Business Line (English) Ahmedabad - 10-02-2020

The Customs Department had earlier launched a pilot in Bengaluru and Chennai on faceless assessment of cargo, whereby consignments will be assessed by a virtual group, irrespective of where the Bill of Entry is filed.

Under this initiative, the assessment of cargo need not be done at the same place where the Bill of Entry is filed.

The CBIC has taken yet another step towards realising the Government's objective of further reducing the dwell time in Customs clearance by using IT-driven reforms, a government official said.

Nalegave said that the coverage of the ease of doing business is being extended to the Bengaluru ICD this year. Currently, it is restricted to JNPT and Tughlakabad ICDs.

The MCA has sought a five-year ban on auditors of IL&FS Financial Services for alleged role in hiding bad loans.

The paper seeks to 'examine the existing provisions of law and make suitable amendments therein to enhance audit independence and accountability' and has sought comments by February 28. The suggestions include auditors be prohibited from providing any non-audit services and partners be barred

The paper also raises concerns of an inadequate degree of competition in large company audits as a result of the oligopoly of the "Big four" audit firms.

It has also asked whether a joint audit should be made mandatory for larger companies with a view to increase quality control and also whether auditors of a holding company should be required to make comments on the accounts of subsidiary companies.

representatives from trade and industry bodies such as CII, FICCI and ICAI. It will provide feedback "when significant changes are brought in the system, or when changes in business processes are contemplated", the order said. "Provide feedback on procedures and processes from point of view of taxpayers and tax consultants," it said. The committee will elect its chairman at beginning of every meeting, while the strength of the quorum will be a third of the total number of members.

The setting up of the committee comes in the backdrop of taxpayers facing several issues while uploading returns on the GSTN website, and of the government seeking feedback from industry on the new beta version.
