Not wearing mask in Gwalior? Get ready to write essay on coronavirus as punishment

Gwalfor Those who violate the norms in Madhya Pradesh by not wearing masks, will now have to write an essay on Covid-19. The local administration in Gwalfor has said the violators will be put in open jails where they will have to write the essay on Covid-19. According to news agency IANS, Gwalfor District Magistrate Kaushlendra Vikram Singh has said the Gwalfor authorities have launched the 'Roko-Toko' campaign to stop the spread of coronavirus. With the Covid-19 awareness drive, local authorities are highlighting the Covid protocols while also penalising those found-flouting these norms. Those not wearing masks will be put in open jails, said the Gwalfor administration.

According to IANS, at least 20 people were jails, said the Gwalior administration.

According to IANS, at least 20 people were sent to the open prison at the Captain Roop Singh stadium and were made to write an essay on Covid-19 on Saturday.
Madhya Pradesh on Sunday reported 1,455 fresh coronavirus cases, taking the count of infections to 2,14,505 while 3,337 people have died so far of Covid-19.

Rahul Gandhi and family indulge in part-time politics: Rajasthan BJP lashes out at Congress support for Dec 8 bandh

Jaipur The Rajasthan BJP unit has lashed out at state Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot for saying that the Congress supports the farmers' call for Bharat Bandh on December ajasthan BJP Chief Satish Poonia said that Rahul Gandhi and his family indulge in "partime politics" and have nothing to do with famers. "Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot has supported the Bharat Bandh call for December 8. At this time, India does not need abandh. Cooperation is needed for paving the path for a new India, open India. I feel the way he [Gehlot] said that Rahul Gandhi is in favour of farmers and he had laid down the ground for farmers agilation is baseless. Rahul Gandhi and his entire family indulge in part-time politics and they have nothing to do with farmers' benefit neither does Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot. BJP state president Satish Poonia said.

"Ashok Gehlot has not been able to answer till now, when will debt waiver for farmers in Rajasthan happen. I believe that if they are true well-wishers then they should take stock of Rajasthan's farmers first, "Poonia added. Earlier in the day, Rajasthan Chief Minister Ashok Gehlot had claimed that Congress supports the bandh call given by farmers. In a statement, Gehlot said, "Congress party supports Bharat Bandhi in favour of farmers on December 8. As we know Rahul ji has been ratsing the voice of farmers through his signature campaign, Kisan and tractor rally, He has been an airdent supporter of the farmers to every corner of the nation." ajasthan BJP Chief Satish Poonia said that
