ZSL-Aaranyak conducted facilitation drive

Assam Rising, Guwahati, February 12: A team of Protected Area managers and community leaders from Nepal recently visited Kaziranga and Manas Landscape in Assam during February 4 to 9 this year as part of an exposure trip experience best practices related to the protected area management (species and habitat), community-livelihood work and human-wildlife conflict mitigation in and around both the renowned wildlife protection areas. This exposure trip to Kaziranga Landscape and Manas Landscape were supported by Zoological Society of London-Nepal in assistance from Aaranyak which facilitated the team a trips with local logistic arrangements besides enabling them to have interactions with park managers and communities in Kaziranga and Manas landscapes. During their visit to Kaziranga landscape on February 5 and 6, the team from Nepal had an interaction with Aaranyak team followed by an interactive session with senior forest officials of Kaziranga National Park and Tiger Reserve at the convention center there. Dr. Sonali Ghosh, Field Director of Kaziranga Tiger Reserve, briefed the team about the protected area of Kaziranga, the landscape and the protected area management activities. Two documentaries on Kaziranga National Park were screened during the session to enlighten the visitors further about the Kaziranga landscape and its resources. A village walk-cum-trekking was arranged for the visitors in the Kaziranga-Karbi Anglong Landscape by the team of Aaranyak. During the trek Dr. Firoz Ahmed, Dr. Jayanta Kr. Sarma and Dr. Jayanta Kr. Roy briefed the team about the landscape, the Karbi indigenous community and their culture and tradition as well as the role of community in the conservation efforts. The team enjoyed the Karbi ethnic food during the trek and interacted with the local community there. The team also visited the PIRBI store, an indigenous community-owned business venture, which tured IFS and ex Field Director of Manas National Park, gave an introductory speech and described a brief history of his work in conserving Manas National Park. Sarma also spoke about the importance of involving local communities, NGOs and other law enforcement agencies in achieving a common goal in conservation of protected areas. During that interactive session Binita Baruwati of Aaranyak described the ongoing activities of Aaranyak in Manas Landscape and spoke about the indigenous Bodo community, their culture and tradition, the role of various stakeholders including forest department, NGOs, local communities and other law enforcement agencies, in conserving MNP. At the end of this programme, a village walk was organised in the fringe areas of Manas Park to facilitate the team from Nepal to interact with indigenous Bodo tribe people and learn about the community-owned homesteads and self-help groups (SHGs) which are supported by Aaranyak. The team also had the experience of ongoing other skill development activities organised for the community. The whole programme was coordinated by Dr. M Firoz Ahmed, Binita Baruwati of Aaranyak and Dinesh Neupane, Sunjeep Pun of Zoological Society of London-Nepal.

USLR Initiates Awareness of Tobacco-Free India

Assam Rising, Guwahati, February 12: The University School of Law and Research (USLR) at the University of Science & Technology Meghalaya (USTM), in collaboration with the NSS unit USTM, organized an outreach program to raise awareness about the harmful effects of tobacco use. Held at Sixmile Guwahati yesterday, the event attracted significant attention from the local community, particularly laborers and daily wage workers. Assistant Professor Abdul Wadud SK stated, "Today signifies a crucial step towards a healthier, tobacco-free nation. With determination and collaboration, we can overcome the challenges posed by tobacco addiction and build a brighter future." Nabadeep Hazarika expressed gratitude to the attendees for their active participation and encouraged them to be agents of change within their communities. "Together, we can make positive changes and protect the well-being of future generations," he remarked. The event concluded on a high note, with attendees departing with newfound knowledge and a renewed sense of purpose.

including respiratory issues and life-threatening diseases like cancer. The program emphasized the significance of collective action in creating a tobacco-free environment and highlighted the role of community engagement in combating tobacco addiction. Attendees were encouraged to pledge their commitment to a healthier lifestyle, free
