Subject: Thankful note to Investors for successful closure of Rights Issue.

We are writing to express our sincere gratitude to each and every one of you for your invaluable support and commitment during the recent Rights Issue. Your confidence and trust in our company have played a pivotal role in the successful closure of this significant financial undertaking.

The positive response from our esteemed investors has been truly overwhelming, and it is with great pleasure that we announce the successful completion of the Rights Issue with 130.47% subscription. Your contributions have not only strengthened our financial foundation but have also reinforced our belief in the shared vision we have for the future.

We understand that your investment is a vote of confidence in our company, and we are dedicated to ensuring that your trust is well-placed. The funds raised will be utilized judiciously to propel our business forward, driving growth and creating value for all stakeholders.

Once again, thank you for your unwavering support. We look forward to continuing this journey together and achieving new milestones in the future. Your belief in our company inspires us to strive for excellence.

Further, we request the Stock Exchanges to disseminate this information on their website for Public at large.

Thanking you

Yours faithfully

For Affordable Robotic & Automation Limited
