- II. Code

1. Reporting:

The Compliance Officer shall report to the Board of Directors ("Board") and in particular, shall provide reports to the Chairman of the Board or Chairman of the Audit Committee, on a minimum yearly basis or at such frequency as may be stipulated by the Board.

2. Information on a need-to-know basis & Chinese wall procedures:

All information shall be handled within the organisation on a need-to-know basis and no unpublished price sensitive information shall be communicated to any person except in furtherance of the insider's legitimate purposes, performance of duties or discharge of his/ her Legal obligations.

Norms for appropriate Chinese Walls procedures& processes will be as under

i. To prevent the misuse of confidential information, the Company shall separate those areas of the Company which routinely have access to confidential information, considered "inside areas" from those areas which deal with sale/marketing/investment advise or other departments providing support services, considered "public areas".

- ii. The employees in the inside area shall not communicate any price sensitive information to any one in public area.
- iii. The employees in inside area may be physically segregated from employees in public area.
- iv. Demarcation of the various departments as inside area may be implemented by the Company.
- vi. In exceptional circumstances employees from the public areas may be brought "over the wall" and given confidential information on the basis of "need to know" criteria.
- vii. A structured digital database shall be maintained containing the names of such persons or entities with whom information is shared under the regulations and such database shall maintained with adequate internal controls and checks as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database.

3. Designated Persons

The Chairman of the Board shall in consultation with the Compliance Officer specify the designated persons to be covered by such Code on the basis of their role and function in the organisation. Due regard shall be had to the access that such role and function would provide to unpublished price sensitive information in addition to seniority and professional designation.

Trading window

4. Designated persons may execute trades subject to compliance with these Regulations. (As allowed under The Regulations but also in compliance of the Code)

Towards this end, a notional trading window shall be used for monitoring trading by the designated persons.

No insider shall trade in securities that are listed or proposed to be listed on a stock exchange when in possession of unpublished price sensitive information, provided that the insider may provide his innocence by demonstrating the circumstances as provided in the regulations.

Functioning mechanism of Trading Window:

The trading window shall be closed when the Compliance Officer in consultation with Board of Directors determines that a designated person or class of designated persons can reasonably be expected to have possession of unpublished price sensitive information. Such closure shall be imposed in relation to such securities to which such unpublished price sensitive information relates.

Designated persons and their immediate relatives shall not trade in securities when the trading window is closed.

5. The timing for re-opening of the trading window shall be determined by the Compliance

Officer taking into account various factors including the unpublished price sensitive information in question becoming generally available and being capable of assimilation by the market, which in any event shall not be earlier than forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available. The trading window shall also be applicable to any person having contractual or fiduciary relation with the Company, such as auditors, accountancy firms, law firms, analysts, consultants etc., assisting or advising the Company. In absence of any specification by Compliance Officer, the trading window shall deemed to closed at forty-eight hours after the information becomes generally available from end of each quarter.

The notice to Stock Exchange by Compliance Officer/Authorised Officer of the Company regarding Closing of Trading windows shall be deemed as served to Insiders.

Pre-clearance & trades

6. When the trading window is open, trading by designated persons shall be subject to preclearance by the Compliance Officer, if the value of the proposed trade(s) is above a minimum threshold limit of Rs. 10,00,000/- (Rupees Ten Lakh) in value over any calendar quarter, or such other limits as the Board may stipulate.

No designated person shall apply for pre-clearance of any proposed trade if such designated person is in possession of unpublished price sensitive information even if the trading window is not closed.

- 7. The Compliance Officer shall confidentially maintain a list as a "restricted list" as may be specified in the SEBI regulations which shall be used as the basis for approving or rejecting applications for pre-clearance of trades.
- 8. Prior to approving any trades, the Compliance Officer shall be entitled to seek declarations to the effect that the applicant for pre-clearance is not in possession of any unpublished price sensitive information. He shall also have regard to whether any such declaration is reasonably capable of being rendered inaccurate.
- 9. Order in respect of securities shall be executed within seven (7) trading days after approval is granted by the Compliance Officer, failing which fresh pre-clearance would be needed for the trades to be executed.
- 10. A designated person who is permitted to trade shall not execute a contra trade within a period of six (6) months following the prior transaction. Relaxation may be given from strict application of such restriction for reasons to be recorded in writing provided that such relaxation does not violate these Regulations.

In the event, any such contra trade is executed, inadvertently or otherwise, in violation of such a restriction, the profits from such trade shall be liable to be disgorged for remittance to SEBI for credit to the Investor Protection and Education Fund administered by SEBI under the Act.
