YOSHITA SINGH New York, January 28

PRESIDENT JOE BIDEN'S nominee for ambassador to the United Nations, Linda Thomas-Greenfield has described China as a "strategic adversary" and a "threat" to its neighbours, asserting that her highest priority will be to push against Chinese influence in the Security Council. The relations between the US and China are at an all-time low. The two countries are currently engaged in a bitter confrontation over various issues, including trade, the origins of the novel coronavirus pandemic, the communist giant's aggressive military moves in the disputed South China Sea and human rights.

At the United Nations, Chinese are "undermining our values...undermining our security", Thomas-Greenfield testified at her confirmation hearing held by the Senate Foreign Relations Committee on Wednesday which was heavily dominated by questions from lawmakers on China.

She said that she will be working aggressively against "Chinese malign efforts in New York."

Linda Thomas-Greenfield

"China is a strategic adversary and their actions threaten our security, they threaten our values and they threaten our way of life. They are a threat to their neighbours and they are a threat across the globe. I have no doubts in my mind about that,"Thomas-Greenfield said.

China is engaged in hotly contested territorial disputes in the South China Sea with several countries. Beijing claims sovereignty over all of the South China Sea. Vietnam, Malaysia, the Philippines, Brunei and Taiwan have counter claims. China has built up and militarised many of the islands and reefs it controls in the region which is rich in minerals, oil and other natural resources and also vital to global trade.

China and India are also

When asked that America is still dealing with the same litany of challenges with China, such as intellectual property, technology transfer, human rights abuses, as during the Obama administration, she said fighting against China was a high priority of the Obama administration.

"The pivot to Asia was about addressing the situation with China. But how China is behaving now is very, very different than that period and they have become more aggressive."

She vowed to work with the Foreign Relations Committee to counter China at the UN, to fight against all efforts by the Chinese government to add "harmful language" to UN resolutions and to resist Beijing's efforts to overfill key UN positions with Chinese citizens, adding that she hopes to use her "very strong relationship" across the African continent to push back on China's "self-interested and parasitic development goals in Africa and will urge those leaders to support American values at the United Nations."

When asked by Senator Ron Johnson, Republican from Wisconsin, on what kind of stronger language and tougher tactics will the Biden administration bring to deal with China, she said, "the tougher language will be calling the Chinese out whenever we see them crossing lines, particularly as it relates to CHINATOUGHENED ITS language towards Taiwan on Thursday, warning after recent stepped up military activities near the island that "independence means war" and that its armed forces were acting in response to provocation and foreign interference.

Taiwan, claimed by China as its own territory, reported multiple Chinese fighter jets and bombers entering its southwestern air defence identification zone last weekend, prompting Washington to urge Beijing to stop pressuring Taiwan. China believes that Taiwan's democratically-elected government is moving the island towards a declaration of formal independence, though Taiwan President Tsai Ing-wen has repeatedly said it is already an independent country called the Republic of China, its formal name.

Asked at a monthly news

briefing about the air force's

rable part of China. "The military activities carried out by the Chinese People's Liberation Army in the Taiwan Strait are necessary actions to address the current security situation in the Taiwan Strait and to safeguard national sovereignty and secu-recent activities, Chinese deforces," he added.

Wu said a "handful" of people in Taiwan were seeking the island's independence.

"We warn those Taiwan independence' elements: those who play with fire will burn themselves, and 'Taiwan independence' means war," he added.

While China has never renounced the use of force to bring Taiwan under its control, it is unusual for Beijing to make such overt, verbal threats of conflict.

Taiwan's Mainland Affairs Council said China should think carefully and not underestimate the island's determination to defend its sovereignty and uphold freedom and democracy.

Taiwan's defence ministry reported six Chinese air force aircraft, including four J-10 fighter jets, flew into its air defence zone on Thursday, close to the Taiwan-controlled Pratas Islands at the top end of the South China Sea.

ASSOCIATED PRESS Moscow, January 28

A RUSSIAN COURT on Thursday rejected opposition leader Alexei Navalny's appeal against his arrest while authorities detained several of his allies and issued warnings to social media companies after tens of thousands swarmed the streets in over 100 Russian cities last weekend demanding his release.

Speaking to court via video link from jail, Navalny denounced criminal proceedings against him as part of the government's efforts to intimidate the opposition. "You won't succeed in scaring tens of millions of people who have been robbed by that government," he said.

The 44-year-old Navalny, the most well-known critic of President Vladimir Putin's government, was arrested January 17 upon his return from Germany, where he spent five months recovering from nerve-agent poisoning that he blames on the Kremlin. Russian authorities have rejected the accusations.

Navalny was jailed for 30 days on request by Russia's penitentiary service, which charged that he had violated probation terms from a suspended sentence on a 2014 money-laundering conviction, which he rejected as politically driven. He now also faces accusations in two separate criminal probes.

The Moscow Region Court on Thursday rejected his appeal against the arrest.

During the court hearing, Navalny's defense argued that he was undergoing rehabilitation in Germany and was unable to register with authorities as required by probation terms during the period. His lawyers also contested his arrest, charging that due process was repeatedly violated.

In his remarks during the hearing, Navalny denounced his jailing during a court hearing quickly staged at a police station as a mockery of justice.

"It was demonstrative lawlessness intended to scare me and all others," he said.

In an apparent effort to thwart the next wave of rallies set for Sunday, police on Wednesday searched Navalny's apartment, a rented accomodation where Navalny's wife, Yulia, has been living and residences of several of his associates and supporters.

Navalny's brother Oleg, his top ally Lyubov Sobol, Anastasia Vasilyeva from the Navalnybacked Alliance of Doctors and

The financial statements for the quarter ended December 31, 2020 have been reviewed by the Audit Committee and approved by the Board of Directors at its meeting held on January 28, 2021. The statutory auditors have expressed an unqualified opinion. The financial statements are prepared in accordance wit Indian Accounting Standards (Ind AS) as prescribed under section 133 of the companies Act, 2013 read with relevant rules issued thereunder.

Segments have been identified in line with the Indian Accounting Standard - 108 "Operating Segment" specified under section 133 of the com-2013 read with rules framed thereunder World Health Organisation (WHO) declared outbreak of Coronavirus Disease (COVID-19) a global pandemic on March 11, 2020. Consequent to this Government of India declared lockdown on March 24, 2020 which has impacted the business activities of the Company. Consequent to this, upon restrictions being eased, the production has commenced at all plants after obtaining approvals from local authorities and consequently the sale of goods has commenced. The decrease in results is primarily due to restriction of business activities caused due to COVID-19 pandemic during the current quarter. Figures of previous periods/years' have been regrouped / rearranged, wherever considered necessary.
