Talk of fighter jets for Kyiv strains Western unity

Allies fear move could escalate conflict, draw them deeper into the war

AP / Kyiv

Ukraine's push for fighter jets to help beat back Russia's invasion force risks straining the unity of Ukraine's Western allies, amid fears that the move could escalate the nearly year-long conflict and draw them deeper into the war.

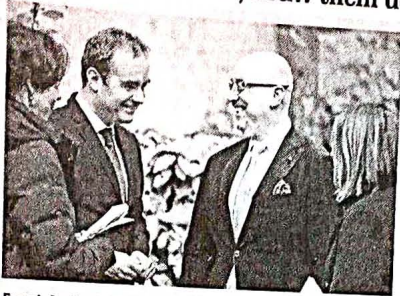

Ukrainian Defence Minister Oleksii Reznikov was due in Paris on Tuesday where discussions about the possible delivery of fighter jets to Ukraine was expected to be on the agenda.

Kyiv officials have repeatedly urged allies to send jets.

There was no indication that a decision on warplanes to Ukraine might come any time soon and no sign that Western countries have changed their earlier stance on the issue.

Ukraine's allies also have ruled out providing Kyiv with long-range missiles able to hit Russian territory.

Both Ukraine and Russia are believed to be building up their arsenals for an expected offensive in coming months.

Asked about Lithuania's call for Western countries to provide Ukraine with fighter jets, Kremlin spokesman Dmitry Peskov said the comments "reflected an aggressive approach taken by the Baltic nations and Poland, who are ready to do everything to provoke further escalation without thinking about consequences".

French President Emmanuel Macron said on Monday that France doesn't exclude sending fighter jets to Ukraine, but he laid out multiple conditions before such a significant step is taken.

The conditions, he said, include not leading to an escalation of tensions or using the aircraft "to touch Russian soil," and not resulting in weakening "the capacities of the French army".

Divergent views

US President Joe Biden said that he won't approve sending F-16 fighter jets to Ukraine.

French President Emmanuel Macron said that France doesn't exclude sending fighter jets to Ukraine.

Dutch PM Mark Rutte said there are "no taboos" in efforts to help Ukraine. But he added that sending jets "would be a very big next step".

Poland is a leading advocate in the EU for providing military aid to Ukraine.

He also said Ukraine must also formally request the planes.

Asked by a reporter on Monday if his administration was considering sending Ukraine F-16 fighter jets to Ukraine, U.S. President Joe Biden responded "no".

As in previous debates about how to help Ukraine, Poland is a leading advocate for providing military aid.

Toll rises to 100 in Pakistan mosque suicide bombing

PTI / Peshawar

The death toll from a powerful suicide bombing at a crowded Peshawar mosque in northwestern Pakistan rose to 100 on Tuesday after rescue teams retrieved more bodies from the debris, police said.

The outlawed Tehreek-e-Taliban Pakistan (TTP) has taken responsibility for the attack which took place inside the mosque in the high-security Police Lines area on Monday.

According to security officials, the suicide attacker was present in the front row during the Zuhr (afternoon) prayers when he exploded himself.

Sahibzada Noor Ul Amin, the Imam of the mosque, was also killed in the blast, police said.

They said a total of 93 have died while 216 others have been injured in the attack. "The death toll of Peshawar blast has risen as the rescue operation is still underway and debris of the mosque is being removed," the state-run Radio Pakistan reported.

Head of suspected suicide bomber recovered from blast site

Peshawar: Rescue officials on Tuesday recovered the severed head of the suspected suicide bomber who they believe blew himself up inside a mosque packed with worshippers during the afternoon prayers on Monday in the high-security zone in Pakistan's restive northwestern Peshawar city.

The bomber, who was present in the front row blew himself up, causing the roof to collapse on the worshippers, officials said.

Capital City Police Officer (CCPO) Peshawar Mohammad Ajaz Khan said the blast appeared to be a suicide attack and the head of the suspected bomber was recovered at the site in Peshawar, capital of Khyber Pakhtunkhwa province.

"It is possible that the attacker was already present in the Police Lines before the blast and that he may have used an official vehicle (to enter)," he was quoted as saying by Geo TV.

Blinken calls for Israel-Palestinian calm

AP / Jerusalem

U.S. Secretary of State Antony Blinken is wrapping up a two-day visit to Israel and the occupied West Bank on Tuesday with renewed appeals for Israeli-Palestinian calm amid an alarming spike of violence.

Blinken was meeting Palestinian leader Mahmoud Abbas in the West Bank town of Ramallah on Tuesday, a day after seeing Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu. Standing alongside the Israeli leader, Blinken stressed the importance the Biden administration places on resolving the long-running conflict with a two-state solution.

However, beyond urging a de-escalation of tensions Blinken offered no new U.S. initiative to do so. There were no signs Blinken was making progress on even the modest goal of halting the latest wave of violence, much less of addressing the broader issues surrounding peace talks.

Netanyahu's far-right government is dominated by hard-liners who oppose Palestinian statehood and are unlikely to make even minimal concessions.

3 wounded in stabbing at Brussels metro

AP / Brussels

Three people wounded by a knife-wielding man at a major underground railway station in Brussels have been discharged from the hospital and the attack isn't considered to be terrorism, prosecutors said on Tuesday.

Social media posts on Monday evening showed video of police with their guns pointed at a man at the Schuman station, while images pictured another man wrapped in a foil blanket as he was attended by paramedics. One victim's wounds were said to be "life-threatening." The station is directly under the headquarters of the European Union's two main institutions.

"The suspect's motive is not yet known, but at this stage nothing indicates that it was an extremist/terrorist motive," the Brussels prosecutor's office said in a statement.

It said the 30-year-old man, who wasn't identified, wasn't previously known to police.

Strikes, protests over pension plans roil France

A protester faces riot police at a rally over reforms, in Nantes, France, on Tuesday — AFP

AP / Paris

French labour leaders hope to bring more than one million demonstrators onto the streets on Tuesday in the latest clash of wills with the government over its plans to push back France's retirement age.

For both sides, the nationwide strikes and protests are an important test. French President Emmanuel Macron's government says it is determined to push through his election pledge to reform

France's pension system. Labour unions and left-wing legislators fighting in parliament against Macron's plans are counting on protesters to turn out massively to strengthen their efforts to kill the bill.

Positions are hardening on both sides as lawmakers begin locking horns in parliament over the government's bill that would raise the retirement age from 62 to 64.

Rail operator SNCF warned of major network disruptions on Tuesday because of strikes.
