Ghaziabad, Noida record 'severe' air 6th day in a row since Diwali

Ghaziabad, Greater Noida and Noida recorded 'severe' Air Quality Index (AQI) readings of 451, 412 and 426, respectively, according to the Central Pollution Control Board (CPCB). Both Ghaziabad and Noida have been recording "severe" air for six days since November 4, the day of the Diwali festival. An AQI reading between 0 and 50 is considered "good"; 51 and 100 "satisfactory"; 101 and 200 "moderate"; 201 and 300 "poor"; 301 and 400 "very poor"; and 401 and 500 "severe". The wind speed has failed to pick up, which is causing lesser dispersal of pollutants. Further, the northwesterly winds coming from the Rajasthan side are also bringing in dust," Utsav Sharma, the regional officer of Uttar Pradesh Pollution Control Board (UPPCB), said. According to the System of Air Quality and Weather Forecasting and Research (Safar), winds from the northwest have slowed down but are favourable for the transport of stable-related pollutants towards Delhi.

"Today's share of crop residue burning is 27% in PM2.5 [which is the primary pollutant in this region]. AQI is likely to improve further but remain in 'very poor' category due to partially cloudy conditions and shallow mixing layer height," the Safar forecast said on Tuesday. Meanwhile, on Monday, a sub-committee of the Commission for Air Quality Management (CAQM) in the NCR and adjoining areas issued an order to limit city Civil Court on the "severe" air pollution in the region. The steps include an increase in the frequency of road sweeping and identification of road patches with high dust-generation; closure of all brick kilns, hot-mix plants and stone crushers in Delhi-NCR. It also gave directions to intensify public transport services, while introducing differential rates (different rates for the same
