President gives assent to J&K division; UTs to come into existence on Oct 31

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, August 9

President Ram Nath Kovind on Friday gave assent to a legislation for bifurcation of Jammu and Kashmir into two Union Territories - Jammu and Kashmir, and Ladakh - will come into existence on October 31.

October 31 happens to be the birth anniversary of the country's first home minister Sardar Vallabhbhai Patel, who was instrumental in the merger of about 565 princely states into the Union of India following independence.

The Parliament had earlier this week given its nod to the legislation for bifurcating the state, a bold and far-reaching decision that seeks to redraw the map and future of a region at the centre of a protracted military movement.

PM Modi, in a nearly 40-minute televised address to the nation on Thursday sought to allay concerns of the people saying Jammu and Kashmir will not remain Union Territory for long. "As Jammu and Kashmir will see more and more development, I do not think it will remain Union Territory for long. Ladakh will remain a Union Territory," Modi said.
