2. Preservation of "Unpublished Price Sensitive Information"

All information shall be handled within the Company on a need-to-know basis. No insider shall communicate, provide or allow access to any unpublished price sensitive information, relating to Company or securities listed, to any person including other insiders except where such communication is in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations.

No person shall procure from or cause the communication by any insider of unpublished price sensitive information, relating to Company or securities listed, except in furtherance of legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of legal obligations. Any inducement and procurement of unpublished price sensitive information not in furtherance of legitimate duties and discharge of legal obligations would be illegal under this clause.

Explanation-The term “legitimate purpose” shall include sharing of unpublished price sensitive information in the ordinary course of business by an insider with partners, collaborators, lenders, customers, suppliers, merchant bankers, legal advisors, auditors, insolvency professionals or other advisors or consultants, provided that such sharing has not been carried out to evade or circumvent the prohibitions of this code or the Regulations.

Any person in receipt of unpublished price sensitive information pursuant to a “legitimate purpose” shall be considered an “insider” for purposes of this code or the Regulations and due notice shall be given to such persons to maintain confidentiality of such unpublished price sensitive information in compliance with this code or the regulations.

- 2A Unpublished price sensitive information may be communicated, provided, allowed access to or procured, in connection with a transaction that would:
- entail an obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company; or
 - not attract the obligation to make an open offer under the takeover regulations but where the Board of Directors of the Company is of informed opinion that sharing of such information is in the best interests of the Company and the information that constitute unpublished price sensitive information is disseminated to be made generally available at least two trading days prior to the proposed transaction being effected in such form as the Board of Directors may determine to be adequate and fair to cover all relevant and material facts.

However, the Board of Directors shall require the parties to execute agreements to contract confidentiality and non-disclosure obligations on the part of such parties and such parties shall keep information so received confidential, except for the aforesaid purpose and shall not otherwise trade in securities of the Company when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information.

Further, the Board of Directors shall ensure that a structured digital database is maintained containing the names of such persons or entities as the case may be with whom information is shared along with the Permanent Account Number or where Permanent Account Number is not available any other identifier authorized by law and databases shall be maintained with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

Following practices should be followed in this regard: -

2.1 Restrictions: -

2.1.1. Every person preparing and circulating any unpublished price sensitive information (UPSI) as defined under the Regulations shall ensure to notify the following notation “Private, Privileged and Confidential” on each such document / statement.

2.1.2. Need to Know

- (i) “need to know” basis means that Unpublished Price Sensitive Information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of the information.
- (ii) All non-public information directly received by any employee should immediately be reported to the head of the department.

2.1.3 Limited access to confidential information

Files containing confidential information shall be kept secure by the concerned department. Computer files must have adequate security of login and password, etc. Files containing confidential information should be deleted/destroyed after its use.

2.1.4 To prevent the misuse of UPSI, the Company adopts the “Chinese Wall” policy which separates those areas of the Company which routinely have access to UPSI, considered –inside areas” from those departments which deal with sales/marketing or other departments providing support services, considered–”public areas”.

2.1.5 Only in exceptional circumstances, Employees from the public areas may be permitted to ‘cross the wall” are brought ‘over the wall’ and provided UPSI on “need to know” basis under intimation to the Compliance Officer. In such cases, the Compliance Officer shall ensure that all necessary restrictions are imposed on such Employee(s) in relation to protection of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information.

2.1.6 Not to advise or induce or communicate or counsel any other person to deal in shares of the company on the basis of UPSI.

2.1.7 Not to trade (buy/sell) in securities of the Company either directly or through relatives, friends etc. on the basis of any UPSI.

2.1.8 Not to trade (buy/sell) in securities of the Company directly or through relatives, friends etc. during closure of trading window as announced by compliance officer from time to time.

2.1.9 To comply with the norms under the code including disclosure of the transactions to the Compliance Officer.

2.2 Prevention of misuse of “Unpublished Price Sensitive Information”

Designated persons and connected persons on the basis of their functional role in the Company shall be governed by an internal code of conduct governing dealing in securities.

2.2.1 Trading Plan

An insider shall be entitled to formulate a trading plan for dealing in securities of the Company and present it to the Compliance Officer for approval and public disclosure pursuant to which trades may be carried out on his behalf in accordance with such plan.

2.2.2 Trading Plan shall:

- (i) not entail commencement of trading on behalf of the insider earlier than six months from the public disclosure of the plan;
- (ii) not entail trading for the period between the twentieth trading day prior to the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced by the Company and the second trading day after the disclosure of such financial results;
- (iii) entail trading for a period of not less than twelve months;
- (iv) not entail overlap of any period for which another trading plan is already in existence;
- (v) set out either the value of trades to be effected or the number of securities to be traded along with the nature of the trade and the intervals at, or dates on which such trades shall be effected; and
- (vi) not entail trading in securities for market abuse.

2.2.3 The Compliance Officer shall consider the Trading Plan made as above and shall approve it forthwith. However, he shall be entitled to take express undertakings as may be necessary to enable such assessment and to approve and monitor the implementation of the plan as per provisions of the Regulations.

However, pre-clearance of trades shall not be required for a trade executed as per an approved trading plan and trading window norms and restrictions on contra trade shall not be applicable for trades carried out in accordance with an approved trading plan.

- 2.2.4 The Trading Plan once approved shall be irrevocable and the Insider shall mandatorily have to implement the plan, without being entitled to either deviate from it or to execute any trade in the securities outside the scope of the trading plan.

However, the implementation of the trading plan shall not be commenced, if at the time of formulation of the plan, the Insider is in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information and the said information has not become generally available at the time of the commencement of implementation. The commencement of the Plan shall be deferred until such unpublished price sensitive information becomes generally available information. Further, the Insider shall also not be allowed to deal in securities of the Company, if the date of trading in securities of the Company, as per the approved Trading Plan, coincides with the date of closure of Trading Window announced by the Compliance Officer.

- 2.2.5 Upon approval of the trading plan, the compliance officer shall notify the plan to the stock exchanges on which the securities are listed.

3. Prohibition To Buy/Sell Securities of the Company by Insider

- 3.1 Any Insider, when in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information pertaining to the Company shall not trade in securities of the Company:

When a person who has traded in securities has been in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, his trades would be presumed to have been motivated by the knowledge and awareness of such information in his possession.

Provided that the insider may prove his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances including the following:-

- (i) The transaction is an off-market inter-se transfer between insiders who were in possession of the same unpublished price sensitive information and such information was obtained for legitimate purpose and sharing of such unpublished price sensitive information is in the best interest of the Company and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision.

Provided that such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information was not obtained under Clause 2A of this Code.

Provided further that such off-market trades shall be reported by the insiders to the Company within two working days. The Company shall notify the particulars of such trades to the stock exchanges on which its securities are listed within two trading days from receipt of the disclosure or from becoming aware of such information;

- (ii) the transaction was carried out through the block deal window mechanism between persons who were in possession of the unpublished price sensitive information and such information was obtained for legitimate purpose and sharing of such unpublished price sensitive information is in the best interest of the Company and both parties had made a conscious and informed trade decision;
- (iii) the transaction in question was carried out pursuant to a statutory or regulatory obligation to carry out a bona fide transaction.
- (iv) the transaction in question was undertaken pursuant to the exercise of stock options in respect of which the exercise price was pre-determined in compliance with applicable regulations.

3.2 In the case of non-individual insiders: -

- (a) the individuals who were in possession of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information were different from the individuals taking Trading decisions and such decision-making individuals were not in possession of such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information when they took the decision to Trade; and
- (b) appropriate and adequate arrangements were in place to ensure that the Regulations are not violated and no Unpublished Price Sensitive Information was communicated by the individuals possessing the information to the individuals taking Trading decisions and there is no evidence of such arrangements having been breached;
- (v) the trades were pursuant to a trading plan as set out in this Code.

3.3 Insiders shall maintain the confidentiality of all Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. They shall, while in possession of any Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, neither Trade in the Securities of the Company on the basis of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information nor pass on such information to any person directly or indirectly by way of making a recommendation for Trading in Securities of the Company.

3.4 In the case of Connected Persons the onus of establishing, that they were not in possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information, shall be on such Connected Persons.

3.5 Institutional Mechanism for Prevention of Insider trading:

3.5.1 The Managing Director or such analogous person of the Company as determined by the Board shall put in place adequate and effective system of internal controls to ensure compliance with the requirements given in this Code and Regulations to prevent insider trading.

3.5.2 The internal controls shall include the following:

- a. All employees who have access to unpublished price sensitive information shall be identified as designated person.
- b. All unpublished price sensitive information shall be identified and its confidentiality shall be maintained as per the requirements of the regulations.
- c. Adequate restrictions shall be placed on communication or procurement of unpublished price sensitive information as required by regulations.
- d. Lists of all employees and other persons with whom unpublished price sensitive information is shared shall be maintained and confidentiality agreements shall be signed or notice shall be served to all such employees and persons.
- e. All other relevant requirements specified under the regulations shall be complied with;
- f. Periodic process review to evaluate effectiveness of such internal controls.

3.5.3 The Board of Directors of the Company shall ensure that the Managing Director or such other analogous person ensures compliance with regulation 9 and sub-regulations (1) and (2) of the regulations.

3.5.4 The Audit Committee of the Company shall review compliance with the provisions of the regulations at least once in a financial year and shall verify that the systems for internal control are adequate and are operating effectively.

3.5.5 The Company has formulated written policies and procedures for inquiry in case of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information, approved by Board of Directors of the Company forming part of this code and accordingly the Company shall initiate appropriate inquiries on becoming aware of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information and inform SEBI promptly of such leaks, inquiries and results of such inquiries.

3.5.6 The Company shall have a whistle-blower policy and make employees aware of such policy to enable employees to report instances of leak of unpublished price sensitive information.

3.5.7 If an inquiry has been initiated by a Company in case of leak of unpublished price sensitive information or suspected leak of unpublished price sensitive information, the relevant intermediaries and fiduciaries shall co-operate with the Company in connection with such inquiry conducted by Company.

4. Restriction to Buy/Sell Securities by Designated Person

All the Promoters or members of Promoter Group, Key Managerial Personnel, Directors / Designated person/ connected persons of the Company shall not buy/sell securities of the Company during closure of the 'Trading Window', i.e. the period during which trading in the securities of the Company is prohibited.

4.1.1. Closure of Trading Window:

All Designated Persons shall execute Trades in the Securities of the Company only in a valid trading period called Trading Window prescribed hereunder and shall not execute any Trade or deal in any transaction involving the purchase or sale of the Company's Securities in their own name or in the name of their Immediate Relatives during the period when the Trading Window is closed or any other period as may be specified by the Company from time to time.

4.1.2 The Trading Window for Trading in Securities of the Company shall be closed for the following purposes:

- (i) Declaration of financial results (quarterly, half yearly and annual), standalone and consolidated, of the Company;
- (ii) Intended declaration of dividends (both interim and final);
- (iii) Issue of Securities by way of public, bonus, rights issue etc. or buy-back of Securities and changes in capital structure;
- (iv) Changes in Key Managerial Personnel;
- (v) Mergers, demergers, amalgamations, acquisitions, delisting, disposals, expansion of business and such other transactions; and
- (vi) Material events in accordance with the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015.

4.1.3 In addition to the items specified above, the Trading Window shall also be closed when the Compliance Officer determines that a Designated Person or class of Designated Persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such Securities to which such Unpublished Price Sensitive Information relates.

4.1.4 In case of declaration of financial results, the Trading Window shall be closed during the period beginning from the last day of any financial period for which results are required to be announced and ending 48 (forty eight) hours after the public release of such results. In all other circumstances, the time for commencement of closing of Trading Window shall be as determined by the Compliance Officer in consultation with the Board of Directors.

The gap between clearance of accounts by the Audit Committee and the Board meeting should be as narrow as possible and preferably on the same day to avoid leakage of material information.

4.1.5 The trading window restrictions shall not apply in respect of -

(a) transactions specified in clauses (i) to (iv) and of the Clause 3.1 of this code, the trades were pursuant to a trading plan set up in accordance with Clause 2.2. of this Code and in respect of a pledge of shares for a bonafide purpose such as raising of funds, subject to pre-clearance by the compliance officer and compliance with the respective regulations made by the Securities and Exchange Board of India;

(b) transactions which are undertaken in accordance with respective regulations made by the Securities and Exchange Board of India such as acquisition by conversion of warrants or debentures, subscribing to rights issue, further public issue, preferential allotment or tendering of shares in a buy-back offer, open offer, delisting offer or transactions which are undertaken through such mechanism as may be specified by the SEBI from time to time.

4.1.7 The Compliance Officer after taking into account various factors including the Unpublished Price Sensitive Information in question becoming Generally Available Information and being capable of assimilation by the market, shall decide the timing for re-opening of the Trading Window, which however shall not in any event be earlier than 48 hours after the information becoming generally available.

4.1.8 Trading Window may be closed by the Company during such time in addition to the above period, as may be deemed fit by the Compliance Officer.

4.1.9 The notice of closure of the Trading Window shall be intimated to the stock exchanges wherever the Securities of the Company are listed.

5. Prior Approval to Buy/Sell Securities by Designated Persons

5.1.1. All the Designated persons of the Company shall get prior clearance from compliance officer of the proposed acquisition/purchase/sale transactions by themselves or through their dependent family members as per the procedure described hereunder if the said transaction of the securities of Company in a month is in excess of 2,000 in number or Rupees One Lac in market value, whichever is lower (either in one transaction or in a series of transaction(s)).

- 5.1.2. The application for prior clearance shall be made to the Compliance Officer of the Company in the prescribed format as specified in Annexure 1 of the Code.
- 5.1.3 An undertaking (Annexure 2) shall be executed in favour of the Company by such Designated Person incorporating, inter alia, the following clauses, as may be applicable:
 - (a) That the employee/director/officer does not have any access or has not received “Price Sensitive Information” up to the time of signing the undertaking.
 - (b) That in case the Designated Person has access to or receives “Price Sensitive Information” after the signing of the undertaking but before the execution of the transaction he/she shall inform the Compliance Officer of the change in his position and that he/she would completely refrain from dealing in the securities of the Company till the time such information becomes public.
 - (c) That he/she has not contravened the code of conduct for prevention of insider trading as notified by the Company from time to time.
 - (d) That he/she has made a full and true disclosure in the matter.
- 5.1.4 Such purchase/sale of securities by the Compliance Officer shall require prior clearance from the Chairman of the Company.
- 5.1.5 Purchase/sale transaction, for which prior clearance has been obtained, shall be valid only for one week from the date of communication within which period it shall be consummated/executed and shall lapse thereafter. If the transaction is not consummated/executed within one week from the approval date, the designated person will be required to follow the process of prior clearance again.
- 5.1.6 All the designated persons who buy or sell any number of shares of the Company shall not enter into an opposite transaction i.e. sell or buy any number of shares during the next 6 months following the prior transaction. The compliance officer may grant relaxation from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate the regulations.

Should a contra trade be executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to the Securities and Exchange Board of India (SEBI) for credit to the Investor Education and Protection Fund administered by SEBI under the Securities and Exchange Board of India Act, 1992. Provided that this shall not be applicable for trades pursuant to exercise of stock options
