Thackeray had strongly refuted the governor's statement saying that he did not need a "certificate" of Hindutva from him.

Then, in May, there was a faceoff between the state governoment and the governor over the state cabinet's recommendation to nominate CM Thackeray to the state legislative council. Trackeray was facing a constitutional issue as he had to get elected to either of the two houses of legislature within six months of his swearing in as the CM, which took place in November 2019.

No more pantry cars on trains unless it is Tejas

"We will continue providing the best of cooked food to our passengers, which is a good way to attract footfall," said a railway official.

"We will continue providing the best of cooked food to our passengers, which is a good way to attract footial," said a railway official.

Train travel is not just about the commute and the passing sights but also the meals on wheels served to passengers. One of the delectable aspects of the journeys on the Rujdmani and the Shataled is for their shoot as well. "Passengers and the Shataled is for their shoot as well." Passengers maintaining that mady-local food will be served to passengers as a served to passengers and the served of the RNACA.

According to railway officials, the pantry system in long-distance trains has been more or less disbended and people will have to either carry their own food or book through extering or buy ready-to-eat (RTE) food served in these trains. The dice doing the rounds in the railways is to convert the pantry car into a 3-tier AC coach that will furry more passengers, with just a side pantry to warm ready-to-eat food.

"Train travel is also a great way of promoting tourism. Food served to passengers plays an important role and so pantries need to continue," said AV Shenoy.
