Former Uttar Pradesh Governor Aziz Qureshi booked for sedition over 'derogatory' remarks against Yogi government

Lucknow, Sept 7 (IPA) : Former Uttar Pradesh Governor Aziz Qureshi has been booked for sedition over his alleged derogatory remarks against the Yogi Adityanath government in the State, police said on Monday. The FIR was lodged following a complaint by BJP leader Akash Kumar Saxena at the Civil Lines Police Station in Rampur district on Sunday. In his complaint, Mr. Saxena alleged that after visiting Samajwadi Party leader Azam Khan's house and meeting his wife Tazeen Fatma, Mr. Qureshi made derogatory statements against the Yogi Adityanath government and compared it to a "blood-sucking demon". "The statement can create tension between two communities and create unrest in the society,"

Mr. Saxena said in his complaint. The BJP leader also handed over to police a pen drive containing Mr. Qureshi's alleged statement which was aired by various news channels. Mr. Qureshi was booked under sections 153A (promoting enmity between two groups on grounds of religion, race), 153B (imputations, assertions prejudicial to national integration), 124A (sedition), and 505(1)(B) (intent to cause fear or alarm to the public), a senior police officer said. Mr. Qureshi (81), is a senior Congress leader and had served as the Governor of Mizoram from 2014 to 2015. He also had charge of Uttar Pradesh for some time. Police said action will be taken according to the law.

IAF plane with Rajnath, Gadkari to conduct mock emergency landing on highway in Rajasthan's Barmer

New Delhi, Sept 7 (IPA) : A plane of the Indian Air Force (IAF), carrying Defence Minister Rajnath Singh and Road Transport and Highways Minister Nitin Gadkari, will conduct a mock emergency landing on a national highway in Rajasthan's Barmer this week, sources said on Monday. The two Ministers will be inaugurating the 3.5 km-long strip on the national highway in Barmer this week as it is ready to handle emergency landings of the IAF's fighter jets and other aircraft, sources mentioned. It is India's first national highway to be used for emergency landing of IAF aircraft, they added. In October 2017, fighter jets and transport planes of the IAF had conducted mock landings on the Lucknow-Agra Expressway to show that such highways can be used by the IAF planes for landing in case of an emergency. The Lucknow-Agra Expressway comes under the Uttar Pradesh government. According to the sources, officials of the National Highways Authority of India (NHAI) worked in coordination with IAF officials to develop the airstrip on the national highway in Barmer. They said at least 12 national highways across the country — apart from the aforementioned one in Barmer — are being readied so that they can be used as airstrips by the IAF planes in an emergency situation. The parts of the 12 national highways that will be used as airstrips are being identified and prepared, sources added.

Zydus Cadila gets USFDA nod for diabetes medication

New Delhi, Sept 7 (IPA) : Drug firm Zydus Cadila on September 6 said it has received approval from the U.S. health regulator to market Sitagliptin, a medicine indicated to treat diabetes. The company said its subsidiary has received tentative approval from the United States Food and Drug Administration (FDA) for its new drug application for Sitagliptin base 25, 50 and 100 mg tablets. On October 31, 2020, Zydus had filed a new drug application (NDA) with the USFDA seeking approval to market Sitagliptin base 25, 50 and 100 mg tablets. The NDA received tentative approval upon completion of the first review cycle on September 2, 2021, Zydus Cadila stated. Zydus Cadila discovers, develops, manufactures, and markets a broad range of healthcare therapies including small molecule drugs, biologic therapeutics, and vaccines. The group employs around 23,000 people worldwide.

Ruckus in Jharkhand Assembly over namaz room

Ranchi, Sept 7 (IPA) : Ruckus by the Opposition BJP over allotment of a room for offering namaz in Jharkhand Assembly disrupted proceedings on Monday. Before the session began for the day, BJP MLAs sat on the stairs at the entrance of the Assembly chanting Hanuman Chalisa and 'Hare Rama' with placards. As soon as the proceedings for the day began, the BJP members trooped into the Well chanting 'Jai Shri Ram'. They were demanding the recall of the order pertaining to allotment of the namaz room. Speaker Ravindra Nath Mahto urged relentless BJP members, including Bhanu Pratap Shahi, to "go back to your seats. You are good members. Please cooperate with the Chair". However, as the ruckus continued, the Speaker adjourned the House till 12.45 p.m. BJP stages demonstrations BJP workers on Sunday burned the effigies of Jharkhand Chief Minister Hemant Soren and Speaker Mahto during protests across the State against the decision to allow a 'Namaz Hall' in the Assembly. The Speaker has allotted room number TW 348 for offering namaz, prompting demand from the BJP to build a Hanuman temple and places of worship of other religions on the Assembly premises. "The BJP will gherao the Assembly and hold demonstrations in every district to protest the move. The House is the temple of democracy and the Hemant Soren government has insulted it by playing appeasement politics," BJP State chief and Rajya Sabha MP Deepak Prakash said.

"The State government must immediately revoke this unconstitutional and undemocratic decision or else people will hit the streets," BJP State general secretary Aditya Sahu said. A notification dated September 2 and signed by Jharkhand Legislative Assembly Deputy Secretary Naveen Kumar by order of the Speaker, which came to the public domain on September 4 said, "Allotment of room number TW 348 as Namaz Hall for offering Namaz in the new Assembly building." As soon as the notification came to the fore, the ruling Jharkhand Mukti Morcha (JMM) and Congress welcomed it. "MLAs in the Hemant Soren government openly support the Taliban. A separate Namaz Hall in the Jharkhand Legislative Assembly is a result of

Class 10 student tests positive for COVID-19 in Pudukottai

Pudukottai, Sept 7 (IPA) : A class 10 student of Adi Dravidar Welfare School at Mullankurichi village in Pudukottai district has tested positive for COVID-19. The girl is undergoing treatment at the Pudukottai Medical College Hospital and her condition is stable, a senior Health Department official here said. Samples have been lifted from the girl's elder sister studying class XII in the same school and her parents as they were in close contact. The official added that samples were being lifted from the students of the same class in which the girl who got infected was studying besides from the teachers.

Disinfectants were sprayed in the classroom which was locked as a safety measure. However, the school continues to function.

this ideology. Otherwise, any person who believes in Indian democracy would not do such an act," former Chief Minister and BJP national vice-president Raghubar Das had told PTI. "The State government is tarnishing the dignity of constitutional institutions for appeasement and vote bank politics. This is not a good sign for Jharkhand. The BJP will agitate if the decision is not revoked. I will myself sit on a dharna outside the Assembly," he said. BJP chief whip Viranchi Narayan has written a letter to the Speaker warning of approaching the court if the decision is not revoked. Congress MLA Irfan Ansari, who had courted controversy by allegedly supporting Taliban's takeover of Afghanistan, charged that the BJP creates religious conflicts over every issue.
