show'

India's outgoing bowling coach Bharat Arun on Sunday said that toss and bubble fatigue contributed to the team's indifferent performance in the T20 World Cup, where it was outplayed by Pakistan and New Zealand in the Super 12 stage.

Asked if the absence of a break between IPL and T20 World Cup became a factor in the underwhelming show, Arun responded in the positive. The IPL ended on October 15, and India's World Cup campaign began on October 24.

"Being on the road for six months is a huge ask. Players haven't gone home and I think they had a short break after the last IPL got suspended (in May)," Arun said.

"They have been in a bubble for six months and that takes a huge toll, so specific to your question, may be a short break between IPL and World Cup could have done a lot of good for these boys," he added.

land pacers, led by Trent Boult (3/17), dished out a clinical performance to restrict Afghanistan to 124 for 8.

Afghanistan, who needed to win to keep their semifinal hopes alive, reached the total mainly due to the efforts of Najibullah Zadran (73 off 48 balls). Zadran stood out in a rather tepid display by the rest of his team-mates. He struck six fours and three sixes during his brilliant innings.

The Teakwood Box...!

"Dad?" asked my elder one, "what's happened to the friend you used to be quite fond of, the one who was like a brother to you?"

"We've fallen apart!" I said gruffly. "And you never tried to repair the relationship?" she asked.

"I did," I said, "but I don't think he was in any mood to work things out."

"And you didn't try harder?" "No," I said a little defiantly. "A little like our teakwood box isn't it?"

"The box?" I asked weakly. It lay proud and beautiful in the corner of my sitting room. Its woodwork was beautiful and the brass sides and hinges shone out like gold.

Visitors who came over admired its surface and spoke about its antiquity. But it hadn't always been so. I had inherited it as a dirty old cracked box from my dad. I stored whatever I needed to hide from sight; old toys, old pillows, old blankets, and the box lay in a storeroom, musty smelling, faded and falling apart.

Then one day a bearded friend, an interior designer by profession saw the box. "Bob!" he shouted "you've got a treasure over there!"

And turning to his man, "Work on it," he said.

The workman took out sandpaper and knife and started scraping. It had been painted and as he scraped the box, it started looking even uglier than before. "Leave it," I told my friend wearily, "you're just wasting time and money on something useless!"

"Carry on!" he told his man and the poor fellow continued on what seemed a useless job. I watched in agony for five full days and even joked it was the paint holding the box together and it would soon fall apart, but my friend wasn't listening.

Five days later the box stood before me, shed off all its paint looking like a shorn chicken, even more unattractive and distasteful. I laughed at the ridiculous sight. "Okay," said my friend to his workman, "start polishing!"

I couldn't believe the transformation.

As each coat of polish went onto wood, as brass was shined and worked at; ugly duckling turned into a beautiful swan.

That was many years ago. I stared at the box and looked at my daughter and nodded, I knew what she meant when she felt a relationship needed the same working on, that the box had got. A broken friendship needed old hurts to be scraped away; with that would come vulnerability, before the making up and the forging of a new deeper friendship, like new coats of polish that would shine the teak and make it take centre place once again.

I picked up the phone and called long distance. I had tears as I gazed at my box and smiled at my daughter: A teakwood box was in the making..!

Indian origin chief curator found dead in Abu Dhabi

Abu Dhabi, Nov 8: The Abu Dhabi cricket stadium's Indian origin chief curator, Mohan Singh, was found dead in his room on Sunday hours before the T20 World Cup game between Afghanistan and New Zealand.

According to UAE Cricket sources, the 45-year-old, who hailed from Uttarakhnad, was suffering from depression and was found hanging in his room, hours after inspecting the pitch for the clash that New Zealand won by eight wickets to enter the semifinals.

Both Abu Dhabi Cricket and the International Cricket Council paid tributes to him but did not reveal the cause of death. He is survived by his wife and daughter.

"It is with great sadness that Abu Dhabi Cricket announces that Head Curator, Mohan Singh, has passed away today. Mohan has been with Abu Dhabi Cricket for 15 years and has played a pivotal role in all of the venue's success during that time," Abu Dhabi Cricket said in a statement.

"Sunday's ICC Men's T20 World Cup Super 12 game between New Zealand and Afghanistan went ahead as scheduled, with the support of Mohan's family and our groundstaff.

"Tributes to Mohan and his incredible achievements will be honoured in the coming days. Our thoughts are with Mohan's family and we ask for media to respect their privacy at this tragic time," it added.

Sources in UAE cricket said Mohan was found hanging in his room.

"Mohan Singh today came to the ground in the morning and inspected the ground and playing turf."

"He spoke to us about arrangements and went back. When he didn't arrive at the venue people went to his room and he was found hanging from his ceiling. He died by suicide," a senior official associated with tournament organisers told PTI.

Manika-Archana win doubles

Lasko (Slovenia), Nov 8: India's Manika Batra and Archana Kamath tasted their first major success as a pair by winning the women's doubles title at the WTT Contender Lasko here on Sunday.

The world number 36 pairing beat the 23rd-ranked combine of Melanie Diaz and Adriana Diaz from Puerto Rico 11-3, 11-8, 12-10. The India duo saved four game points in third set to seal the match.

Manika and Archana had to dig deep to beat China's Liu Weishan and Wang Yidi in the semifinals on Saturday.

"I am very happy to have won this title... it was fun playing throughout as I always enjoy playing doubles with Manika Di. She is playing really well and has a very strong presence on the table which allows me to play freely," Archana told PTI.

In the women's singles, Manika did well to reach the semi-finals.

Ex-CBI officer migrated to India in 1964 Crusader regrets betraying Bangla villagers

Dr. Ravi Chaturvedi

"Love & Passion for Motherland is Natural. Serving with Respect to Home Land is Necessary," wrote Venkat Gandhi, Advanced App Engineering Manager. It aptly describes the life of Upen Biswas, former Central Bureau of India (CBI) Additional Director, who spent his childhood in wealthy ancestral abode in Gopalganj district of now Bangladesh before partition. He is very nostalgic about it. The family left East Pakistan in 1964 to protect their honour and safety of the family. However, longing for the place of birth is still alive. The family was in the forefront of safeguarding the interest of the Hindu population of the area. He regrets leaving his ancestral village and expresses his anguish, "Want to go back... left Bangladesh in 1964 for safety... Betraying the people." It is saga of pent up emotions over the years.

Upen was born with a silver spoon in his mouth. The Biswas family was known for its affluence in their ancestral house in Gopalganj District of Bangladesh. His father Nivaran Chandra Biswas was a landlord, cattle and dairy products were in abundance and the fresh fish requirement was met from a large family fish pond. The family wielded considerable influence among the zamindars in and around Gopalganj.

The family enjoyed political clout in the East Pakistan. Sheikh Mujibur Rahman (first President of Bangladesh on the liberation of Bangladesh in 1971) was a regular visitor to their home as and when around Gopalganj when Upen was studying in the fifth standard.

The situation took a turn for the worse when the 1964 communal riots broke out in East Pakistan. The prosperous Biswas family had to abandon their riches behind and take refuge in Kolkata when Upen was 22 years old. However, the memories of Gopalganj continued to haunt the family since then.

The communal violence took a heavy toll of human life in East Pakistan, the terror-stricken Hindu families left their belongings and even riches behind rather than risk their lives and livelihood.

The riot was stoked over the alleged theft of Prophet's hair from the Srinagar's Hazratbal shrine in Jammu & Kashmir. It is worthwhile to know about The Hazratbal Shrine. In Kashmiri, it is popularly called Dargah Shariif ("the holy shrine"). It contains a relic (Moi-e-Muqqadas, which is widely believed to be the hair of the Islamic prophet Muhammad). It is situated on the northern bank of the Dal Lake in Srinagar and is considered to be Kashmir's holiest Muslim shrine. The name of the shrine is a combination of the Persian word hazrat ("respected") and the Kashmiri word bal ("place").

The 1964 blood bath in East Pakistan was at the behest of Abdus Sabur Khan, a Pakistani communication minister and leader of Muslim League, wherein Hindus were selectively targeted following Hazratbal shrine episode.

In January 1964, when Upen returned home a meeting was held where large number of the people of entire Gopalganj district were present. In the meeting, it was decided by the elders and Upen's father that he would take up the gauntlet against the rioters. He would remain in the village and forgo the idea of legal studies in Kolkata and London. Upen promised that he would not leave them alone and protect the people of Gopalganj.

However, a section of Muslims close to his father Nivaran unfolded a plot to kill Upen. The badly shaken mother Sarojini begged her husband that Upen should be sent to safe Kolkata straightaway. While recalling about that ill-fated day, Upen said, "My father was reluctant but he could not turn down my mother's request. I took a boat to Khulna and from there I took another one to Kolkata. I surrendered my passport having 'F' category Visa and after that I never went back."

In 1970, before the liberation of Bangladesh, Upen's house in Gopalganj was bulldozed by the communal trouble-makers. However, Nivaran narrowly escaped but their boatman and other employees were killed and situation became too hot, father and mother came to Kolkata. Here Mujibur Rahman met Nivaran and assured of their safe return to Bangladesh. Even then, the homecoming was rather hostile and the Biswas returned to Kolkata where both passed away after a while.

Upen Biswas, a 1968 batch IPS officer of West Bengal cadre, first came into the limelight for pursuing former Chief Ministers of Bihar Jagannath Mishra and Lalu Prasad Yadav's involvement in the Rs. 950 crore fodder scam. Upen was known as anti-corruption crusader and dedicated his entire life to fighting corruption. However, the guilt of betraying his villagers despite promising them to fight against the divisive force continues to haunt Upen even today.

The scribe's brother-in-law Kali Shanker Shukla was also a zamindar in Mymensingh district of the erstwhile East Pakistan. After the partition, he left his sprawling estate, comprising of spacious dwelling unit, vast stretch of land, luxuriant banana, coconut, mangoes orchards and herd of cattle to their fate as riot broke out in the area. Aditya Pandya, a Software Engineer rightly wrote, "Your real presence on the earth can be truly experienced when you are at your own home. It's your native!!! It's your motherland!!!"
