- 2.5 All the requests/queries received shall be documented and as far as practicable, the Chief Investor Relations Officer shall request for such queries/request in writing, including by email.

3. Disclosure / Dissemination of price sensitive information to analysts, Institutional Investors etc.

3.1 Sharing of Public Information:

- a) The Directors and Chief Investor Relations Officer of the Company shall provide only public information to the analysts / research personnel / large investors like financial institutions, private equity etc.
- b) In case non-public information is proposed to be provided, the Director or the Chief Investor Relation Officer shall consult the Chairman / Managing Director(s) in advance. The Chief Investor Relations Officer having consultation with the Chairman / Managing Director(s) in such cases, shall ensure that the information provided to the analysts/ institutional investors as above is made public simultaneously with such disclosure.

3.2 Manner of handling queries from analysts and institutional investors

- a) The Company shall take extreme care and caution when dealing with analysts' queries and issues outside the intended scope of discussion.
- b) Chairman / Managing Director(s) / Chief Investor Relations Officer should handle the unanticipated questions carefully. The unanticipated questions may be noted and considered response may be given later on in consultation with the Board / Chairman / Committee of Directors, as the case may be. If answer to any question requires dissemination of Price Sensitive Information, the Chairman / Managing Director(s) / Chief Investor Relations Officer shall ensure that the same shall be disseminated to the Stock Exchanges and uploaded at the website of the Company to make it generally available, before responding to the questions raised by the analysts, research personnel etc.

3.3 Recording of discussions

All meetings of the analysts, brokers or Institutional Investors may be attended by at least one or two company representatives along with the Chief Investor Relations Officer. The Chief Investor Relations Officer, in order to avoid misquoting or misrepresentation, shall arrange for recording the discussions at the meeting.

3.4 Simultaneous release of information

- a) Whenever the Company proposes to organize meetings with investment analysts / institutional investors, the Company shall make a press release or post relevant information on its website after every such meeting.
- b) The Chief Investor Relations Officer, in consultation with the Chairman / Managing Director(s), shall draft the press release or the text of the information to be posted on the Company's website.

4. Medium of disclosure / dissemination of unpublished price sensitive information:

- a) The Company shall disseminate all unpublished price sensitive information promptly and on a continuous basis to stock exchanges where its securities are listed and thereafter to the electronic or print media so as to make such information generally available.
- b) The unpublished price sensitive information disclosed to the Stock Exchanges and to the press media may also be supplemented by prompt updates on the Company's website.

5. Process for Public Disclosure

- 5.1 The Company shall comply with all applicable laws and regulations regarding the timely disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information and changes. In order to decide that information is price sensitive or not, the guidance to be taken from SEBI (Prohibition of Insider Trading) Regulations, 2015 as amended on December 31, 2018 read with Regulation 30 of the SEBI (Listing Obligations and Disclosure Requirements) Regulations, 2015 and the same must be discussed with the respective head of department/division and thereafter with the Chairman / Managing Director(s) of the Company. Once a decision is made that information is price sensitive, the Company will immediately initiate a process to ensure full, true, plain and timely disclosure of that information, in compliance with applicable SEBI laws, Insider Trading Regulations and Listing Agreement which require prompt disclosure, and broad dissemination to the public in a manner that is both accurate and complete.

- 5.2 The principal method of publicly disclosing unpublished price sensitive information will be through stock exchanges followed by simultaneous press release to media and updation in the company's website.
- 5.3 When a decision has been made that a piece of information is price sensitive and would have to be disclosed, the following process may be followed:
- The draft news release will be prepared by Chief Investor Relations Officer in consultation with any one of the following, namely, Chairman / Managing Director(s), to ensure it is in compliance with applicable laws / regulations.
 - The Chief Financial Officer will be responsible to review and validate all financial data contained in news releases and will ensure that disclosures are consistent with prevailing accounting standards and guidelines.
 - The Chief Investor Relations Officer shall ensure that the disseminated news release is promptly uploaded Company's website.

6. Sharing of Unpublished Price Sensitive Information on need to know basis

Price Sensitive Information must be handled on a 'need to know' basis. Such information should be disclosed only to those within the Company who need the information to discharge their duty and whose possession of such information will not give rise to a conflict of interest or appearance of misuse of information.

7. * Structured Digital Database

The Chief Investor Relations Officer shall ensure that a Structured Digital Database is maintained containing the nature of unpublished price sensitive information and the names of such persons who have shared the information and also the names of such persons with whom information is shared under the regulation along with the Permanent Account Number or any other identifier authorized by law where Permanent Account Number is not available. Such database shall not be outsourced and shall be maintained internally with adequate internal controls and checks such as time stamping and audit trails to ensure non-tampering of the database. The Structured Digital Database shall be preserved for a period of not less than eight years after completion of the relevant transactions and in the event of receipt of any information from the Board regarding any investigation or enforcement proceedings, the relevant information in the structured digital database shall be preserved till the completion of such proceedings.

8. Need to Know Principle

- 8.1 The Chief Investor Relations Officer may delay / withhold disclosure of unpublished price sensitive information where such disclosure would be detrimental to the interest of the Company. Such decision to delay / withhold disclosure of such information shall be arrived after consultation with the Chairman / Managing Director(s) and justified by an assessment that it is necessary to do so in the interests of the business and such non-disclosure will outweigh the general benefit to the market. In such cases, Company may withhold public disclosure and shall ensure the information remains confidential.
- 8.2 Procedures to be adhered by persons / analysts / institutional investors seeking information / meeting with the company
- Request for meeting / seeking price sensitive information must be in writing.
 - Purpose of obtaining information must be disclosed.
 - Declaration must be given that information shall be used for legitimate purposes, cannot be given to anyone except to discharge legal obligation and it is essential for discharge of his duties.
 - The company may stipulate such conditions as may be deemed fit to comply with the laws / regulations.

8.3 Procedures to be adhered by the Chief Investor Relations Officer / Company while providing information

The Chief Investor Relations officer shall:

- a) Ensure that request for information is received from the official email id or under the signature of the person requesting the meeting / seeking the price sensitive information.
- b) Ensure that he is assigned for the purpose for which he is seeking such information by discussing with him or his senior;
- c) Provide confidential information preferably in hard copy or password protected file.
