The Baul singer who sang for both Amit Shah and Mamata Banerjee

Kolkata Tomay Hrid Majhare Rakhbo, Chere Debo Na (Shall keep you in my heart forever, Will never leave you)" - Basudev Das Baul has sung this song twice in the past ten days on two separate occasions. The first was on December 20, when the Union Home Minister Amit Shah had visited his house to have lunch. Then on December 29, the slightly built aging singer sang the same tune again at the rally of West Bengal Chief Minister Mamata Banerjee. The singer's presence at Banerjee's public rally was a highpoint of the Chief Minister's rally. Banerjee greeted him with an Uttario (a welcome cloth) and he was given a prominent place on the stage.
"We all love Didi and on today Didi has called all the Baul's today so we are here," Basudev Das told India Today. Asked about his interaction with the Home Minister, the Baul singer said that the Home Minister did come to his house and had food.
"He is a busy man, I wanted to say a lot of things but could not say it," Basudev Das said. The images of Amit Shah listening to his song had become a high point of the home minister's visit to Bolpur in Birbhum.
Days after the Home Minister left, the Trinamool Congress reached out to the Baul singer. BJP national secretary Anupam Hazra said that the Baul Singer was under a lot of pressure to join Mamata Banerjee's rally.
The story of Basudev Das Baul has played out at different times over the past few years. Whenever the BJP leadership, particularly Amit Shah, visited a rural house in West Bengal and had lunch, the Trinamool Congress tried to reach out to the family the very next day. The first such visit of Shah was to the house of Raju Mahali and Geeta Mahali in Naxalbari block of Darjeeling district in May 2017. Not only did the family join Trinamool Congress days after the Home Minister's visit a month ago, but Geeta Mahali was also offered a job as a Home Guard in West Bengal Police.
Amidst all this rhetoric, the main question arises - who shall the people keep in their hearts with the upcoming Assembly elections?

Congress-backed conspiracy to paralyze communication system in Punjab, says BJP leader

Chandigarh Bhartiya Janata Party has slammed Captain Amrinder Singh-led state government for the 'lawlessness in the name of farmers' protests in Punjab'. BJP's reaction comes after protesters damaged over 1500 mobile towers in the state.
BJP national general secretary Tarun Chugh has said that there is a Congress-backed conspiracy in Punjab to break down the communication system in the state and the Centre should respond to this firmly.
"Amarinder Singh-led government had been covertly supporting disruptive elements in the state who in the garb of farmers' agitation have indulged in lawlessness," Tarun Chugh said. The BJP leader said that the Punjab government remained a silent spectator when the 'miscreants were damaging the communication towers, blocking roads and terrorizing the toll plaza officials'. Chugh added that the Congress support to such elements was exposed after senior Congress leader YB Srivasta, who is close to Rahul Gandhi, gave a call that communication towers all over the country should be destroyed and paralysed.
