Details of Litigation in accordance with the SEBI circular No. SEBI/HO/CFD/CFD-PoD1/P/CIR/2023/123 dated July 13, 2023

Name of Plaintiff	Name of Defendant	Forum (court / tribunal/ agency) where litigation is filed	Brief details of Dispute	Financial implication/Quantu m of claims, if any VetDC, Inc.	Piramal Pharma Solutions Inc.	District Court for the Eastern District of Kentucky, USA	Piramal Pharma Solutions Inc. ("PPS") is a company incorporated in Kentucky and is a wholly owned subsidiary of the Company. VetDC, Inc. ("VetDC") entered into a Supply Agreement in 2018 under which PPS manufactured and supplied certain products to VetDC. This Agreement expired in December 2021. VetDC has initiated a civil suit on 28th November 2023 making certain claims in relation to batches of the product manufactured and supplied during 2018-2019 which were rejected or partially rejected due to contamination. VetDC also claims that it has suffered losses due to breach of contract. A copy of the said suit was made available to PPS and the Company on 29th November, 2023. We believe that VetDC claims are incorrect and / or are without adequate legal basis. PPS will be addressing this civil suit within the designated time.	VetDC has alleged that is has suffered damages to the extent of USD 8.91 million approx. under various counts in this civil suit. VetDC has sought actual damages, costs expended, pre and post judgment interest and reasonable attorney fees as reliefs in this civil suit.
