HCL Technologies accredited as FinOps Certified Service Provider and FinOps Certified Platform by FinOps Foundation

NOIDA, India – March 1, 2022 - HCL Technologies (HCL), a leading global technology company, has been accredited as FinOps Certified Service Provider (FCSP) and FinOps Certified Platform (FCP) by FinOps Foundation. HCL is one of the few leading global technology companies that is certified as both FCSP and FCP by the FinOps Foundation. With one of the highest numbers of FinOps-certified practitioners across all the vendors of FinOps Foundation, HCL Technologies is a leader among the GSI (global system integrator) community.

The FinOps practice at HCL Technologies is part of the #HCLCloudSmart portfolio of industry-focused, strategic cloud offerings. Designed to enable businesses to pivot from their current cloud state to the models and capabilities of Cloud 3.0, the FCSP certified FinOps practitioners offer guidance on best practices, consultative reviews for cost optimization, instance rightsizing based on consumption trends, reserved instance recommendations and more.

"Propelled by our #HCLCloudSmart portfolio, HCL Technologies nurtures an ecosystem of practitioners who specialize in delivering the best of cloud financial management support to our clients. Our recognition as an FCSP stands testimony to it. With our deep focus on innovation across products and services portfolio, we stand out among ISVs (independent software vendor) with our organically developed, industry recognized, FCP certified FinOps platform, DRYiCE<sup>TM</sup> MyXalytics," said Kalyan Kumar, Chief Technology Officer and Head, Ecosystems, HCL Technologies.

MyXalytics streamlines cloud cost visibility, optimization and cloud governance with ease. Certified as an FCP, it is a self-learning Al-based platform that facilitates multi-cloud integration, unified reporting and dashboarding to ensure cloud financial management is aligned with FinOps standards.

"Leaders like HCL Technologies are advancing the discipline of cloud financial management, through services and tooling to support practitioners in delivering better products and services, more quickly via sustainable innovation," says J.R. Storment, Executive Director, FinOps Foundation. "We're thrilled to certify HCL Technologies and look forward to advancing this cause together."

MyXalytics FinOps solution has also been recognized as a Rising Star in Multi-cloud FinOps platforms providers by ISG Provider Lens™ Public Cloud – Services & Solutions, 2021. HCL Technologies brings its automation expertise to the three simple and basic principles of FinOps, namely, inform, optimize and govern.

About FinOps Foundation

The FinOps Foundation is a program of the Linux Foundation dedicated to advancing the discipline of cloud financial management through best practices, education, and standards. The FinOps Foundation includes 4400+ individual members, representing more than 1500 companies. It counts dozens of major service and platform providers as part of their vendor certification programs, such as FinOps Certified Platform and FinOps Certified Service Provider programs.
