TESLA CEO CONGRATS MODI ON WIN Looking to do exciting work in India: Musk

Was expected to announce Tesla entry in country in April

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New York, June 8

AMERICAN TECH BILLIONAIRE Elon Musk has said he is looking forward to his companies doing "exciting work" in India, as he congratulated Prime Minister Narendra Modi on his historic election victory.

April postponed his proposed visit to India due to "very heavy Tesla obligations". Musk — who was expected to be in India on April 21 and 22 and scheduled to meet Prime Minister Modi — later wrote on X that he is looking forward to coming to India later this year.

maker Tesla to set up shop in the country, along with his satcom venture Starlink. It was expected that Musk would announce plans for Tesla to set up its manufacturing unit in India and investments could be to the tune of billions of dollars and the way forward for selling Tesla electric cars in India at the earliest.

He is also eyeing the Indian market for his satellite internet business Starlink, for which regulatory approvals are awaited. Musk had in the past sought import duty reduction in India for it to be able to sell Tesla cars in the country.

WHEN CARLOS ALCAZAR was a kid growing up in Spain — which, considering he's only 21, was not all that long ago — he used to run home from school and flip on the TV to check out the French Open.

Long before he was preparing to play in Sunday's final in Paris against Alexander Zverev, Alcaraz watched a lot of matches involving Rafael Nadal, of course, as his countryman was accumulating a record 14 titles at Roland Garros.

"I wanted to put my name on that list of the Spanish players who won this tournament. Not only Rafa," said Alcaraz, who then rattled off champions such as Juan Carlos Ferrero (who happens to be his coach), Carlos Moya and Albert Costa, calling them "legends from our sport that won this tournament." He just might join them. Alcaraz has triumphed on the US Open's hard courts in 2022 and Wimbledon's grass courts in 2023, and now, he is one victory away from holding a trophy on the red clay of Court Philippe Chatrier in southwest Paris. He would be the youngest man to own a major championship on all three surfaces; as it is, he's the youngest to make it to finals on every surface. Zverev, who is from Germany, is trying to claim his first Grand Slam title. He was the runner-up to Dominic Thiem at the 2020 US Open after blowing a two-set lead and losing in five.

"I've said it before and I'm going to say it now again: I was not ready. I was not ready to win my first Grand Slam final. I was not mature enough. I was maybe too much of a kid still. I didn't know what the occasion means. And, that's why I lost," Zverev said, thinking back to what happened in a nearly empty Arthur Ashe Stadium during the Covid-19 pandemic. "I'm 27 years old now. So, definitely not a kid anymore. Already getting older. If not now, then when?" No. 3 seed Alcaraz vs. No. 4 seed Zverev marks the first French Open final since 2004 without at least one of (and occasionally two of) Nadal, Novak Djokovic or Roger Federer participating. Alcaraz looks up to those guys — collectively known as the Big Three of men's tennis, each completed a career Grand Slam, and they own a combined total of 66 major titles — and wants to emulate them.

"I always wanted to be one of the best players in the world. If I want to be one of the best players in the world, I have to be a good player in every surface, like Roger did, Novak, Rafa, (Andy) Murray. The best players in the world had success in every surface," Alcaraz said. "So, I consider myself a player who adapts, very well, his style in every surface," he continued.

"I grew up playing on clay, but I feel more comfortable playing on a hard court, for example." Alcaraz, got past No. 2 Jannik Sinner in five sets in the semi-finals Friday, and Zverev, a four-set winner against No. 7 Casper Ruud, are both adept on clay.

China congratulates Modi; India to push for better ties

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA New Delhi, June 8

THE MINISTRY OF External Affairs spokesperson Randhir Jaiswal has thanked the Chinese Foreign Ministry for congratulating Prime Minister Narendra Modi on his win in the recently concluded Lok Sabha elections. Jaiswal noted that India will continue to pursue normalisation of ties between the two nations.

China-India relationship." While addressing a press conference, Mao Ning noted that a "healthy and stable" relationship between India and China is in the common interest of both sides and is conducive to peace and development in the region and the world. She expressed China's readiness to work with India in the fundamental interests of the people of the two nations.

stable China-India relationship is in the common interest of both sides and is conducive to peace and development in the region and the world. China is willing to work together with India in the fundamental interests of the two countries and peoples, focusing on the big picture and looking to the future to promote the development of relations between the two countries along a healthy and stable track," she added.

FOREIGN INVESTORS ARE set to be allocated about 60% of the shares on offer in Saudi Aramco's $11.2 billion stock sale, people familiar with the matter said, marking a turnaround from the oil giant's 2019 listing that ended up as a largely local affair.

The deal generated strong demand from the US and Europe, according to the people, who declined to be identified as the information is private. Funds from the UK, Hong Kong, Japan also backed the share sale that drew orders worth more than $65 billion in total, the people said.

During the oil giant's listing, overseas investors had largely balked at valuation expectations and left the government reliant on local buyers. The $29.4 billion IPO drew orders worth $106 billion, and just 23% of shares were allocated to foreign buyers. Representatives for Aramco weren't immediately available to comment. A key draw this time is the firm's dividend, which is one of the world's biggest. Investors willing to look past a steep valuation and the lack of buybacks would cash in on a $124 billion annual payout that Bloomberg Intelligence estimates will give the company a yield of 6.6%. Saudi Arabia drew enough bids to cover all shares within hours after it kicked off the deal. The kingdom stands to net at least $11.2 billion in proceeds, excluding over-allotments — cash that will help fund a multitrillion-dollar push to transform the economy. The final pricing was towards the bottom half of a proposed range of 26.70 riyals to 29 riyals, though Aramco's stock has been trading below the top end since the deal was announced and closed at 28.30 riyals on Thursday.

Iga Swiatek wins third title at Roland Garros in straight sets

IGA SWIATEK WON her third consecutive French Open championship and fourth in five years by defeating Jasmine Paolini 6-2, 6-1 in the final on Saturday. The top-seeded Swiatek trailed 2-1 early in Court Philippe Chatrier before taking the opening set and go up 5-0 in the second. She stretched her winning streak at Roland Garros to 21 matches and her career record at the place is now 35-2.

The 23-year-old from Poland is the first woman with three trophies in a row in Paris since Justine Henin from 2005 to 2007. Swiatek also won the French Open in 2020 and the US Open in 2022 and is now 5-0 in major finals. The 12th-seeded Paolini, a 28-year-old from Italy, was appearing in a Slam final for the first time. She had never been past the second round at one of the four most important tennis tournaments until getting to the fourth round at the Australian Open in January.
