Q1 FY24 - Financial Highlights

Business Highlights

- Business performance for the Q1FY24 has been soft, owing to a gradual pickup from clients as a result of their destocking plan and uncertain global, political and economic situation. Despite this, long term demand for important acids and alkyl chlorides is expected to remain stable and may not have major adverse impact.
- Full stack demand will be difficult in these uncertain times, and business performance may vary over the next few quarters. Regular demand and restocking strategies, on the other hand, can swiftly revive demand. Chlorides are critical elements in a variety of end-user sectors, and overall demand is expected to be positive in the medium to long term.
- In terms of product development, the company is also working on a number of Non-Chlorination chemical items in order to widen its product portfolio. The company has a good pipeline of new products for future expansion and is considering appropriate options to accelerate growth. Capital allocation on new products will be done prudently depending upon its business potential in long run.
- Capital expenditure for the year is expected to be near Rs. 25-30 crores to replace few equipment, Infrastructure, EHS, R&D, energy saving, and other activities.
- Company is expanding its global presence and collaborating with new clients in Japan, South America and Turkey. We have received healthy enquiries from these regions and expect meaningful business in the coming years.

Capex

- The Capex for next two years will be based on the timing of the introduction of new products and any significant investment will be announced appropriately.
- It is proposed to replace an existing old plant with a new plant of about 70% higher capacity. This would help capture higher demand of the product in future. This will be a multi-product plant to ensure flexibility based on market conditions.

Logistic & Sourcing

- The cost of raw material and logistics have largely normalised. However, the uncertainty and volatility in global economic conditions continue. The Company has been actively managing the issues with good outcomes.

Business Volumes

- While the overall business, economic & political situation continues to have significant uncertainties at present, the Company does not expect any major change in demand structure of its products in the long run.

EBITDA

- Average expected EBITDA is about 16% to 20%. However, this can go beyond this range up or down as it is dependent on product mix (based on the demand), pricing and volumes. Also, it can vary from quarter to quarter due to product mix, raw material prices and numerator/denominator effect.
