Big jolt to Indian government!
Cairn Energy freezes 20 state-owned properties in France: Report

New Delhi: In a big jolt to the Indian government, Britain's Cairn Energy Plc has secured a French court order to seize about 20 state-owned government properties in Paris, France. Cairn is aiming to recover a total of USD 1.7 billion in arbitration awards from the Indian government. The French court had ruled on June 11 that Cairn can take over Indian government-owned properties in France, mostly including flats. The legal process regarding the takeover was completed on Wednesday (July 7). According to a report by Financial Times, Cairn has identified USD 70 billion in assets around the world. These assets range from buildings to Air India aircraft. If the Indian government refuses to pay up Cairn, then the energy firm is all set to seize more assets. Meanwhile, in December, an arbitration panel had ordered the Indian government to pay USD 1.2 billion-plus interest and penalty to Cairn in a case involving tax demand.

Zomato IPO to open on July 14: Check 5 things you need to know before subscribing

New Delhi: Zomato is all geared up for its upcoming initial public offering (IPO) that is expected to help the food delivery giant mop up roughly around $1.25 billion. The IPO is likely to open for subscription from July 14.

Zomato was founded in 2008. In India, the startup rivals Swiggy and Amazon. At present, the company is valued at around $4.2 billion, according to estimates by research firm RedSeer. Experts are suggesting that the IPO could be a blockbuster on Indian bourses. If you're planning to subscribe to Zomato's IPO, you can take note of the following five things:

Zomato IPO date
Zomato is planning to open its IPO for subscription from July 14. You'll get three days to subscribe to the IPO from July 14 to July 16.

Zomato IPO price
Zomato is reportedly planning to price its share at around Rs 72 to 76 apiece. The lot available for a subscription could be worth anywhere around Rs 15,000.

Zomato financials
In the first three quarters of the financial year 2020-2021, Zomato's revenue stood at Rs 1,367 crore. Overall, the food delivery giant made a loss of Rs 684 crores during the same period, which means that the firm is yet to turn profitable.

Chinese funding
Zomato is backed by China's Ant Group. However, before the IPO, Ant Group has reduced its stake in the food aggregator due to the rising tensions between India and China. According to Zomato's draft prospectus, Ant Group now owns 558.9 million shares, down from a total of 777.5 million shares a year ago. Also Read: Big jolt to Indian government! Successful IPO of food delivery companies
In the US, food delivery startup DoorDash recently a blockbuster IPO. The offering had strong demand from investors worldwide. Taking cues, we can expect that Zomato might be able to repeat the success of DoorDash in India.
