SC dismisses pleas by pvt tour companies to make Hajj, Umrah services GST exempt

The Supreme Court has dismissed a batch of petitions by private tour operators seeking exemption from GST for the Hajj and Umrah services offered by them to pilgrims.

New Delhi. The Supreme Court on Tuesday dismissed a batch of petitions by various private tour operators seeking exemption from GST for the Hajj and Umrah services offered by them to pilgrims travelling to Saudi Arabia. In its verdict, the bench headed by Justice AM Khanwilkar said these services are already eligible for the exemption granted to religious activities. The question of whether tax will be applicable on extra territorial activities as per Article 245 of the Constitution has not been decided, and has been kept open. "We have dismissed all petitions on both grounds of exemption and discrimination. Other issue is kept pending of extra territorial operation. That hasn't been decided," the bench said. The tour operators had challenged the levy of GST on Hajj pilgrims who avail themselves of services offered by registered private tour operators on the grounds that no tax law can be applicable on extra territorial activities per Article 245 of the Constitution. It is their argument that the services consumed outside India cannot be subjected to GST. They also argued that the levy is discriminatory as it exempts certain pilgrims who undertake the pilgrimage through the Hajj Committee of India.
