ANNEXURE

SR.NO.	NAME(S) OF THE OPPOSING PARTY, COURT / TRIBUNAL / AGENCY WHERE LITIGATION IS FILED	BRIEF DETAILS OF DISPUTE / LITIGATION	EXPECTED FINANCIAL IMPLICATIONS, IF ANY, DUE TO COMPENSATION, PENALTY ETC.	QUANTUM OF CLAIMS, IF ANY
Adani Power Limited (APL)
1.	i. Maharashtra State Electricity Distribution Company Ltd. ("MSEDCL") ii. Rajasthan Urja Vikas Nigam Ltd. ("RUVNL")	The Company has disputed the arbitrary, retrospective amendments made by Central Electricity Regulatory Commission (CERC) in relation to domestic coal escalation rates. The said amendments have been stayed by Hon. Delhi High Court.	In case the notification dated 08-02-2017 is held to be valid, the recoverable amount from Discoms is as under: i. RUVNL- Rs. 633 Crores (Apr-17 to Nov-20) ii. MSEDCL- Rs. 1091 Crores (Apr-17 to Nov-20)
2.	Maharashtra State Electricity Distribution Company Ltd. ("MSEDCL")	The Company has filed an appeal before Appellate Tribunal for Electricity (APTEL) against the order of Maharashtra Electricity Regulatory Commission (MERC), as MERC has deviated from implementing the direction of APTEL, with reference to operating parameters, which allowed payment of domestic coal shortfall compensation to the Company.	Receivable of Rs. 2,600 crores, in case the appeal is decided in favour of the Company.
3.	Maharashtra State Electricity Distribution Company Ltd. ("MSEDCL")	The Company has preferred an appeal before APTEL against an MERC order on matters relating to parameters, methodology and certain taxes and duties which were granted as a relief to	Receivable of more than Rs. 300 crores in case the appeal is decided in favour of the Company.

		the Company, in relation to a PPA with MSEDCL.
4.	Central Transmission Utility of India (CTUIL)	Erstwhile, Essar Power Mahan Limited, now known as Mahan Energen Limited (MEL), a subsidiary of the Company was acquired by the Company under IBC on 16th March 2022. MEL surrendered the long-term open access of 1200 MW. CERC vide its order dated 7-10-2019 levied the relinquishment charges of Rs.2632.54 Crs which was challenged in APTEL. In the meantime, MEL's lenders took the company to NCLT under the provision of IBC where CTUIL was one of the operational creditors. NCLT vide its order dated 1-11-2021, while approving the resolution plan, extinguished the claim of operational creditors including CTUIL. CTUIL has challenged the NCLT order before the National Company Law Appellate Tribunal, New Delhi and the same is pending for adjudication.	The Company acquired MEL through the CIRP process under the IBC, 2016 and in terms of the NCLT Order CTUIL claims for such relinquishment charges have been extinguished.
5.	Maharashtra State Electricity Distribution Company Ltd. ("MSEDCL")	MSEDCL has gone to APTEL, challenging an order of MERC, whereby MERC allowed inland transportation cost pertaining to coal supplied under Inter Plant Transfer (IPT), to the Company.	Impact is not ascertainable at this stage, since in the similar matter, Hon' Supreme Court decided that IPT scheme is an event of Change in Law and consequently the saving in railway transportation cost on coal supplied under IPT is to be refunded to power procurer i.e. Distribution Companies. The matter has been remanded back to CERC for quantification of such railway transport cost savings which is yet to be decided by CERC.

6.	Rajasthan Urja Vikas Nigam Ltd. ("RUVNL")	The Company has filed a miscellaneous application before the Hon'ble Supreme Court seeking clarification that the rate of late payment surcharge (LPS) payable by RUVNL should be as per the provisions of the PPA.	Recoverable of Rs. 689 Cr., as on June 2023, from RUVNL
7.	Rajasthan Urja Vikas Nigam Ltd. ("RUVNL")	The Company has filed an appeal before APTEL against an RERC order denying Company's claims towards capacity charges based on normative availability and refund of penalty for delayed payments of Monthly and Supplementary Bills by RUVNL, under the PPA.	Recoverable of Rs. 420 Crore from RUVNL
8.	(i) Union of India (ii) Central Board of Excise & Customs (iii) Development Commissioner, Mundra Special Economic Zone (iv) Specified Officer, Mundra Special Economic Zone (v) Principal Commissioner of Customs, Mundra	The Company has filed an appeal before Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, seeking continuation of exemption on imported electricity (in relation to supply of electricity from SEZ to DTA).	Recoverable of Rs. 538.98 Crore from Custom Authority
9.	Rajasthan Urja Vikas Nigam Ltd. ("RUVNL")	RUVNL has filed a petition before RERC seeking a refund of Rs.4,649 Crores from the Company, disputing computation methodology of compensation.	As the matter of compensation has attained finality vide Hon'ble Supreme Court's order dated 31.08.2020, the claim of RUVNL is not maintainable according to the Company. The petition before RERC has been heard and reserved for order on maintainability of this petition
