15. Internal Risk Factors

- Our pharmaceuticals business is subject to extensive regulation and customer quality audits. If we fail to comply with the applicable regulations prescribed by governments and regulatory agencies, or fail to clear the customer audits, our business, results of operations and financial condition could be adversely affected.
- We are dependent on our key customers and our key products
- (iii) Any delay in production at, or shutdown of, any of our manufacturing facilities or any of the third-party manufacturing facilities we use, could adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition.
- (iv) We are subject to range of safety, health and environment related legislations.
- Our success depends on our ability to retain and attract key qualified personnel and operational staff and if we are not able to retain them or recruit additional qualified personnel, we may be unable to successfully develop our business

(vi) We face the threat of fraud and cyber-attacks, such as hacking, phishing, trojans and advanced persistency threats, attempting to exploit our network to disrupt services to customers and/or theft of sensitive internal data or customer information. This may cause damage to our reputation and adversely impact our business and financial results.

(vii) Difficulties in integration of any businesses in our recent or any future acquisitions could result in operating difficulties and adversely affect our business, results of operations and financial condition

For further information on the risks applicable to us, please refer to the section titled "Risk Factors" on page 17 of the Information Memorandum.

16. Outstanding litigations and defaults of the Company, Promoters, Directors or any of the Group Companies

Except as stated in the Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments section of the Information Memorandum beginning on page 343, there is no outstanding (i) criminal proceeding; (ii) action taken by regulatory or statutory authorities; (iii) claim related to direct and indirect taxes (in a consolidated manner); and (iv) other material civil litigation pertaining to the business of the Company whose outcome could have a material adverse effect on the position of our Company, in each case involving our Company, its Promoter and Directors. Further, except as stated in the Outstanding Litigation and Material Developments section of the Information Memorandum beginning on page 343, there are no disciplinary actions including penalties imposed by SEBI or the Stock Exchanges against our Promoter in the last five financial years including any outstanding action.

All outstanding litigation, including any litigation involving our Company, its Promoter and Directors, other than criminal proceedings, actions by regulatory authorities and statutory authorities, disciplinary action including penalty imposed by SEBI or stock exchanges against the Promoter in the last five financial years including any outstanding action and tax matters (direct or indirect), would be considered 'material' if: (i) the monetary amount of claim by or against the entity or person in any such pending proceeding is in excess of ₹ 655.91 Crores, which is 10% of the consolidated revenue of the Company in accordance with the Code for Fair Disclosure of Information and Determination of Materiality policy adopted by the Company; or (ii) where monetary liability is not quantifiable, however, the outcome of any such pending proceedings may have a material bearing on the business, operations, performance, prospects or reputation of the Company.

Based on the above materiality policy, as on the date of the Information Memorandum, the Company, its Subsidiaries, its Promoters, its Group Entities and its Directors are involved in the
