Note: Performance during Q4 & FY20 to be viewed in the light of one time transition to BS-VI, slowdown in auto industry and unprecedented COVID-19 impact on business operations in Q4 FY20

Commenting on the performance, Mr. Rajeev Sikand, Group CEO – Alicon Castalloy, said, “FY20 has been a challenging year for the Auto Industry which now has to further contend the unprecedented disruption caused by the COVID-19 pandemic. The impact on mobility has been more pronounced and the behavioural changes brought about by the pandemic, while negative for the Auto Industry in the short term, are expected to be beneficial for sustained demand over the medium to long term.

I am pleased to share that Alicon has rapidly resumed operations post lockdown and all our employees and partners have risen to the occasion to ensure continuity in operations with minimum disruption. We have elevated our safety protocols for our associates and are making every effort to ensure sustained and stable supplies to support our customers. Our confidence stems from our customers who have demonstrated continued commitment to their development programs. Large contract wins over the last 1 year have progressed well and we expect to recoup the delay on account of recent events enabling us to meet the targeted schedules for commencement of production.

We are Future Ready and are actively seeking opportunities of which we see several encouraging signs. The one-time transition to BS-VI standards is largely complete and we expect to witness a steady recovery in volumes from OEMs in the months ahead. The global pandemic is likely to accelerate mega-trends such as electrification, automation and personalised mobility, all of which are focus areas for Alicon. We believe, this will enable us to pick-up momentum in business operations as the broader macro-environment normalizes. While the current emphasis is on stability of operations, our appetite for growth in the future remains undiminished.”
