VENKATA KRISHNA B Pallekele, August 30

THE ROLLED-UP COVERS THE ROLLED-UP COVERS placed along the boundary lines strike your eyes as fast as the Humasgiriya ranges that decorate the backdrop on one side of the Palleckele Stadium. The ground staff are busy fixing giant screens and the score board, besides keeping the covers in place. But more than the ground, they had their eyes firmed on the dark clouds kissing the top of splendid ranges, as late monsoon threatens to ang the top of spirmur ranges, as late monsoon threatens to wreak havoc on the Asia Cup. Fans, too, would have a fingeron the weather apps, ahead of the feisty Sri Lanka-Bangalore encounter on Thursday and even moreforthe Saturday fixture between India and Pakistan.

Ja gloomy day where the sun and playeeged out of the the Arthrody in the sun and playeeged out of the the three three the sure boundaries, thanks to the square boundaries, thanks to the heavy rainfall on the previous evening, the outfield remained soweth that there were patches where it could leave a footmark even if one walked overit.

The was the was similar on Tuesday too. On the drive from Colombo to Palkekel, et was impossible to miss the dark clouds moving fast towards Kandy, which is just an half-anhour drive from the stadium.

Kandy, which is just an half-an-hour drive from the stadium. Some of the roadsidevendors selling tendercoconut began to replace them with umbrellas, a definite sign of things to come. Two-wheeler riders hurriedly put raincoats on and it was hard putraincoatson and it was hard to spot a tuk-tuk that hadn't rolled down its covers.

Unusual scheduling

Though the monsoon has landed after a delay, August-

Out of the 33 ODIs the stadium has hosted, only one has been in Septemberand only two have been held in the last week have been held in the last week of August. It isn't restricted to Pallekele alone. Even Colombo, which is set to host the Super Four stage and the final, tends to receive heavyrainfall during the month of September. It practically means that the Asia practically means that the Asia Cup, the all-important stop alread of the World Cup; so no the mercy of rain gods. The R Premadasa Stadium, which has been hosting matchessine 1986, hashosted only 28matchesin r lack, after the 2002 Champions Trophy that included two back-to-back

With two keyrival ries - Bangladesh vs Sri Lanka and India vs Pakistan - set to and India vs Pakistan - set to the military of the region, threats to the numerous picturesque destinations in the vicinity, the tourism sector has been eagerlywaiting for the tournament to begin. Hotels and resorts in the regionarealready-solidout. Most rooms are sold at higher prices than usual; restaurants and eateriesarekcepingthemselves well stocked in anticipation of a windfall. They were counting hours, but were left grimf-aced due to the unsupered or the late. But it is difficult to blame. But it is difficult to blame. But it is difficult to blame. arrival of rain.

But it is difficult to blame the cricket board or the venue. As the Asian Cricket Council locked Sri Lanka as one of the hosts of the hybrid model Asia

Cup, Colombo and Pallekele were not the first choice host cities. It is learnt that the SLC cities. It is learnt that the SLC preferred to host the tourna ment in Dambulla, advyregion in the central part of the country that usually doesn't receive rainfall during the period. Out of the 56 ODIs, only three have been washed out and they came in the month so faquest, March and October.
