Energising Change. Empowering the Future.

The world is experiencing drastic effects of extreme climate change, pollution, and environment degradation. It is time nations and industries converge to build solutions that address these pressing challenges. India, the fifth largest car market in the world heavily relies on fuel imports. Today, as the automotive industry in the world is undergoing seismic shifts to switch to alternative options, India's policymakers are realising the importance of shared and electric mobility to significantly invest in the electric mobility shift.

At Gensol Engineering, we believe that the sun holds unfathomable power to feed millions of species on earth. It is time we channelise this power to build it as a massive source of economic growth and development. As the world begins to sit up and take notice of the understated power of renewables and technological advancements, we at Gensol are energising this change to empower the future.

Gensol's R&D centre will strive for technology development and start of production (SOP) in Pune, India. The company is also building a team of more than 150 automobile engineers and designers for this venture.

03 Key Business Drivers

Solar Business

The key factor driving growth in the solar power market in India is the increasing investments in renewable energy, spurred by the PM Modi's climate-motivated push at the recent COP26 summit in Geneva, which promises increasing India's non-fossil power capacity to 500 GW and meeting 50% of energy requirement from renewable sources by 2030. Piquantly, low carbon emissions from renewable sources and growing concerns regarding environmental protection is driving the adoption of renewable sources of energy, which has led to an increase in investments in renewable energy across the world.

Then again, the global energy mix has changed significantly over the past two decades. Improvement in energy efficiency and falling cost of renewable energy has played a vital role in balancing the energy supply and demand. According to an estimate, replacing coal plants with renewable sources is expected to save India 54000 cr (US$ 6.75 billion) annually due to reduced power costs, which again is stimulating investments in the solar energy sector.

Most importantly, India has an electricity-GDP elasticity ratio of 0.8, which means 0.8 % change in electricity consumption achieve 1% change in national GDP, which underlines the high impact of energy consumption over the country's growth. Thus, 7% growth in energy supply will be required if India is to grow at 8%, which is likely to serve as a springboard for the solar industry in India. This prognosis is buttressed by the fact that the Central Electricity Authority, India's apex power sector planning body, estimates India's power requirement to grow to reach 817 GW by 2030.

In FY21, India stood third globally in terms of renewable energy investments. On a global perspective, the increased focus on renewable energy sources is raising the investments in the country's solar energy sector, which will catapult India's solar sector to stratospheric levels of growth, and will shore up its dominance in the renewable energy space the world over.

EV Business

Indians buy over 3M cars every year and the number will reach 4M annually in the next few years. Small cars and hatchback constitute over 40% of all cars purchased with 80% cars sold under INR 12L. Currently, there is no electric car in the Indian market in that price range. A recent survey shows that the majority of new car buyers are interested in Electric cars. But current options in the market are overpriced. As per the recent NITI Aayog report, price parity is not expected till 2nd half of the decade. At Gensol, we have identified this gap in the market which has an estimated market size of 3000-4000 Crores annually. In the next 2 years, we plan to launch fully electric vehicles in the sub-compact and compact hatchback segment at aggressive prices to meet Indian car buyer market demands.

We will also enter the last mile delivery vehicle market with superior engineering and technological features competing with international OEMs. Globally, the logistics and last mile delivery markets have grown significantly with sudden acceleration in 2020 due to lock-downs and safety concerns. Compact electric vehicles are increasingly sought after by all logistic providers. Gensol's cargo vehicle offers an unmatched ease of access in low footprint design with one of the lowest cost per mile offering perfect for not just Indian but North American and European markets.

Dear Shareholders,

I trust you all are healthy, safe, and keeping well. It gives me immense pleasure to present our annual report and highlights of our performance, progress, challenges we have faced and path towards growing sustainably this year at Gensol Engineering. This report also represents a significant turning point in our ongoing efforts to give stakeholders thorough and honest information about the Company.

The world around us is rapidly changing. Economic uncertainty, volatile geopolitical challenges, rising crude oil and commodity prices and a critical call to action for climate change and preserving the planet is only the tip of the iceberg of our dynamic present. As we move towards a future that relies heavily in the advancement of technology and renewable energy to grow and sustain, we at Gensol are striving to energise this change by harnessing capabilities to provide holistic renewable energy solutions to the world. Our goal is to generate long-term value for the shareholders, and we are gradually heading in that direction by implementing several strategic initiatives.

Economic Overview and the EV Growth Story

The pandemic has presented the world with a challenging landscape. Like several other industries, the automotive industry was also deeply affected by the pandemic outbreak and subsequent lockdowns. This also created a significant impact in the EV industry, stalling and deferring projects. That said, India is known as one of the leading EV player globally in terms of sales and given the country's post pandemic economic growth along with conducive policy framework for EV adoption and the Government's ambition to achieve net zero carbon emission by 2070 has led to the EV industry gather momentum.

A Milestone Year at Gensol - Operational and Financial Highlights FY.22

We are delighted at our journey this financial year. The tireless efforts of the team to meet our collective vision of enhancing renewable energy production has augured well for the organisation and fruitful for our clients. These efforts have led to a robust business performance, setting us on a high growth trajectory.

In FY22, the company on consolidated level achieved a total revenue of ₹1,623 million, up by 151% YoY from ₹646 million in FY21. EBITDA improved by 158% whereas PAT improved by 248%.

Let me take this opportunity to walk you through our segmental performance. The Solar EPC Business reported ₹1556.60 million in FY22 grew by 156.22% compared to ₹607.6 million in FY21. The EV Lease Business reported ₹47.4 million in FY22 grew by 47.56% compared to ₹32.1 million in FY21.

THE GENSOL PROMISE OF VALUE CREATION

THE GENSOL PROMISE OF VALUE CREATION

02 Our Strategy for Growth

Leveraging Engineering and Cost-Effective Solutions:
Given the price-sensitive nature of the business, the company is directing efforts at improving delivery through innovation, engineering and cost-effective solutions.

Brand Perception:
The company's presence on the SME platform of the BSE limited is redefining its perception among existing customers and potential clients, a primary reason for its metamorphosis from a small company to a trust solar brand.

Backward Integration in Supply:
In order to increase market share, the company is working towards collaborating with suppliers to gain an edge in supply and pricing of long lead items.

Customer Engagement:
The management at the Company focuses on customer engagement to increase its repeat orders to the tune of 30% of the total order value.

Strong Talent and Young, Passionate Management Team:
Gensol's ever shining pool of a young, dynamic, multi-talented work force has been the hallmark of Gensol's growth story. Most importantly, Gensol's young management with an unflinching spirit to face challenges and remain immutable to risks has been the vital component of its existence.

Use of Technology:
On an operational level, Gensol is renewing its focus on the use of technology for producing high-quality outputs with lower turnaround times. For instance, the company employs drone surveys for rooftops, which help detect minute cracks that are not visible to the naked eye and rectify them. This technology-assisted capability is invaluable both at rooftops and on ground-mounted solar assets. Similarly, Gensol manages its project management through a centralized monitoring mechanism with efficient real-time tracking of its under-construction plants, which helps deliver projects in time, thus, reinforcing trust among its clients, leading to repeat business.

01 Management Discussion & Analysis

Global Economy

The year 2022 was full of peaks and troughs for the global economy. While the world was preparing to recover from the pandemic-induced losses at the start of the fiscal year, the second wave of the pandemic was nerve-wracking both for the people and businesses across the world. Lockdowns, pressure on the medical system, loss of life, restriction movements, supply-chain hurdles had a deep and lasting impact all over the world. While the economies slowly inched towards recovery, the Omicron wave put a partial pause. However, this turned out milder than expected and as the world prepared itself for opening of businesses, we stood face to face with one of the worst humanitarian crises as Russia waged a war on Ukraine. The war coupled with rising cases and downturn in China and the country's Zero-Covid Policy pushed back any economic recovery the world had made.

As per the International Monetary Fund (IMF), the global economic outlook is fairly uncertain and gloomy as it downgrades its projections for the next two years. With surging commodity and fuel costs along with supply-chain challenges from the war are a major catalyst for this forecast. The agency's baseline growth forecast of 6.1% last year has further slowed down to 3.2% for 2022 and 2.9% for the year 2023. This, along with China's economic slowdown, has had severe negative spillovers, with worldwide peaking, it is making decisions for policymakers between promoting growth and containing pricing pressures even more challenging.

As per Euromonitor, inflation is forecast to reach 7.9% in 2022, and towards 5.0% in 2023, compared with 2001-2019 average annual global inflation of 3.8%. This has made central banks across the world to tighten their monetary policies by increasing interest rates. Since March'22, the Federal Reserve has raised interest rates by 1.5%, one of the steepest increases in last decade and signalling more rises to combat this inflation that is running at a 40-year high. The series of interest rate hikes has led to stronger exchange rate in favour of the U.S. dollar and making other currencies weaker.

Against the above tough backdrop, the world economy is anticipated to undergo its greatest downturn in many decades. Global growth is projected to slow from 5.7% in 2021 to 2.9% in 2022 and average 3% in 2023-24, as per World Bank estimates.

Indian Economy

India has emerged as one of the fastest-growing major economies in the world. India is primarily a domestic demand-driven economy with consumption and investments contributing 70% to the country's economic activity. However, the country faced headwinds from global disruptions, geopolitical volatility, high commodity prices and supply chain disturbances. With central banks increasing the interest rates that has resulted in higher demand for US dollars, the rupee witnessed significant depreciation. Consequently, the country saw large portfolio outflows of ~$28bn in FY22 followed up by $13.3bn during the current financial year so far.

01 Management Discussion & Analysis

However, India's factory output, measured by the Index of Industrial Production (IIP) and 8 core industries point towards strengthening of industrial activity, while PMI Manufacturing touched an 8-month high in July 2022 with marked gains in growth of new business and output. As per the IMF, with strong and resilient fundamentals, India is expected to be amongst the fastest growing economies during 2022-23 according to the IMF, with signs of inflation moderating over the course of the year. The RBI anticipates the Indian GDP to grow at 7.2% in FY23 which is in-line with S&P Global rating's forecast of 7.3%.

Solar Power Industry

Solar energy, a renewable, clean source relies on solar panels converting sunlight into electricity and light. In 2021, the renewable energy industry remained remarkably resilient. With rapid technology improvements and decreasing costs of renewable energy resources, along with the increased competitiveness of battery storage, the renewables has become of the most competitive energy sources in many areas. Renewable energy growth is poised to accelerate in 2022, as concern for climate change and support for environmental, social, and governance (ESG) considerations grow and demand for cleaner energy sources from most market segments accelerates.

Despite suffering from supply chain constraints, increased shipping costs, and rising prices for key commodities, capacity installations remained at an all-time high. Wind and solar capacity additions of 13.8 GW in the first eight months of 2021 were up 28% over the same period in 2020. Many cities, states, and utilities set ambitious clean energy goals, increasing renewable portfolio standards and enacting energy storage procurement mandates.

India is endowed with a very vast solar energy potential with most parts of the country receiving about 300 sunny days and an average solar radiation incident over the land in the range of 4-7 kWh per day. Solar energy sector in India has emerged as a significant player in the grid connected power generation capacity over the years. It supports the Government's agenda of sustainable growth, while, emerging as an integral part of the solution to meet the nation's energy needs and an essential player for energy security.

Solar energy has taken a central place in India's National Action Plan on Climate Change with National Solar Mission as one of the key Missions. Launched on 11th January 2010, National Solar Mission (NSM) is a major initiative of the Government of India with active participation from States to promote ecological sustainable growth while addressing India's energy security challenges. It will also constitute a major contribution by India to the global effort to meet the challenges of climate change. In support of above mission, Government of India have launched various schemes to encourage generation of solar power in the country like Solar Park Scheme, VGF Schemes, CPSU Scheme, Defence Scheme, Canal bank & Canal top Scheme, Bundling Scheme, Grid Connected Solar Rooftop Scheme etc. With the gigantic renewable upcoming energy requirement, several big players are venturing into solar manufacturing.

01 Management Discussion & Analysis

Solar EPC Market Outlook

In the Solar Industry, Engineering, Procurement and Construction (EPC) is a term used for providing end-to-end solar services from designing the system, procuring the components, and installing the project.

The global solar EPC market has been displaying a robust growth owing to the renewable integration targets, investment subsidies, and self-consumption scheme, over the last few years. Factors such as the increase in industrial operations and several government initiatives to provide electricity to all people in the country are likely to drive the India power EPC market. However, the low domestic investments and slow processing of projects are expected to restrain the India power EPC market. New and efficient technologies like supercritical and ultra-supercritical coal power plants, along with the government initiative to increase renewable energy share is likely going to create several opportunities for the India power EPC market in the future.

Policy Initiatives

The Union Budget 2022 allocated ₹ 19,500 crore to boost manufacturing of solar modules with priority to fully integrate manufacturing units to solar PV modules under the government's flagship Production Linked Incentive (PLI) scheme. This will facilitate domestic manufacturing for the Government's ambitious goal of 280 GW of installed solar capacity by 2030, while strengthening the domestic solar manufacturing ecosystem, reducing India's import dependence, create jobs, attract investments, and enable the Make in India vision.

Electric Vehicle (EV) Industry

While the electric vehicle (EV) revolution has been top-of-mind for quite some time, FY 2021-22 saw an uptick in EV demand finally materialize. Sales of EVs doubled in 2021 from the previous year to a new record of 6.6 million. Back in 2012, just 120 000 electric cars were sold worldwide. In 2021, more than this number are sold each week. Nearly 10% of global car sales were electric in 2021, four times the market share in 2019. Global sales of electric cars have kept rising in 2022, with 2 million sold in the first quarter, up 75% from the same period in 2021.

The success of EVs is being driven by multiple factors such, primarily with sustained policy support. Public spending on subsidies and incentives for EVs nearly doubled in 2021 to nearly USD 30 billion. A growing number of countries have pledged to phase out internal combustion engines or have ambitious vehicle electrification targets for the coming decades. Meanwhile, several carmakers have plans to electrify their fleets that go further than policy targets. Five times newer EV models were available in 2021 than in 2015, increasing the attractiveness for consumers.

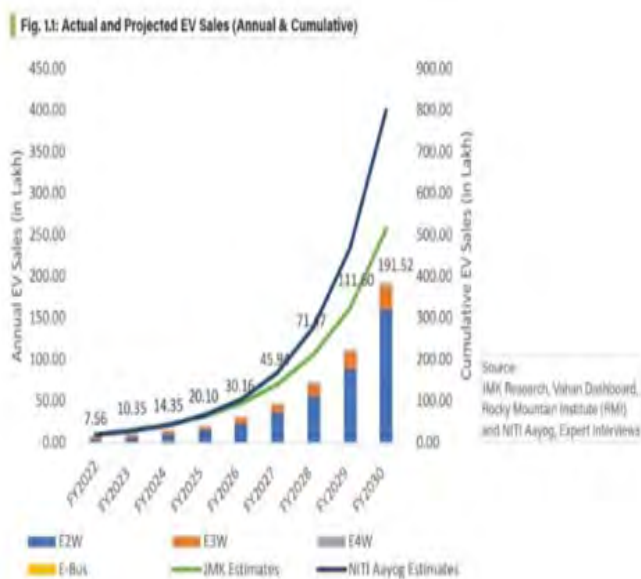

01 Management Discussion & Analysis

The case for immediate electrification of consumer transport is undeniable. The transport sector accounts for about 17% of global greenhouse gas emissions and stimulating supply and demand for electric-vehicle (EV) adoption in the mass market will be pivotal for Asian countries to meet national emissions goals and a global 1.5-degree climate change target. EVs are gaining attention across EV ecosystem development is a major opportunity to seize significant growth through new green business-building endeavours. Global EV sales reported 11 million units in 2021 and expected to grow at CAGR of 28% by 2026.

Source: India Business Economy Forum (IBEF), Mordor Intelligence

India's EV Market

The Indian automobile industry is expected to become the third largest by 2030. Despite, the EV industry being at a nascent stage in the country. It stands at less than 1% of the total vehicle sales against global share of 8.3%.

So far, the growth in India's EV market was primarily attributed to progressive state policies and encouraging incentives under FAME-II. Going ahead, however, when FAME-II ends in 2024 and most of the state-driven policies end by 2025, the market will grow on its own on the foundation of a strong EV ecosystem. India's EV adoption will then vary widely based on the type, end-use, and price of the vehicle in the market.

It is expected that the early wave of electric mobility in India (till FY 2025) will be driven by public and shared mobility, including last-mile connectivity services, and not by private cars. It is with this assumption, and the overall development of charging infrastructure, that estimates cumulative EV sales to reach approximately five crores by FY 2030.

The Government of India's think-tank NITI Aayog's analyses of the success of FAME II and other measures shows that India could realize EV sales penetration of 30% of private cars, 70% of commercial cars, 40% of buses and 80% of two and three-wheelers by 2030. Against this, our growth projections indicate that at the current growth rates and projected CAGR of 49.79% in annual sales till FY 2030, India may only achieve 5 crore EV sales. To achieve higher sales penetration, more policy, infrastructure and industry support is needed.

The EV push in India opens a plethora of business opportunities across three key segments – mobility, infrastructure, and energy. These prospects, among others, include those in the battery infrastructure, solar vehicle charging, EV OEM market, EV franchising, and battery swapping technologies. NITI Aayog estimates that a total investment of US$ 267 billion (Rs. 19.7 lakh crore) in EVs, battery infrastructure, and charging infrastructure is needed to make the full transition to Evs.

01 Management Discussion & Analysis

Despite this, EVs have a long road ahead due to the challenges of high battery prices, inadequate charging infrastructure, cost of overall electric vehicle much higher than the existing internal combustion engine (ICE) vehicles, among others. However, the limelight the space is getting along with the billions of dollars of investment worldwide, the technology is evolving every day and EVs are likely to become a norm sooner than later.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

Management's Responsibility for the Standalone Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these standalone financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the standalone financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

In preparing the standalone financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Standalone Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the standalone financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these standalone financial statements.

03 Auditor's Report | Standalone

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the standalone financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(l) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the standalone financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the standalone financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the standalone financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the standalone financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the standalone financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the standalone financial statements.

INDEPENDENT AUDITOR'S REPORT

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the standalone financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Annexure – A to Independent Auditor's Report on Standalone Financial Statements (Referred to in paragraph 2(f) under 'Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements' section of our report to the members of GENSOL ENGINEERING LIMITED of even date)

Report on the Internal Financial Controls Over Financial Reporting under Clause (i) of Sub-section 3 of Section 143 of the Companies Act, 2013 ('the Act')

We have audited the internal financial controls over financial reporting of GENSOL ENGINEERING LIMITED ('the Company'), as of 31st March 2022 in conjunction with our audit of the Standalone Financial Statements of the Company for the period ended and as on that date.

Management's Responsibility for Internal Financial Controls

The Company's management is responsible for establishing and maintaining internal financial controls based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note on Audit of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India (the 'Guidance Note'). These responsibilities include the design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls that were operating effectively for ensuring the orderly and efficient conduct of its business, including adherence to Company's policies, the safeguarding of its assets, the prevention and detection of frauds and errors, the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, and the timely preparation of reliable financial information, as required under the Companies Act, 2013.

Auditors' Responsibility

Our responsibility is to express an opinion on the Company's internal financial controls over financial reporting based on our audit. We conducted our audit in accordance with the Standards on Auditing prescribed under Section 143(10) of the Act and the Guidance Note, to the extent applicable to an audit of internal financial controls. Those Standards and the Guidance Note require that we comply with the ethical requirements and plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether adequate internal financial controls over financial reporting was established and maintained and if such controls operated effectively in all material respects.

Our audit involves performing procedures to obtain audit evidence about the adequacy of the internal financial controls system over financial reporting and their operating effectiveness. Our audit of internal financial controls over financial reporting included obtaining an understanding of Internal financial controls over financial reporting, assessing the risk that a material weakness exists, and testing and evaluating the design and operating effectiveness of internal control based on the assessed risk. The procedures selected depend on the auditors' judgment, including the assessment of the risks of material misstatement of the Standalone Financial Statements, whether due to fraud or error.

We believe that the audit evidence we have obtained is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our audit opinion on the Company's internal financial controls system over financial reporting.

03 Auditor's Report | Standalone

Meaning of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

A company's internal financial control over financial reporting is a process designed to provide reasonable assurance regarding the reliability of financial reporting and the preparation of Standalone Financial Statements for external purposes in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles. A company's internal financial control over financial reporting includes those policies and procedures that (1) Pertain to the maintenance of records that, in reasonable detail, accurately and fairly reflect the transactions and dispositions of the assets of the company; (2) Provide reasonable assurance that transactions are recorded as necessary to permit preparation of Standalone Financial Statements in accordance with generally accepted accounting principles, and that receipts and expenditures of the company are being made only in accordance with authorizations of management and directors of the company; and (3) Provide reasonable assurance regarding prevention or timely detection of unauthorized acquisition, use, or disposition of the company's assets that could have a material effect on the Standalone Financial Statements.

Inherent Limitations of Internal Financial Controls over Financial Reporting

Because of the inherent limitations of internal financial controls over financial reporting, including the possibility of collusion or improper management override of controls, material misstatements due to error or fraud may occur and not be detected. Also, projections of any evaluation of the internal financial controls over financial reporting to future periods are subject to the risk that the internal financial controls over financial reporting may become inadequate because of changes in conditions, or that the degree of compliance with the policies or procedures may deteriorate.

Opinion

In our opinion and to the best of our information and according to the explanations given to us, the Company has, in all material respects, adequate internal financial controls system over financial reporting and such internal financial controls over financial reporting were operating effectively as at September 30, 2018, based on the internal control over financial reporting criteria established by the Company considering the essential components of internal control stated in the Guidance Note.

The Company has entered into lease agreement for taking car on lease having a lease period of 3 to 6 years. The Company has several lease contracts that includes lock-in period and extension/ termination options. The Company applies judgment in evaluating whether it is reasonably certain whether or not to exercise the option to renew or terminate the lease. That is, it considers all relevant factors that create a economic incentive for it to exercise either the renewal or termination.

As of now, the Company's management has estimated that it may not to opt for the further extension/renewal of the agreement and consider only lock-in period as mentioned in the agreement due to frequent changes in technological environment. The lock in period as mentioned in the lease agreement is much lesser than the useful life of the asset and also the control of the assets will not get transferred to the Company at the end of the entire tenure of lease period. Therefore, the Company has considered these leases as operating lease and accounted for accordingly.

Information Other than the Financial Statements and Auditor's Report Thereon

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the other information. The other information comprises the Directors' Report including Annexures to the Directors' Report but does not include the consolidated financial statements and our auditor's report thereon. The other information is expected to be made available to us after the date of this auditor's report.

Our opinion on the consolidated financial statements does not cover the other information and we will not express any form of assurance conclusion thereon. In connection with our audit of the consolidated financial statements, our responsibility is to read the other information identified above when it becomes available and, in doing so, consider whether the other information is materially inconsistent with the consolidated financial statements or our knowledge obtained during the course of our audit or otherwise appears to be materially misstated.

When we read the other Information, if we conclude that there is a material misstatement therein, we are required to communicate the matter to those charged with governance as required under SA 720 'The Auditor's responsibilities Relating to Other Information'.

Management's Responsibility for the Consolidated Financial Statements

The Company's Board of Directors is responsible for the matters stated in section 134(5) of the Act with respect to the preparation of these Consolidated financial statements that give a true and fair view of the financial position, financial performance and cash flows of the Company in accordance with the Accounting Standards specified under section 133 of the Act and other accounting principles generally accepted in India. This responsibility also includes maintenance of adequate accounting records in accordance with the provisions of the Act for safeguarding the assets of the Company and for preventing and detecting frauds and other irregularities; selection and application of appropriate accounting policies; making judgments and estimates that are reasonable and prudent; and design, implementation and maintenance of adequate internal financial controls, that were operating effectively for ensuring the accuracy and completeness of the accounting records, relevant to the preparation and presentation of the Consolidated financial statement that give a true and fair view and are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error.

05 Auditor Report | Consolidated

In preparing the Consolidated financial statements, management is responsible for assessing the Company's ability to continue as a going concern, disclosing, as applicable, matters related to going concern and using the going concern basis of accounting unless management either intends to liquidate the Company or to cease operations, or has no realistic alternative but to do so.

Those Board of Directors are also responsible for overseeing the Company's financial reporting process.

Auditor's Responsibility for the Audit of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Our objectives are to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the consolidated financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether due to fraud or error, and to issue an auditor's report that includes our opinion. Reasonable assurance is a high level of assurance, but is not a guarantee that an audit conducted in accordance with SAs will always detect a material misstatement when it exists. Misstatements can arise from fraud or error and are considered material if, individually or in the aggregate, they could reasonably be expected to influence the economic decisions of users taken on the basis of these Consolidated financial statements.

As part of an audit in accordance with SAs, we exercise professional judgment and maintain professional skepticism throughout the audit. We also:

- Identify and assess the risks of material misstatement of the Consolidated financial statements, whether due to fraud or error, design and perform audit procedures responsive to those risks, and obtain audit evidence that is sufficient and appropriate to provide a basis for our opinion. The risk of not detecting a material misstatement resulting from fraud is higher than for one resulting from error, as fraud may involve collusion, forgery, intentional omissions, misrepresentations, or the override of internal control.
- Obtain an understanding of internal financial control relevant to the audit in order to design audit procedures that are appropriate in the circumstances. Under section 143(3)(l) of the Act, we are also responsible for expressing our opinion on whether the Company has adequate internal financial controls system in place and the operating effectiveness of such controls.
- Evaluate the appropriateness of accounting policies used and the reasonableness of accounting estimates and related disclosures made by the management.
- Conclude on the appropriateness of management's use of the going concern basis of accounting and, based on the audit evidence obtained, whether a material uncertainty exists related to events or conditions that may cast significant doubt on the Company's ability to continue as a going concern. If we conclude that a material uncertainty exists, we are required to draw attention in our auditor's report to the related disclosures in the Consolidated financial statements or, if such disclosures are inadequate, to modify our opinion. Our conclusions are based on the audit evidence obtained up to the date of our auditor's report. However, future events or conditions may cause the Company to cease to continue as a going concern.
- Evaluate the overall presentation, structure and content of the consolidated financial statements, including the disclosures, and whether the consolidated financial statements represent the underlying transactions and events in a manner that achieves fair presentation.

05 Auditor Report | Consolidated

Materiality is the magnitude of misstatements in the consolidated financial statements that, individually or in aggregate, makes it probable that the economic decisions of a reasonably knowledgeable user of the consolidated financial statements may be influenced. We consider quantitative materiality and qualitative factors in (i) planning the scope of our audit work and in evaluating the results of our work; and (ii) to evaluate the effect of any identified misstatements in the consolidated financial statements.

We communicate with those charged with governance regarding, among other matters, the planned scope and timing of the audit and significant audit findings, including any significant deficiencies in internal control that we identify during our audit.

We also provide those charged with governance with a statement that we have complied with relevant ethical requirements regarding independence, and to communicate with them all relationships and other matters that may reasonably be thought to bear on our independence, and where applicable, related safeguards.

From the matters communicated with those charged with governance, we determine those matters that were of most significance in the audit of the consolidated financial statements of the current period and are therefore the key audit matters. We describe these matters in our auditor's report unless law or regulation precludes public disclosure about the matter or when, in extremely rare circumstances, we determine that a matter should not be communicated in our report because the adverse consequences of doing so would reasonably be expected to outweigh the public interest benefits of such communication.

Report on Other Legal and Regulatory Requirements

Note : The Company evaluates impairment losses on the items of property, plant and equipment whenever events or changes in circumstances indicate that their carrying amounts may not be recoverable. If such assets are considered to be impaired, the impairment loss is then recognised for the amount by which the carrying amount of the assets exceeds its recoverable amount, which is the higher of an asset's net selling price and value in use. For the purpose of assessing impairment, assets are grouped at the smallest level for which there are separately identifiable cash flows. The Management has reviewed the recoverability of the assets and has concluded that no indication of impairment exists and hence, no impairment of asset is required.

The Company has entered into lease agreement for taking car on lease having a lease period of 3 to 6 years. The Company has several lease contracts that includes lock-in period and extension/ termination options. The Company applies judgment in evaluating whether it is reasonably certain whether or not to exercise the option to renew or terminate the lease. That is, it considers all relevant factors that create a economic incentive for it to exercise either the renewal or termination.

As of now, the Company's management has estimated that it may not to opt for the further extension/renewal of the agreement and consider only lock-in period as mentioned in the agreement due to frequent changes in technological environment. The lock in period as mentioned in the lease agreement is much lesser than the useful life of the asset and also the control of the assets will not get transferred to the Company at the end of the entire tenure of lease period. Therefore, the company has considered these leases as operating lease and accounted for accordingly.
