Govt to release onion in open market

NEW DELHI: The government on Friday announced it will release onion from its buffer stock in the targeted regions with immediate effect to ensure prices remain under check till the new crop arrives from October onwards.

The government is exploring multiple options for disposal of onion: e-auction, e-commerce as well as through states at discounted rates via retail outlets of their consumer cooperatives and corporations, it said.

Nepal wants easy access to export tomatoes

SHIRISH B PRADHAN
Kathmandu / New Delhi

The Nepal government on Friday said it wants to export tomatoes in bulk and on a long-term basis to India but for that, it needs to have easy access to the market and other necessary facilities.

The neighbouring country's plea came a day after Finance Minister Nirmala Sitharaman told Parliament that India has started importing tomatoes from Nepal amid a record-high spike in prices in the country.

India is importing tomatoes for the first time due to high retail prices which were as high as Rs 242 per kg on Friday amid supply disruptions caused by heavy rains.

Nepal is desirous to export vegetables, such as tomatoes, on a long-term basis to India, but for that India has to provide easy access to its market and other necessary facilities, Agriculture Ministry spokesperson Shabnam Shivakoti said. Though Nepal has started exporting tomatoes to India through official channels a week ago, it is not in big quantities, she said. Arrangements are yet to be made for large scale export of tomatoes, she added.

Echoing her voice, Binaya Shrestha, Deputy Director at Kalimati Fruits and Vegetable Market Development Board, said, "If we are provided with easy access to the Indian market, Nepal can export huge quantities of tomatoes to India."

Meanwhile, 10 tonnes of tomatoes imported from Nepal are in transit and the commodity will be distributed in UP during the weekend at a subsidised rate of Rs 70 per kg, a top official of co-operative NCCF said.

Since July 11, the National Cooperative Consumers' Federation of India Limited is selling tomatoes at a discounted rate on behalf of the Centre to boost domestic availability and contain prices.

DEATH NOW FOR MOB...

"Mob lynching ka bada shor macha hua hai. Humne usko carefully kara hai...mob lynching ke liye bhi saat saal, aajeevan karavas aur mrityudand...teeno ka pravadhan laya hai," Shah said. (There has been a lot of hue and cry about mob lynching; we have vetted it very carefully.)

In 2018, the Supreme Court had condemned the rise of mob violence and called for a special law on the issue.

The three-judge Bench had issued a comprehensive set of directives aimed at addressing the problem of mob lynching. "Lynching and mob violence are creeping threats that may gradually take the shape of a Typhon-like monster as evidenced in the wake of the rising wave of incidents of recurring patterns by frenzied mobs across the country instigated by intolerance and misinformation by circulation of fake news and false stories.

...Besides, bystander apathy, numbness of the mute spectators of the scene of the crime, inertia of the law enforcing machinery to prevent such crimes and nip them in the bud and grandstanding of the incident by the perpetrators of the crimes including in the social media aggravates the entire problem," the court had held.

A PIL was filed recently before the Supreme Court raising concerns about the rise in incidents of mob violence against minorities. The apex court had, on July 28, sought the response of the Central government and the police in six states.

BRITISH LAWS JUNKED

Shah has urged the Speaker to refer the proposed laws to the Parliamentary Standing Committee which can examine them and present its report in Parliament at the earliest. The Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita, which will replace the Indian Penal Code, had 511 sections; it will now have 356. No less than 175 sections have been amended, Shah said in the Lok Sabha.

SEDITION LAW: The controversial sedition law (Section 124 A of the IPC) has been changed to cover acts endangering sovereignty, unity, and Integrity of India (Section 150). Shah asserted that the new bill will repeal the entire offence of sedition. During his address, the minister said, "Everybody has the right to speak, so we are repealing sedition completely."

Section 150 reads: "Whoever, purposely or knowingly, by words, either spoken or written, or by signs, or by visible representation, or by electronic communication or by use of financial means, or otherwise, excites or attempts to excite, secession or armed rebellion or subversive activities, or encourages feelings of separatist activities or endangers sovereignty or unity and integrity of India; or indulges in or commits any such act shall be punished with imprisonment for life or with imprisonment which may extend to seven years and shall also be liable to fine." The new law will also have a provision of capital punishment in case of mob lynching, Shah said. New offences of terrorist acts and organised crime have been added with deterrent punishments to the New Bharatiya Nyaya Sanhita Bill. The government has introduced sections from 145 to 156 related to offences against the state. Similarly, section 148 talks about concealing intent to facilitate design to wage war; section 149 is about assaulting President, Governor, etc., with intent to compel or restrain the exercise of any lawful power. The punishment for crimes against state ranges from three to 10 years. If a public servant tries to allow prisoner of state of war to escape, that too will entail a stiff punishment.

OFFENCE RELATED TO ELECTIONS The new bill has also introduced sections related to crimes committed during elections. A total of nine sections have been incorporated. They include impersonation at elections, punishment for bribery and punishment for wielding undue influence. The government has also introduced punishments for false statement in connection with an election, illegal payments, failure to keep election accounts, etc.

The new Bill also has specific clauses related to public servants involved in various crimes. These will include incidents of a public servant disobeying law with intent to cause injury to any person; public servant disobeying direction under law; punishment for non-treatment of victim; public servant framing an incorrect document with intent to cause injury; public servant unlawfully engaging in trade; public servant unlawfully buying or bidding for property. The punishment for these offences will range from three months to three years.

DEATH NOW FOR...

DEATH FOR GANG RAPE

Gang rape of women will attract life imprisonment and in serious cases even the death penalty. The maximum punishment for rape has been increased up to 20 years. The present law has no provision for death sentence in cases of rape unless it is rape coupled with murder in the rarest of rare cases.

TERROR REDEFINED

A new definition of "terrorism" has been proposed and included in the new law which has never been attempted before.

VIA WHATS APP

Service of processes under the revamped procedural code will be done through WhatsApp or email or other electronic devices and made admissible as proof of service so that a trial can proceed against absconding accused.

ZERO FIRs

Zero FIRs have been codified for the first time to ensure that when a crime is committed, it can be registered in any police station and transferred to the police station which has jurisdiction to investigate the crime without making the complainant run from one police station to another.

VIDEO FOOTAGE MUST

Videography has been made compulsory during search-and-seizure in the house or office of the accused to ensure that false evidence is not planted on the premises of the accused or on his holds. Olav Albuquerque person a Ph.D in law and is a senior journalist-cum-advocate of the Bombay high court.

FROM 2ND FRONT

Judicial shakeout

"Particularly when the offence was non-cognisable, bailable and compoundable, the least which was expected from the learned trial judge was to give reasons for imposing the maximum punishment. Though the learned appellate court and the high court have spent voluminous pages in rejecting the application, these aspects are not seen considered," the apex court had noted. The defamation case against Rahul Gandhi had first come up before Justice Gopi in April but the judge recused from hearing it. Justice Gopi was elevated from district judge to the high court while the other three were practicing lawyers before joining the bench. Justice Dave, who has been recommended for transfer to the Rajasthan High Court, caused a minor stir of sorts when he invoked the 'Manusmriti' in connection with a minor rape survivor's plea for termination of her pregnancy. He had also recused himself from hearing activist Teesta Setalvad's petition filed in connection with the charge of fabricating evidence to frame people in government for the purported 2002 riots conspiracy.

Kota student commits...

Prajapat had returned from the coaching institute around 6 pm, according to Rakesh. He was last seen alive around 7 pm when he had come downstairs to have dinner in the mess. Investigating officer Shivraj Singh said that no suicide note was found in the room. Prajapat had used a bedsheet to hang himself, the police said, adding that further investigation is going on.

Nawab Malik gets...

Malik is in hospital for kidney disease and other ailments, a bench of Justices Aniruddh Bose and Bela M Trivedi noted on Friday and said: "We are passing the order strictly on medical conditions and have not entered into the merits of the case." The ED had arrested Malik in February 2022 in a case linked to fugitive gangster Dawood Ibrahim and his associates. Malik had hogged the limelight for accusing the former zonal director of the Narcotics Control Bureau (NCB), Sameer Wankhede, of several service-related wrongdoings after the officer led a raid on a cruise ship off Mumbai's coast in October 2021. Malik's son-in-law Sameer Khan was arrested in a drugs case by the NCB's Mumbai unit led by Wankhede. The NCP leader is in judicial custody and is undergoing treatment in a private hospital in Mumbai. Malik had sought relief from the high court, claiming he was suffering from a chronic kidney disease as well as other ailments. He also sought bail on merit. The high court had said that it will hear his plea seeking bail on merit after two weeks. The ED's case against Malik is based on an FIR filed by the National Investigation Agency against Dawood Ibrahim, a designated global terrorist and a key accused in the 1993 Mumbai serial bomb blasts, and his associates under the Unlawful Activities (Prevention) Act.

No ethnic cleansing...

According to him, the demolition drive can go on as there was no stay on it. Justices G S Sandhawalia and Harpreet Kaur Jeevan had on Monday halted the demolition drive after taking suo motu cognizance of some news reports. "Apparently, without any demolition orders and notices, the law and order problem is being used as a ruse to bring down buildings without following the procedure established by law," the court had then said.

"The issue also arises whether the buildings belonging to a particular community are being brought down under the guise of law and order problem and an exercise of ethnic cleansing is being conducted by the state," it said. The court had also directed the Haryana government to furnish an affidavit on the number of buildings demolished in two weeks in Nuh and Gurugram and whether any notice was issued before the demolition. Several houses and other buildings were bulldozed in Nuh, days after a Vishva Hindu Parishad procession was targeted there on July 31. The Nuh administration maintained that the bulldozed buildings were illegal and notices had been sent to them. Officials also claimed that some of the demolished buildings belonged to "rioters". They said stones were hurled from some of them.

Manipur: Rahul slams...

"The Prime Minister should not speak as a petty politician," he said. "Watching Modi spend two hours attacking the Congress does not do justice to his position. No Prime Minister has ever done this," Gandhi asserted. The Congress leader said that in his 19-year political career, he has not seen the kind of violence that is going on in Manipur. It is shameful that the Prime Minister skimmed through the Manipur issue, devoting just five minutes to it, and talking for more than two hours about himself and his achievements, Gandhi said, asserting that Modi wants Manipur to burn and does not want to extinguish the fire that has engulfed people there for more than three months. Gandhi also said he was bluntly told by the Kukis and the Meitis not to come to their area as he would be shot. He also suggested that the Army can resolve the violence between the two communities within two days. He, however, clarified that it is up to the Prime Minister to make use of the multiple tools the government has at its disposal to deal with such a situation. There may be reasons for the Prime Minister not going to Manipur, but he could have spoken on the violence there sensibly instead of joking and not telling the House on how he intends to resolve the issue, Gandhi said. No dialogue is possible until violence is curbed, Gandhi said in reply to a question on Home Minister Amit Shah ruling out removal of Manipur Chief Minister Biren Singh as he had followed all orders of the Centre and also would be useful in talks between the two warring communities. "Thousands of weapons were looted from under the nose of Manipur CM. Did Amit Shah want this looting? Does he want that the violence goes on unabated in Manipur?" Rahul asked.

Edelweiss officials denied...

However, public prosecutor Aruna Kamat Pai informed the court that the FIR was registered only last week and police are still probing the case. "Wait for a week. We will hear the matter on August 18 and consider the interim orders sought," Justice Sambre said. Edelweiss ARC official Smit Shah, Keru Mehta and Jitendra Kothari, who was appointed by the National Company Law Tribunal as an interim resolution professional, have also approached the high court seeking quashing of the FIR. All the officials have sought interim protection against coercive action, pending hearing. Desai, 57, was found hanging at his ND Studio in Karjat on August 2. On August 4, Naina approached the Khalapur police station to register an FIR, following which an abetment to suicide case was registered against Shah, Bansal and the others.

Pregnant woman among...

"But in my opinion, it is necessary to build a hospital that treats diseases like cold, fever, dengue and malaria," Awhad said. An enraged Awhad gave an earful to the hospital dean, Dr Rakesh Barot. Talking to the hospital administration, he said he was not the Jitendra Awhad of yesteryear and he knew what was happening at Kalwa hospital. Meanwhile, the relatives of the five patients who died at the hospital alleged doctors' negligence for the death. Dr Anirudh Malgaonkar, superintendent of CSMH, said, "The Kalwa hospital capacity to admit patients is over and the ICU is also full. The 3 patients who came were in critical condition." Among the five patients who died were a patient who had suffered a cardiac arrest, a pregnant woman, another who was vomiting, the fourth one had a leg abscess while the condition of the fifth one was unknown. The relatives of the patients raised a ruckus outside the hospital, alleging that their kin had died because they were not treated on time. Further, the relatives alleged that the hospital was charging Rs 100 for mobile charging, Rs 200 for an ICU bed and Rs 200 for an oxygen bed. Office-bearers of the Ajit Pawar group of the Nationalist Congress Party (NCP) and those of the MNS also reviewed the case and tried to determine the response of the hospital administration. Anticipating that matters are likely to escalate further, police presence at the hospital has been strengthened and a riot control team too has been stationed on the premises.
