DIGITAL SERVICES TAX

India believes US has no ground for retaliation

With results of US probe expected soon, officials say any counter action will be a breach of multilateral trade norms'

AMITI SEN
New Delhi, November 20
The US may soon come up with the result of its investigation against India, Austria and some others for considering or imposing digital services tax on non-resident internet companies such as Facebook and Google, but India believes any retaliatory action by Washington would be in violation of World Trade Organisation (WTO) rules.
"There is no official intimation, but there is some indication that the US may come out with the findings of the Section 301 investigations initiated against India and some others for digital services taxes on non-resident e-commerce that may affect American companies. India has already clarified that its taxes are not against WTO rules and if trade action is taken by the US, it would be in violation of multilateral trade norms," an official keeping track of the matter told BusinessLine.

The US Trade Representative (USTR) office had started investigations against India, Austria, Italy, the EU, Brazil, the Czech Republic, Indonesia, Spain, Turkey, and the United Kingdom, in June 2020 for taxing non-resident e-commerce companies or imposing digital services taxes on them. India was included in the countries being investigated as it had announced a two per cent tax, called an equalisation levy, on all non-resident e-commerce companies that sell more than ₹2 crore

What is Section 301 all about?

- Section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974 provides the US with the authority to enforce trade agreements, resolve trade disputes, and open foreign markets to US goods and services
- Under the Section, the US may impose trade sanctions on foreign countries that either violate trade agreements or engage in other unfair trade practices
- When negotiations to remove the offending trade practice fail, the US may take action to raise import duties on the foreign country's products as means to rebalance lost concessions

Source: International Trade Administration (ITA), US Department of Commerce

($267,000) of in-scope goods or services to Indian customers in the Union Budget for 2020-21. The investigations were authorised by Washington under Section 301 of the Trade Act of 1974 (of the US), which empowers the President to levy tariffs and other import restrictions whenever a foreign country imposes unfair trade practices that affect US commerce.
"Now that the results of the Section 301 investigations may be finalised, there are some chances that the US may announce retaliatory duties as it did in the case of France last year. But India is very clear about the fact that the tariffs on non-resident companies announced in the Union Budget are very much in line with India's commitments at the WTO," the official said.

'US concerns unfounded'
India had earlier explained that the US concerns were unfounded as the idea behind India's equalisation levy was not to be unfair to foreign companies but to ensure that neutral and equitable taxation is applicable to e-commerce operators that are resident in India or have a physical presence in India and those that are not resident in India.

Some trade experts further explain that since India has not taken on commitments to provide national treatment to foreign internet companies under GATS (the services agreement of the WTO), it need not worry about any violations. If the US threatens India and the other countries with retaliatory tariffs on imports in reaction to the digital services tax, then the affected countries can apply more tariffs on American products as a counter-retaliation because the US action would not be justified, the official explained.

Government mulls advancing 20% ethanol blending target

May also tap rice lying with FCI and maize from surplus States

Domestic sugar demand is around 260 lakh tonnes

OUR BUREAU
New Delhi, November 20
The Centre, which is trying to create an additional 468-crore litre ethanol capacities through loans for setting up distilleries, may advance the deadline for blending 20 per cent biofuel in petrol from the earlier announced 2030.
"The government had earlier fixed a target of 10 per cent ethanol blending by 2022 and 20 per cent by 2030 but now the government is preparing a plan to prepone achievement of 20 per cent target," an official release said on Friday.
Apart from sugarcane, the government also plans to use surplus rice lying with Food Corporation of India and maize in States where maize production is in surplus for producing ethanol from coming ethanol supply year (November to December).

The government has earlier in principle approved loans worth ₹12,500-crore for setting up distilleries for producing 468-crore litres per annum. "Already loans worth ₹3,600-crore sanctioned for setting 70 ethanol projects in the last two years," the release said.

'Helping sugar mills'
This would also help sugar mills - which are producing on an average 320 lakh tonnes (lt) of sugar annually - convert excess sugarcane or sugar for producing ethanol. As the domestic sugar demand is around 260 lt, currently the government is supporting the mills to export the sweeter by extending financial assistance.
However, as per the WTO conditions, India will not be able to extend financial help for marketing and transport beyond 2023. The excess 60 lt sugar that remains unsold, blocks funds of sugar mills to the tune of ₹19,000-crore annually, affecting their liquidity position resulting in accumulation of cane price arrears of farmers, it said.

40% of dedicated freight corridor to get on track by March

Rest of network to be ready by 2022

OUR BUREAU
New Delhi, November 20
By March next year, 40 per cent of the ongoing dedicated rail freight corridor will be operationalised, paving way for trains to carry cargo speedily between the regions connected by the special cargo corridor.

The dedicated freight corridor is one of the largest rail infra projects undertaken by the Centre at an overall cost of ₹81,459-cr

The move will also take the load off the existing railway network, clearing the way for faster passenger trains. Specifically, the congestion of passenger trains on the Mughalsarai-Delhi section will be eased.
On Friday, a trial run was done on the Bhadran-Khurja section. This stretch was constructed by the joint venture of Tata Projects and Alstom (system work or signalling). "This financial year 2020-21, a 1,100-km route comprising Khurja-Bhaupur (359 km), Palanpur-Rewari (641 km) and Ganjkhawja-Chiralapathu (100 km) will be operationalised," said RN Singh, MD, Dedicated Freight Corridor Corporation of India Limited (DFCCIL), the special purpose vehicle of Indian Railways implementing the project. "The remaining route of 1,700 km will be completed by June 2022," added a press statement.

Roll-on, roll-off services
The dedicated freight corridor (DFC) is one of the largest rail infrastructure projects undertaken by the Government of India, with an overall cost of ₹81,459 crore. It comprises the Western DFC with a length of 1,504 km from JN Port (Mumbai) to Dadri; and the Eastern DFC of 1,856 km from Sahnewal near Ludhiana to Dankuni in West Bengal.

"On the Western DFC, roll-on roll-off services - allowing vehicles to be transported atop rail wagons - are expected," a DFCCIL official told BusinessLine.

Trial runs
On the Western corridor, over 600 trial runs of trains have been done till date, including double-stack container trains, according to the statement. DFCCIL will allow heavier, longer freight trains to ply faster on its network, effectively increasing the rail share of cargo movement and lowering the cost of logistics.

Auto LPG industry demands level playing field as air pollution looms

PRESS TRUST OF INDIA
New Delhi, November 20
Despite being one of the cleanest and most easily accessible alternative fuels, Auto LPG remains heavily under-utilised in India because of "almost penalising" policies towards clean fuels and lack of a positive messaging by the government, said the Indian Auto LPG Coalition on Friday.
As poor air quality takes the centrestage in the capital again, the Auto LPG sector is urging the government to provide a level playing field in the interest of the environment, it said.
Suyash Gupta, Director General of Indian Auto LPG Coalition, underscored the need to widen the policy focus beyond EVs and give all available alternative fuels a level playing field in the market. "Firstly, the government must stop penalising people who use cleaner fuels like LPG and CNG. Secondly, it must correct its messaging that lays excessive focus on EVs and encourage OEMs to bring out Auto LPG variants," he said.

Govt to reuse VIN platform for last-mile delivery of vaccine

'COVIN' network to ensure stocks are digitally tracked

OUR BUREAU
New Delhi, November 20
Health Minister Harsh Vardhan on Friday said the government is re-purposing the electronic Vaccine Intelligence Network (eVIN) platform as COVIN network to ensure last-mile delivery of Covid vaccine, which he said would be available on time.
"The entire eVIN platform is being repurposed as COVIN Network. All movement of stock can be digitally tracked, and those receiving vaccines can also be traced after two to three weeks if the vaccine requires two shots. This will ensure last-mile vaccine delivery," he said while addressing a CII meeting virtually.
Cold chain facility
Vardhan said the government has already ramped up its immunisation capability with an elaborate cold storage chain for immunising children from 12 diseases under Mission Indradhanush.

Complementing India healthcare industry, the Minister said it "is one of India's largest sector in terms of revenue and provision of employment, and with its market projected to increase three-fold to ₹8.6 trillion by 2022, it is necessary that steps be taken that will allow stakeholders to converge within the industry."
"The need to provide healthcare, which is accessible and affordable, now more than ever, becomes a necessity especially due to the effects that Covid-19 has had on our entire system," he said.

'PPP model can ensure access to Covid-19 vaccine'

OUR BUREAU

New Delhi, November 20
A public private partnership (PPP) model is needed to make Covid-19 vaccines available for all as it can't be left either to the public sector or private enterprises to ensure healthcare for 1.3 billion citizens of the country, said Commerce & Industry Minister, Piyush Goyal.
Availability of vaccines at affordable prices for all, including less developed countries and poor in all parts of the world, will be a collective responsibility, said the Minister at the valedictory session of Asia Health 2020 organised by industry body CII on Friday.
The common attempt to find a vaccine and the democratic distribution of the vaccine to make it available in all parts of the country has brought all of humanity together, said Goyal.
Building immunity
Goyal stressed on the role that traditional medicines can play to boost immunity.
He said that traditional medicines could help other countries too and ensure everyone builds immunity against diseases.

The pandemic allowed India to repurpose its industry to make personal protective equipment (PPEs), ventilators and brought together all the sectors for the delivery of healthcare and progressively move towards 'Aatma Nirbhar', said Naresh Trehan, Chairman, CII National Council on Healthcare.
India is not only meeting the demands for domestic consumption, but also exporting to 235 countries.
India will become a manufacturing hub and deliverer of the best quality of healthcare at affordable costs, he added.

"Release of the source code of the Aarogya Setu App is a step in the direction of reaffirming the commitment of the government to complete transparency," MeitY added.

ISED suggests 'decentralised smart manufacturing' for auto ancillaries

OUR BUREAU
Kochi, November 20
Against the Covid-induced challenges in the automobile sector, the Institute of Small Enterprises and Development (ISED) has recommended a strategy of "decentralised smart manufacturing".
Such a strategy is likely to protect the interests of both small and big firms alike, and the sector as a whole can be developed as an engine of growth, according to the India Micro, Small and Medium Enterprise Report 2020 (MSMER 2020), brought out by the ISED Small Enterprise Observatory (ISED-SEO).
PLI scheme benefit
'Smart manufacturing' is a broad category, employing computer-integrated production, high levels of adaptability and rapid design changes, digital information technology, and more flexible training of technical workforce.

The Centre has taken some major steps on the automobile sector under 'Make in India'. The recent decision to promote the country as a manufacturing hub for automobiles and related components through a PLI scheme with an outlay of ₹57,000 crore is likely to translate into more investments from existing domestic and foreign manufacturers. However, the automobile sector needs indigenisation with a strategic re-orientation, where, deep localisation has a potential role to play, the report said.

Licence to lend: Big business houses may soon promote banks

The changes come against the backdrop of putting the Indian economy on the path of fast growth which would not be possible without strong credit institutions. However, experts caution the liberal norms need to be accompanied with changes that ensure stricter supervision and oversight of the banking system.

For business groups to set up banks the Banking Regulation Act, 1949, needs to be amended. The objective would be to "prevent connected lending and exposures between the banks and other financial and non-financial group entities" and to strengthen the supervisory mechanism for large conglomerates, including consolidated supervision.

While acknowledging the risks posed by corporate ownership of banks, the IWG believes such entities can be an important source of capital and can bring in their experience, management expertise and strategic direction to banking. "It is also a fact that many of such corporate/industrial houses have been successfully operating in other financial segments," the panel noted. It added that internationally, there are very few jurisdictions which explicitly disallow large corporate houses, and even in these jurisdictions, it is not a settled issue.

The group recommends a higher minimum initial capital for licensing new banks of ₹1,000 crore from ₹500 crore for universal banks and of ₹300 crore from ₹200 crore for SFBs. It also feels the non-operative financial holding company (NOFHC) should continue to be the preferred structure for all new universal bank licences and mandatory only in cases where the individual promoters/promoting entities/converting entities have other group entities.

While banks licensed before 2013 may move to an NOFHC structure at their discretion, once the NOFHC structure attains a tax-neutral status, all banks licensed before 2013 shall move to the NOFHC structure within five years from announcement of tax-neutrality.

Till the NOFHC structure is made feasible and operational, the concerns with regard to banks undertaking different activities through subsidiaries/joint ventures/associates need to be addressed through suitable regulations, the group said. Banks currently under NOFHC structure may be allowed to exit from such a structure if they do not have other group entities in their fold.

The panel makes a case for ensuring harmonisation and uniformity in different licences ing guidelines. "Whenever new licensing guidelines are issued, if new rules are more relaxed, benefit should be given to existing banks, and if new rules are tougher, legacy banks should also conform to new tighter regulations, but a non-disruptive transition path may be provided to affected banks," it said.

The IWG was chaired by RBI central board director PK Mohanty; members were Sachin Chaturvedi, also central board director, Lily Vadera and SC Murmu, both EDs at the central bank, and CGM Shrimohan Yadav was the convenor. The report has been placed on the RBI website for comments from stakeholders and members of the public. Comments on the report may be submitted by January 15, 2021.

The offer comprised issuance of fresh shares worth up to ₹1,250 crore and an offer-for-sale (OFS) of up to 3,48,63,635 shares.

The OFS consists of sale of up to 1,93,68,686 shares by Fosun Pharma Industrial, 1,00,47,435 shares by Gland Celsius Bio Chemicals, 35,73,014 shares by Empower Discretionary Trust and 18,74,500 shares by Nilay Discretionary Trust.

Gland Pharma raised ₹1,944 crore from anchor investors by selling shares at ₹1,500 apiece. Government of Singapore, Nomura, Goldman Sachs, Morgan Stanley, SBI Mutual Fund, Axis Mutual Fund, SBI Life Insurance Company and Fidelity were among the anchor investors.

Facebook User data: US, India top govt request tally in H1

Germany, France and the UK followed the US and India in the tally.

Facebook said it responds to government requests for data in accordance with applicable law and its terms of service. Each and every request it receives is carefully reviewed for legal sufficiency and it may reject or require greater specificity on requests that appear overly broad or vague.

"We do not provide governments with direct access or 'back doors' to people's information. We believe that intentionally weakening our services in this way would undermine the security necessary to protect our users," Facebook VP and deputy general counsel Chris Sonderby said.

During the period under review, the volume of content restrictions based on local law increased 40% from 1.5,826 to 22,120 globally. The increase was in part related to Covid-19-related restrictions, Facebook said.

India saw 824 pieces of content being restricted in the same period.

The report noted that in January-June 2020, the company identified 52 disruptions of Facebook services in nine countries, compared to 45 disruptions in six countries in the second half of 2019.

Also, it took down 3,716,817 pieces of content based on 659,444 copyright reports; 404,078 pieces of content based on 166,310 trademark reports; and 1,308,834 pieces of content based on 97,186 counterfeit reports in the first half of 2020.

"Advances in our technology including updates to Rights Manager attributed to increases across content removals," Sonderby said.

EU could pay over $10 bn for CureVac, Pfizer Covid vaccines

The EU has separately agreed to pay 10 euros ($11.84) per dose for an initial supply of 225 million doses of the vaccine candidate from CureVac, a discount from the 12 euros the company set as the price for the shot, the official said.

The bloc struck the deal with CureVac this week to secure the supply of up to 405 million doses, of which 180 million are optional.

The official said CureVac had committed to starting deliveries by the end of March. It is unclear whether the additional 180 million doses would cost 10 or 12 euros each. Under the 10-euro price, though, the bloc would pay 4.05 billion euros for 405 million doses.

A spokesman for the European Commission, the bloc's executive body, declined to comment on terms and pricing of vaccine contracts because they are confidential.

Germany's BioNTech and CureVac declined to comment. US drugmaker Pfizer said it and BioNTech were using a tiered pricing formula based on volume and delivery dates and that the EU deal represented the largest initial order of its vaccine candidate to date.

"We are not disclosing further details of this agreement," it added.

Pfizer and BioNTech said on Wednesday that final data showed their shot was 95% effective against Covid-19, and that they could start distributing shots before Christmas should they secure emergency authorisations.

In July, the US government agreed with Pfizer to pay $19.5 per dose for 100 million, with an option to buy a further 500 million under terms to be negotiated separately.

The lower price partly reflects the financial support given by the European Union to BioNTech for the drug's development, a second EU official told Reuters last week.

Both the Pfizer-BioNTech and CureVac candidates are based on new messenger RNA (mRNA) technology and designed to be administered in two doses. That means, for the EU's Pfizer shot, it would cost 31 euros to inoculate one person.

To secure the supply of the Pfizer-BioNTech vaccine, the EU has made a non-refundable
