Mother of Nepal air crash victim unaware of loss to family

ABHITASH SINGH
Thane

The mother of Vaibhavi Bandekar (Tripathi) who was on board the plane that crashed into Himalayan mountainside in Nepal has not yet been informed about the tragedy. Officials involved in the rescue operations have recovered the bodies of 21 people and that everyone on board perished in the crash. Vaibhavi was on the plane along with her husband, son and daughter.

The police have been told not to inform her about the incident as she is on ventilator support and won't be able to bear the news

Vaibhavi's sister Sanjeevani Sadani, who is taking care of their 80-year-old ailing mother, has requested the police not to inform the octogenarian about the incident. Sanjeevani said her mother is on ventilator support and will not be able to bear news of the loss.

A member of the Rustomjee Athena Society said that, "Vaibhavi elder sister has already got in touch with the Indian Embassy in Nepal and is waiting for the body to arrive in Thane." Earlier on Sunday, the Tara Air Turboprop Twin Otter crashed during a 20 minute scheduled flight from Pokhara to Jomsom. The aircraft lost contact with the airport tower amid cloudy skies while flying in a remote hilly area over river gorges and rocky mountaintops. Around 22 people were initially missing, but the rescue team on Monday recovered 21 bodies. They will be given to the families after a post mortem examination, said officials from Nepal home ministry.

Customs tighten screws on Bollywood over dummy gun, blank imports

When fired, blank cartridges discharge unburnt propellant particles that can be fatal

DHARMESH THAKKAR
Mumbai

Top Bollywood filmmakers are in the crosshairs of the Mumbai Customs for gun blazing and exploding car scenes in action-packed blockbusters, filmed without a valid license under the Arms Rule, 2016.

The hellfire and explosions typical to masala films need dummy guns and tonnes of blank cartridges, along with controlled explosives which need a special arms license for theatrical, film or television production under the amended Arms Rule, 2016, for prop weapons.

The arrest of Bollywood stunt woman Firoza Khatun (Free Press Journal May 26, 2022 edition) for importing consignments of 78,000 blank cartridges without a valid arms license has opened Pandora's box of illegal imports of dummy weapons and ammunition. "The accused imported three consignments of 78,000 blank cartridges during the pandemic-induced lockdown (between September and November 2021) when there was laxity in the checking of imported goods at the Customs cargo offices, with most officers having been detected Covid positive. The restricted blank cartridges were misdeclared as dummy air pellets to subvert the Arms rules for dummy weapons and blank ammunition," explained a senior Customs officer supervising the investigation into the import of dummy weapons and blank ammunition for theatrical, film or television production.

The Special Investigation and Intelligence Branch (SIIB) of the Mumbai Customs at the Air Cargo Complex stumbled on the irregularities when the Central Forensics Science Laboratory (CFSL), Hyderabad, gave a damning report of the imported consignment after samples of the "dummy air pellets" were sent for testing.

"When a blank cartridge is fired, high-pressure gas is discharged from the case and progresses down the barrel. The effect of the super-heated high-pressure gas, as well as unburnt particles of propellant, can cause fatal injuries and can be dangerous to human life. Thus, the goods are dangerous in nature," opined the CFSL report.

Indian films have come a long way from single or double barrel bolt action guns for the dacoits and revolvers for police officers. Today, a good action film or cop drama film will add AK-47 rifles, semi-automatic machine guns, rocket launchers, grenades and automatic pistols to the arsenal props imported from foreign gun manufacturers who make dummies for training and arms exhibitions. "New actors want to do action movies to climb the ladder of stardom," explains a veteran dummy guns supplier and member of the Movie Action Dummy Effects Association (MADEA) which has over 650 members supplying police-certified prop guns for film and TV shoots in India. "We only use dummy guns that have police certificates. Bullets do not contain lead and only make a loud sound and flash on pulling the trigger," he insisted.

Abhijeet Singh of the online gun enthusiasts forum Indiaforguns described the design of prop guns as "idiot-proof". "The prop guns have a solid steel rod instead of a functional barrel. The dummy is designed with a specialised chamber for blank ammunition to produce a gunshot sound and realistic gun movements with flash and smoke of venting gas and empty shells," reads the description for dummy prop guns. The Mumbai Police provides certificates for these "idiot proof" guns to be used for films and TV shoots.

LET OPERATIVE HELD IN PUNE

Maha ATS in J&K to probe terror funding

SOMENDRA SHARMA
somendra.sharma@fpj.co.in

A team from the Maharashtra Anti-Terrorism Squad (ATS) has reached Jammu and Kashmir (J&K) in connection with the arrest of suspected 28-year-old Lashkar-e-Taiba (LeT) operative Junaid Mohammad, agency sources informed on Monday. As part of their terror funding probe, the ATS officials would be investigating the J&K-based bank account through which Junaid allegedly received funds used to run his terror activities.

According to the ATS sources, Junaid was in active contact with the LeT and was engaged in making attempts to recruit youngsters and send them to J&K for training to indulge in terrorist activities. "Enquires had revealed that for this purpose, he had received money in his bank account from a J&K-based bank account. We are now investigating who is the holder of the said account and since how long Junaid had been receiving the money. This will help us in identifying other persons connected with the group," said an ATS officer.

The officer further stated that Junaid was in touch with three people based in Kashmir - Hamidullah Zargar, Aftab Shah and one Umar - who are wanted in the case. "We would also be probing about them," he said.

The officer informed that Junaid had used ten Sim cards of different telecom provider companies during a short period of time. "The modus operandi was to use a particular Sim card for a short period of time and then destroy it and use a fresh one," he added.

As per the ATS, Junaid and other wanted accused were tasked to misguide, brainwash and create anti-national feelings among selected youth and recruit them as members for the LeT. "To this end, Junaid operated five Facebook accounts through which he used to upload anti-national posts. He would contact radicalised youth to join the LeT," the ATS officials had claimed.

The ATS had arrested Junaid who works at a scrap dealer's shop in Dapodi from the house of his relative in the Dapodi area of Pune on May 24.

2012 Dindoshi honour killing: 5 sentenced to life in jail

BY STAFF REPORTER
Mumbai

A sessions court in Dindoshi on Monday sentenced five persons to life in prison for the murder of a man who was in a relationship with the widow of the elder brother of two of the men.

The incident had taken place on December 17, 2012. The two brotherS - Jayesh and Ajay Singh - had entered the home of their sister-in-law Shivani Singh, who became the complainant in the case and assaulted her partner Mahesh Shukla with baseball bats. Shukla, a real estate agent, was then dragged out of the house and taken away in a vehicle. Three friends of the brothers also joined in the abduction and then strangled Shukla, thus causing his death. They had removed all documents from Shukla's pockets so that he was not identified and thereafter, threw his body in the bushes. The body was identified by Shukla's brother after the police took him to identify it.

Additional Sessions Judge L S Chavan sentenced the five - Jayesh Singh, Ajay

Singh, Vishal Solanki, Jignesh Nandvan and Rajkumar Yadav - to rigorous life term for the murder. The court also sentenced them for the offence of kidnap-

21 witnesses, including 4 eyewitnesses - Singh, her daughter who was present at home, and 2 others from the vicinity - testified

ing and disappearance of evidence. Judge Chavan also imposed a fine on them, which it directed to be given to the family of the victim. Prosecutor Keshav Salunkhe said the prosecution examined a total of 21 witnesses of which four are eyewitnesses. Singh, her daughter who was present at home during the assault and two other persons from the vicinity were the four eyewitnesses who testified.

Shivani, a widow and mother of three, had come in contact with Shukla while she was looking for a home. Her husband had passed away around six months before the incident and the brothers were opposed to her relationship with Shukla.

Found 100 open manholes in Mumbai, says AAP

AGENCIES / Mumbai

The Aam Aadmi Party on Monday said it had found 100 open manholes in nine administrative wards of Mumbai and asked the BMC to cover them within a week.

The party, in a press release, said the BMC was creating "death traps" for Mumbaikars and asked if it would act only after some incident related to these manholes turns fatal. Incidentally, in 2017, a noted doctor, Deepak Amrapurkar, had lost his life after falling into an open manhole during flooding, and his body was found two days later. Two children had died after falling into manholes in Chembur and Dharavi, while two women were lucky as they escaped unhurt after falling into a manhole in Bhandup, the AAP release said. "It is shameful that every year the BMC refuses to do its duty and fix open manholes. This has now become an annual tragedy where someone or the other ends up falling into manholes and many times losing their lives," said Dwijendra Tiwari, working president of AAP Mumbai.
