SBM Bank India in association with its Business Correspondent Kaleidofin

Ahmedabad, SBM Bank (India) Limited in association with Kaleidofin Private Ltd., a fintech Business Correspondent, announced the launch of 'ki cashy', a fully digital product that combines low-cost full-service banking with quick disbursement of loans. The savings account will serve to accelerate digital adoption in the informal sector opened using Biometric based e-KYC authentication. The Savings account will offer free digital transactions; a free NACH setup, zero minimum balance and zero penalty on digital debit decline or mandate bounce. The Savings account comes with a Rupay Debit card with a built-in insurance cover of up to two lakhs. Our research revealed that customers in the informal segment are compelled to opt for no-frills bank account over full service bank accounts dissuaded by a slew of charges like SI set up charges, NACH mandate failure charges, failure to maintain minimum balance charges or SMS alert charges. The fear of such charges being debited led to the behaviour of instant withdrawal of any credits, including DEB credits, thus defeating the very purpose of saving. The digital app for ki cashy is available in many Indian languages. Similarly, instead of SMS alerts for transactions, customers can request for automated voice calls informing them of transactions that are not only available in their language, in many cases, they can even receive such calls in their own dialect allowing complete understanding of the transaction made. EX-IPS officer Vanzara launches 'Hindutva'-based political party ahead of Gujarat polls

AHMEDABAD: Former IPS officer DG Vanzara on Tuesday launched a political party based on 'Hindutva' ideology which will contest the next month's assembly elections in Gujarat. Vanzara, a former 'encounter specialist', was acquitted in the alleged fake encounter case of Sohrabuddin Shaikh and Suhram Pranjapati and discharged in the Ishrat Jahan alleged fake encounter case.

He said the people of Gujarat will have an alternative in the newly-formed 'Praja Vijay Party' (PVP) as Congress and AAP will be 'alternatives' to the ruling Bharatiya Janata Party (BJP) in the state. The PVP will contest all 182 seats in the two-phase polls scheduled on December 1 and 5, but it is not clear whether Vanzara will enter the poll fray. "People of Gujarat do not easily accept a non-Hindutva party. Only a Hindutva party can provide an alternative to the BJP. Today, I want the people of the state and the country to know that Praja Vijay Party is a Hindutva party," Vanzara told a press conference. He said had Congress been an alternative, there would not have been a single-party (BJP) rule in the state for the last 27 years. "Even the Aam Admi Party (AAP) cannot become an option for people in Gujarat who want an alternative to the BJP," Vanzara said. When asked whether he decided to float a new party because he was denied a ticket by the BJP, Vanzara said the question was of ideology. "I am not someone who will stand in a queue for a party ticket," he added.
