Dear Sirs,

NDTV founders Mrs. Radhika Roy and Dr. Prannoy Roy were today prevented from leaving the country; they were scheduled to spend a week abroad; their tickets back to India were bought for August 15, 2019. They have been stopped from traveling abroad on the basis of wholly unsubstantiated corruption case filed by the CBI about an ICICI loan that was taken by their company, RRPR Holding Pvt. Ltd, which was fully repaid with interest ahead of schedule. The case has been challenged in the Hon'ble Delhi High Court by RRPR, owned by the NDTV founders, which has stake in NDTV. The matter has been pending there for two years. Mrs. Radhika Roy and Dr. Prannoy Roy have been fully cooperating with the case. The authorities did not inform the Court, where the matter is sub-judice, or the Roys, about today's action.

You are requested to take the same on record.

Thanking you

Yours faithfully,

For New Delhi Television Limited
